

Record Crowds to Flock to Klamath Churches Easter

"And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away; for it was very great."

NAZARENE CHURCH TO PRESENT THEME

The Church of the Nazarene, corner of Garden and Martin, will observe Easter with appropriate services at 9:45 a. m., 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

At the Sunday school hour at 9:45 o'clock, the several classes will present the resurrection theme in song and story with a special arrangement by the boys' chorus under the direction of Olive Spry.

At 11, the pastor will speak on the theme, "Gateways of the Open Tomb." The choir will present, "The Stone is Rolled Away," and the ladies' trio, composed of Mrs. Ruth Schwab, Olive Spry and Marie Wright, will sing "He Lives Again," by Mabel West.

At the 7:30 hour the church choir will sing "The Victorious Christ," an Easter cantata by Haldor Lillenas, with T/Sgt. Philip Schwab as narrator of the resurrection story paralleling the rendition of the various musical arrangements.

SUNRISE SERVICE TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Easter Day services at the Community Congregational church begin with the annual sunrise service at 6:30 a. m., conducted by officers and members of the young people's society, "Comrades of the Way." Juanita Shinn has arranged the order of worship. Lois Larson, president, is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

At 9:30 a. m. and 11 a. m., morning prayer and sermon. "Welcome, Happy Morning," is the title of the sermon to be preached at both services by Rev. Godfrey Matthews. The choir, accompanied by Mrs. H. S. Stone, and conducted by Mrs. Clifford A. Clayton, will lead the congregational singing, and Mrs. R. E. Thompson will sing the solos, "The Holy Hour," "Hear's-Nevin," and "An Easter Story," W. M. Paisley. The chimes and the service preludes will be played by Charles Shinn.

UNION MISSION PLANS PROGRAM

Easter services at the Union mission, 251 Commercial, will be held at 5 o'clock Sunday morning. There will be special singing with a solo by Mrs. Daniels, "The Confused World." The sermon will be given by the pastor, "The Risen Christ."

Black Out at Noon

The sun dimmed at noon that Friday and darkness settled over the land. Christ, bearing His cross had gone forth to a place called Golgotha and there they crucified Him.

Dying, God laid on Him the sins of us all. The blackest crimes of the lowest human brutes. All that is vile, Christ became. He who knew no sin was born into the world to become sin for us. Know your Bible—2nd Cor. 5:21.

In that hour, Christ reached out and drew to Himself all the pains of hell. He took all the woe that we would have suffered out in eternity. We earned it—Christ took it. He paid in full for us. He Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree. Herein is love. Not that we loved God but that He loved us and gave us His Son to die for our sins.—BIBLE SAYS IT.

Feelings or no feelings, you have eternal life when your heart can say that the blood of Jesus Christ has cleansed away all your sins. He died for your sins and arose from the grave to give you new life. Look to Him. Live by Power From On High. So comes hope, joy and peace.

Nazareth, which was crucified. He is not here; behold the place where they laid Him.

These comforting words of the resurrection will be read from thousands of pulpits over the Christian world Easter Sunday.

Churches in Klamath Falls have prepared special services throughout the day to give comfort and hope to those who fill the houses of worship this Easter.

Music will stress the resurrection theme and ministers are anticipating the largest congregations on this fourth wartime Easter. On this page will be found the special services as planned by the various churches.

SPECIAL SERVICE PLANNED BY CHURCH

Immanuel Baptist church plans special Easter services this Sunday with beautiful musical selections including those by the mixed quartet.

Evening services will feature a baptismal service.

Those who have not yet seen the beautiful oil canvas painting, "Jordan River," by Mrs. Rose Cone, are especially invited to attend evening services at 7:30 o'clock with the Rev. Charles J. Sundstrom officiating.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH TO OBSERVE EASTER

The Easter Sunday services at St. Paul's Episcopal church were announced this week by the Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach, rector. There will be choral celebration of Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. At 10 a. m., the Easter service for children of the church school will be held, with presentation of the mite boxes at this time.

The 11 o'clock service will be the choral celebration of the Holy Communion, sermon and burning of the rectory marriage.

Easter services will be held at 3 p. m. at St. Barnabas church at Langell valley.

LUTHERAN CHURCH TO HOLD SERVICES

Zion Lutheran church, 1025 High, will hold festival services on Easter morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Victor A. Schulze, basing his sermon on John 20, 20, will speak on the topic: "Our Easter Joy."

Holy communion will be celebrated in connection with this service. The senior choir under the direction of Martin Bendin will sing two selections, "Christ Is Risen," a traditional Easter hymn, and "He Is Risen," by Simper, an Easter anthem. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Council of Church Women Will Meet

The Council of Church Women will meet at Immanuel Baptist church on No. 11th on Monday afternoon, April 2. There will be an executive committee meeting at 1 p. m. and at 2 p. m. the regular program will be presented by the League of Women Voters on the Dumbarton Oaks proposals.

Tea will be served following the meeting, and all church women are urged to be present.

Easter Services Will Be Held at Altamont Sunday

The Easter service at Altamont, Community Presbyterian church will be held Sunday, April 1, at 11 o'clock in the Altamont Junior high school building, So. 6th and Summers Lane. Rev. Hugh T. Mitchellmore is the pastor. The Easter cantata, "Victorious King," will be presented.

Chorus, "Jesus Reigns," also solo, "A Savior Reigns," and duet, "The Lord Who Came to Earth."

Basses and choir, "Blessed is the King."

Soprano and also duet, "O City Neath a Darkening Sky."

Trio for men's voices and choir, "Citizenship."

Tenors and choir, "Will Ye Crucify This Jesus?"

Basses and chorus, "The Crucifixion."

Men's two-part chorus, "This Was the Son of God."

Chorus, "The Master Lies Asleep."

Worship through our offerings. Easter thought by the pastor.

Come to Church EASTER.

"Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the Lord hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted." When the exultant Easter bells chime next Sunday . . . insistently reminding us that HE IS RISEN . . . bidding us to keep hope and faith alive, let Him find you in His house, your church. Unite with your friends and neighbors and with people throughout the world in a prayer of thankfulness for His Resurrection . . . a prayer for the souls of those bereaved . . . a prayer for all enduring faith, for strength, for hope. The strain of war has disheartened many of us. We are often so blinded that we cannot see Christ's outstretched hand. Accept His invitation . . . come to church, Easter.

Baptist Church to Present Special Easter Service

The combined youth and adult choirs of the First Baptist church will present the greatest Easter service ever attempted by the church Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Besides the regular services of the day, the pastor will deliver the Easter message at 11 a. m.

Algoma

Mrs. Deaver Mendenhall, Mrs. Frances Bowen, Mrs. Newt Walker, Mrs. Gene Gratton and Mrs. Julio Gonzales, members of the Algoma Red Cross unit, met at the schoolhouse March 28. They had a potluck dinner and tied six baby quilts. These women have completed 38 ditty bags and eleven quilt tops in a week's time.

Mrs. Gertrude Hagelstein and Mrs. Oscar Sorenson have each completed two quilt tops.

Mrs. Virginia Willman, Mrs. George Hagelstein and Miss Marie Hagelstein are regular members whose names did not appear in the preceding notice.

Anyone having a sewing machine and willing to loan it to the Red Cross chapter, please write Mrs. Mendenhall, route 3, box 1211, Klamath Falls, Ore. The regular meeting will be April 4.

At 6:15 p. m. the Training Union meets for special programs. A special service for the service men will be the roll call and patriotic service immediately preceding the cantata. The program for the evening follows: Congregational singing led by H. G. Shirey.

Prayer. Announcements. Offering.

Violin solo, Mrs. L. C. Hornby, Schubert's "Ave Maria" Mrs. George McIntyre accompanist.

"Thy Life Was Given for Me," soprano solo, Miriam Webster.

"Alleluia, He is Risen," choir, women's chorus, and men's chorus.

Benediction, pastor.

Coos Bay Faces Manpower Shortage

COOS BAY, March 30 (AP)—A critical manpower shortage in Coos Bay's essential industries has resulted in a plea from Mayor E. E. Fitzwalter that citizens enroll for part-time work.

Evening hours contributed by school teachers, businessmen, high school students and others may enable the plants to maintain production schedules, Fitzwalter said.

Spiritual Bondage

Shall the church observe such days as Easter and others of which we have no command of the Lord? Paul said to the Galatians, "But now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly rudiments, whereunto ye desire to be in bondage over again? Ye observe days, and months, and seasons, and years, I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labor upon you in vain." (Gal. 4:9-11).
