

Annual Spring Tea To Be Given in April

The annual spring bridge tea, given by the guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, will be held on Saturday, April 7, at the Willard hotel. Cards will begin at 1:15, and those who plan to play during the afternoon are asked to bring their own covers and cards. Several prizes are to be awarded for various games.

Mrs. R. Henry Anderson is the general chairman in charge of arrangements, and will be assisted by Mrs. Carl Michelson.

Hazel Morrison will be in charge of prizes, Mrs. Horace Getz, reservations, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, refreshments, and Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins, tables. Pouring during the afternoon will be Mrs. Frederick C. Wisenbach, Mrs. A. Briscoe Hood, Mrs. Edward B. Goekner and Mrs. Ernest J. Howell. A group of younger girls are to assist about the rooms, including Patricia Benoit, Nanette Schuberl, Betty Glidden, Ramona Reed, Katharine Newman, Joanne Bennett, Edith Wissenbach and Ann Reed.

Reservations for the tea may be made by calling Mrs. Horace Getz at 5269, Mrs. Edward H. Kliever at 5283, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke at 6043, or Mrs. Lane Warren at 6732.

Sojourners

The regular meeting of Sojourners was held on Wednesday, March 29, at the Willard hotel, and the group enjoyed an afternoon of cards with Mrs. R. G. Fisher and Mrs. Ben Gibson as hostesses.

In the absence of the president of the club, Mrs. Byron Friedman, who is visiting in Chicago, and the vice president, Mrs. W. B. Yates, who is in California, the brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Andre Lambert, secretary of the club. Mrs. L. N. Burke was a guest of the club at this time.

Prizes of defense stamps were awarded in bridge to Mrs. Lloyd Young and Mrs. Juanita Bakke, and in pinocle to Mrs. Andre Lambert.

Sojourners meet every second and fourth Wednesday at 1:45 in the Willard hotel, and a no-hostess luncheon at 12:30 is optional for those who care to meet friends for a social hour prior to the afternoon's meeting.

All newcomers are cordially invited to attend the regular meetings, and all those who have lived here eighteen months or less are eligible for membership.

Shower Given

A miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. Rex Thexton for her sister-in-law, Mrs. George McClean, the former Rosalie Thexton, at her home in the Midland district on Thursday, March 22.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were opened by the guest of honor, after which refreshments were served to Mrs. Ole Corbell, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mrs. Florence Young, Mrs. Mildred Young, Mrs. Fred Collins, Mrs. Jewel Henry, Mrs. Vera Thexton, Mrs. W. S. Thexton, Mrs. Weldon Younce, Mrs. Henry Milligan, Mrs. George Manning, Mrs. Otto McElroy, Mrs. Robert Higdon, Mrs. Warren Combs, Mrs. Wayne Corbell, Mrs. Ray Brownrigg, Mrs. William Foot, June Wonsor, Lois Milligan and Margie Britton.

Color Eggs

Junior girls of the American Legion auxiliary colored Easter eggs for the USO on Saturday morning, meeting at 10 o'clock at the Legion hall. A short business meeting was held, followed by lunch.

Arrangements for the affair were handled by Mrs. H. H. Ogle, vice president of the Klamath unit, number 8.

Fairview Troop

The 30 members of Girl Scout troop 18 of Fairview school, at their regular meeting on Tuesday, March 27, gave a farewell surprise party for their leader, Mrs. Burt Thompson and her daughter, Shirley, a member of the troop. They are leaving on Tuesday, April 3, to make their home in Ventura, California.

Mrs. Oliver Powell, who was assistant leader, will now be leader, and Mrs. Vern Whitlatch will be assistant.

This troop has been especially active under the leadership of Mrs. Thompson. They have bought a double cabinet for their supplies at school and also the American and their troop flags. The girls have been most active in working for their awards and the majority will be entitled to attendance and service pins for their work this year.

Five of the scouts made assorted cookies which were served with ice cream for refreshments, and a miscellaneous shower of gifts was presented Mrs. Thompson and Shirley in appreciation for their generous work for the good record of this troop.

Birthday Party

Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger was hostess at a birthday party in honor of her husband on Thursday evening, March 29, at 8 o'clock at their home, 1202 N. 6th. Pinocle was played during the evening, after which refreshments were served from a table centered with a low bowl of daffodils and tall yellow and green paper.

Guests at the affair included Chief Pharmacist's Mate and Mrs. Jack A. Noble, Virginia Morin, Chief Bowman Webb Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Downing and Mr. and Mrs. Terwilliger.

Herald and News

SOCIETY

By Joan Campbell

Spring Musicales Slated April 9

One of the most enjoyable programs of the year, arranged for the pleasure of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club, is scheduled for Monday afternoon, April 9, at 2 o'clock when the annual spring musicale will be given in the main auditorium of the city library.

Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, who has been music chairman for Library club for a number of years, announced this program would be presented by Klamath Falls talent.

Among those who will take part are Mr. and Mrs. John Best, Mrs. Lewis Hornby, Mrs. Edwin Schneebeck and Lloyd Williamson. In a string trio will be Mr. Best, cello; Mrs. Best, piano, and Mrs. Hornby, violin. There will also be cello solos by Mr. Best, vocal solos by Mrs. Schneebeck, soprano, and Mr. Williamson, tenor, will be included in the program, as well as duet numbers by the two.

Mrs. Zumwalt said this week that a complete program would appear in next Saturday's issue.

An especially large attendance is expected at the April 9 meeting, as the spring musicale is always one of the most keenly anticipated programs of the year. All members of Library club are invited to attend by Mrs. Glenn Kent, president.

BPW April Party

An April party is planned for the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club on Monday evening, April 2, after the 6:30 o'clock dinner hour at the Willard hotel. Past presidents are in charge of the affair.

The membership has been divided into groups, according to birth months, and each group has been asked to present a skit. From talk picked up here and there, this entertainment promises to provide an hour of comedy.

Until further announcement, members planning to come for dinner, who do not have standing reservations, are asked to call Hattie Evans at 7354, before Monday noon instead of Jacqueline Newcom who is out of the city for a time.

The finance committee of the club, headed by Anne Hallett, is working on plans for a rummage sale to be held later this spring to raise money for the Chinese Nurses' fund, one of the organization's main projects. Members are urged to save their rummage and white elephant articles for this sale and, if necessary, articles may be stored at Uhlig's Electric store by Willie Uhlig, otherwise they may be saved at home.

Date of the next executive board meeting is April 9, when Jean Rawling and Beulah Elliott will be co-hostesses.

Executive Board

The executive board of the Camp Fire Girls organization held its regular session on Tuesday evening, March 20, at the chamber of commerce, with Mrs. John McFee, president, conducting the business meeting. A report by the camp chairman, Mrs. A. Souther, was given concerning plans for the cleaning up and maintenance of the summer camp as detailed by the committee selected jointly from the Girl Scouts and Camp Fire. Further ideas for added living units, landscaping the grounds, and improved comfort facilities were discussed.

Mrs. Jewell Cantrall, local executive secretary, spoke of the Camp Fire birthday celebrated March 17, with the "Hi Neighbor" radio program over KFJL. Also mentioned was the interesting display in Moe's window of work done by various girls' groups in the council. Mrs. Cantrall was commended for her successful efforts in these activities. A training school for executive secretaries will be in session on two different dates, June 25 and July 29. A short training course for council members was also recommended.

Mrs. McFee has appointed as chairmen for the year, Mrs. E. A. Moore, social; Mrs. Ray Oldenburg, extension; Mrs. A. J. McDonald, awards; Mr. J. A. Souther, camp.

Wedding Bells

Wedding bells rang February 4, for Sgt. Eddie C. Owens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed H. Owens of 2144 Vine, and Rose Ann Warner.

The bride is the daughter of Sgt. Warner, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and Pvt. Ann Warner, Robins Field, Georgia, whose home is in Wisconsin.

The marriage was solemnized at noon in the post chapel with the army chaplain officiating. PFC Gloria Owens, sister of the groom acted as bridesmaid. The bride wore a yellow suit with a shoulder corsage of red roses.

Brother of the bride, Earl Warner served as best man.

Sgt. Owens was born in Klamath Falls and lived here, attending local schools. He attended Sacramento junior college for two years prior to entering the service. He has been in the army for two years, taking special training and instructing in the United States.

On Committee

Mary Minton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Minton of Pacific Terrace, is a member of the freshman committee which competed in the annual Milwauke-Downer college "Senior Cabaret" on Saturday night, March 24.

With the general theme "Thing to Come," each class production was focused on the future. A cup was awarded to the class producing the most original skit.

WHILE HER HUSBAND is in Klamath Falls inspecting the Marine Barracks, Mrs. Julian C. Smith, wife of Major General Smith, has been entertained on the post by Mrs. George O. Van Orden with a number of luncheons and dinners as well as a tea dance. Shown here in the Hostess House is Mrs. Van Orden, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. L. T. Coggeshall and Mrs. A. C. Cottrell, hostess.

Soroptimists

State Representative Rose M. Poole was the speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist club at the Willard hotel on Wednesday, March 28.

Mrs. Poole outlined the work of the legislature, and related many of her personal experiences as a new member of the house. Conscientious, hard work was the keynote of the sessions just concluded, she stated, and not only were current bills deliberated, but old business in the form of bills introduced in former years, was brought up for consideration.

Since the first sessions of the Oregon legislature, when taxation and education problems were the bulk of the business conducted, there has been such an increase in work to be done, that the designated term for its accomplishment.

Mrs. Poole concluded her remarks by saying that she returned home with respect for her fellow workers and renewed faith in human nature.

Songs by Alice Wells and Bud Selby, in duet, accompanied by Barbara Zinn at the piano, were received with appreciation and applause by the audience.

Distinguished guests were Mrs. Julian C. Smith, wife of Maj. Gen. Smith and Mrs. George O. Van Orden, wife of Col. Van Orden. Introduced by Mrs. Olive Cornett, they responded graciously, remarking about the hospitality they had found in Klamath Falls. Jean Thompson and Dorothy Gilchrist, members of the Venture club, also were guests of the Soroptimist club.

Betty Buchanan Marries In Kansas

Betty Jeanne Buchanan, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tim J. Buchanan, became the bride of Lt. Richard Henry Merritt of the army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Merritt Sr., of Pacific Grove, California, in a ceremony which took place on Saturday evening, March 17, at 8 o'clock. The wedding was held at the Walker army air force chapel at Victoria, Kansas, with Chaplain Elliott officiating.

Mrs. Merritt chose a tailored beige suit with pink accessories for her wedding. Agnes Turman of Hays, Kansas, was the maid of honor, and Lt. Robert Short stood as best man. The bride was given away by Lt. Arthur Cart.

Proceeding the ceremony, Chaplain Cooper played "I Love You Truly" and "Liebestraum," as well as the traditional wedding marches. Following the wedding, a reception was held at the officers' club at the base.

The young couple plan to live in Hays, Kansas, until the groom reports for overseas duty. Mrs. Merritt attended Armstrong college at Berkeley, California, after graduating from Klamath Union high school with the class of 1942.

Lt. Merritt was attending the University of California at Berkeley when called into the service.

Stork Party

A party and stork shower was held by members of the Oregon Needle club in place of their regular meeting when they gathered at the home of Mrs. Louise Biehn on Wednesday, March 21.

Elsie Sauer, a member of the club, was the guest of honor for the stork shower, and the rooms of the Biehn home were decorated in the Easter motif, with a low bowl of sweet peas centering the refreshment table. Games were played during the evening, with prizes going to Ava Whitlatch and Ruth O'Hara.

Guests included Margie Lambo, Christine Metcalf, Mildred Brown, Hazel Cofer, Ava Whitlatch, Grace Condry, Ivy Propp, Hazel Samson, Alma Garrison, Ruth O'Hara, Elsie Sauer, the guest of honor, and the hostess, Louise Biehn.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Hazel Cofer on April 4.

Wins Contest

Mary Jo Hallett of Klamath Falls won the seventh annual national high school oratorical contest sponsored by the American Legion, in the district runoff held at the Southern Oregon College of Education on March 23. The runner-up was Elliott Mochlenbacher of Roseburg.

The subject of the orations was "The Constitution of the United States." Winners of the contest will go to the state final to be held in Portland. The winner of the national contest will receive a four-year scholarship. Previous national winners have come from Illinois, California, Michigan and Georgia.

Saturday Party

On Saturday, March 24, Barbara Rae Osborn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dean H. Osborn of Lawrence street, was hostess at an informal party at her home. Guests enjoyed dancing and cards followed by supper later in the evening.

Those on the guest list included Donna Morehouse, Ella Talow, Charline Harman, Eleanor Thomas, Mary Havens, Jane Mason, Britta Lyon, June Hauger, Dorothy O'Malley, Shirley Ann Mason, Dorothy Dewey, Jim Clabby, Ted Igl, George Long, Bill Mead, Steve Stone, Malcolm Epley Jr., Bill Radcliffe, Bob Riggs, George Ray, Jim Case, Bob McLean, Bill Perrin, Dave Henthorne, Bill Abbey, Cowell Barnstable, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Perkins, and the hostess.

Tenth Birthday

Gloria Stolk celebrated her tenth birthday on Saturday, March 24, when her mother entertained a group of young friends at their home on Eldorado. Games were played, after which refreshments were served to Kathleen McIntee, Linda Ellis, Janice Larson, Janice Ray, Judith Garner, Mary Jane Berry, Donna Phillips, Jo Antonette Brandesky, Paula Ann Cook, Carol Stolk, Claudette Brandesky, Mrs. Troy Cook, Mrs. Harry Berry, Mrs. Joe Brandesky and the hostess, Mrs. William Stolk.

Ladies Golf

The Reames ladies golf opening will be held on Friday, April 6, at the Reames Golf and Country club. Golf will be played in the morning, weather permitting, after which a basket lunch will be enjoyed by members and guests at 1 o'clock. Coffee will be served by a committee, followed by bridge in the afternoon.

Hostesses for the day, which will include officers and committee chairmen, will be Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mrs. H. E. Hauger, Mrs. Matt Finnigan, Mrs. E. M. Raymond, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Robert Sproat Sr., and Mrs. L. D. Stephens.

Easter Guests

Audrey Honzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Honzel of Klamath Falls, will have as guests over the Easter holidays three of her freshman classmates from Maryhurst college. The guests will be Mary Margaret Corrigan of Spokane, Ann Layman of Portland and Florence Quigley of Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

Garden Club

Basic flower arrangements will be discussed at the April meeting of the Klamath Falls Garden club, slated for Monday, April 2, at 2 p. m., in the library club rooms.

This is the first time the club has met under the new program, first Monday of each month, and an excellent attendance is expected.

ANNOUNCEMENT HAS BEEN MADE of the engagement of Patricia McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne S. McClellan of 919 High, to Staff Sergeant George Demetrakos, army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Demetrakos. Miss McClellan is a student at the Sacred Heart Academy, and is to graduate in June with the class of 1945. Staff Sergeant Demetrakos has recently returned from overseas duty. No date has been set for the wedding.

BETTY JEANNE BUCHANAN, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tim J. Buchanan of this city, became the bride of Lt. Richard Henry Merritt, army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Merritt Sr. of Pacific Grove, California, in a ceremony which took place on Saturday evening, March 17, at 8 o'clock. The informal wedding was held in the post chapel at the air base at Victoria, Kansas.

—Kennell-Ellis.