In a ceremony which took place here on Sunday afternoon, March 18, Marie Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Williams of this city, became the bride of Raymond W. Hampton, Pharmacist's Mate 2-C, US Navy. The young couple exchanged vows at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Barton Waits of Austin street.

Vows Exchanged At Home on Sunday

On Sunday afternoon, March 18, Marie Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Williams of 2105 Hope, became the bride of Raymond W. Hampton, pharmacist's mate 2/c, USN, at a ceremony which took place at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Barton Waits on Austin street.

The young couple exchanged vows before the fireplace which was banked with white calla lilies, pink carnations and stock. Preceding the ceremony Ruth and Lois Steinerson sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Barton Waits at the piano.

For her wedding, Mrs. Hampton chose a dressmaker suit of shrimp pink with navy accessories, and a corsage of white gardenias was pinned to her shoulder. Berthel Nelson was the maid of honor, and wore a blue dress with matching blue accessories, and a corsage of gardenias. Barton Waits, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding and the newlyweds cut their three-tiered cake which was topped with the figure of a sailor and his bride. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton left for a brief wedding trip to Medford before returning home.

The bride is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1942, and has lived in this city for 15 years.

The groom has lived in Klamath Falls since 1927, and graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1939, enlisting in the waialan islands, returning to re-navigate in June of 1942. He has spent several months in the Harport to Bremerton, Washington, April 4 for further orders.

Victory Garden

MERRILL — Lost River Garden clubbers will investigate the possibility of interesting boys and girls of Merrill in a victory garden campaign during the coming summer and will offer a prize, if the project is carried through to completion, for the best garden.

As a starter for the proposed food program, Mrs. J. A. Blatch, vice president, who presided at the meeting held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Scott McKendree, appointed Mrs. McKendree, Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Mrs. Dale West and Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick to investigate the proposed plan.

Mrs. Bowman started the ball rolling by offering half of a lot for use by a group of boys, this plot to be watered by ditch.

The club donated $50 to the Red Cross and heard a report from Mrs. Kilpatrick on the recent victory garden instruction meeting held in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. George Houck offered a comprehensive discussion on "Succession of bloom with the all-season and seasonal perennials," and Mrs. Blatch presented Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, winner in a victory garden contest, with an African violet plant.

Two new members, Mrs. Max Harterode and Mrs. Walter Robinson were greeted as new members.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hugh O'Connor when all members are asked to bring starts of plants for each member. The date is April 24.

Mrs. Blatch reported on the urgent need for help with Red Cross sewing and asked that anyone who can help call at Red Cross headquarters in Klamath Falls. Sewing has piled up and is badly needed for wounded men in hospitals.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Miles Moore.
