SOVIETS DRAW NEAR VIENNA IN BIG PUSH

Moravska-Ostrava with Zvolen and Losonc.

Transocean said the Russians in a bold thrust from the southeast had reached the Baden area which is about midway between Vienna and Weiner Neustadt but claimed the Germans had "succeeded in halting the onrushing" red army troops in the area immediately south of the Austrian capital.

New Drive Started

The German propaganda agency also reported Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky had started a new drive northward from his positions near Bratislava, capital of the puppet state of Slovakia, probably aimed at Bruenn, second city of Czechoslovakia and machinegun manufacturing center. At captured Modra the Russians were about 70 miles southeast of Bruenn.

The Germans said Malinovsky's second Ukrainian army troops were battering at the gates of Bratislava and indicated the Germans were prepared to sacrifice the foreign city on the scale of Budapest.

Inside Weiner Neustadt Transocean said "heavy street fighting continues to rage" as additional red army troops drove into the great industrial city.

German propaganda broadcasts said the Russians had stepped up their assault on embattled Breslau in Siwsia with heavy artillery fire and that "the whole west part of the town is now aflame with battle."

Berlin Threatened

The nazi radio also predicted an early assault on Berlin from the Russian's middle Oder springboards, reporting that "lively activity had been observed" behind the main red army lines before the reich capital.

"Vienna now is in the fighting zone," said the Transocean broadcast.

Another Russian force was reported attacking the Semmering pass in the Austrian Alps, 27 miles southwest of Weiner Neustadt, in a drive which outflanked the industrial city and Vienna, Berchtesgaden, Hitler's fortified retreat, is 125 miles west of the pass.

Penetration of the Semmering pass put the Russians across the main Vienna-Graz railroad and only 126 miles from the Italian border. The Russians also are in a position to cut the Vienna-Klagenfort railroad.

Baden is a popular resort visited annually by thousands of tourists as well as week-enders from Vienna. In 1683 it was laid waste by the Turks who reached the walls of Vienna but failed to take the city. In the last war it was headquarters for the Austrian high command.

Moscow dispatches described the two soviet armies as filtering into both Bratislava, 30 miles east of Vienna, and Weiner Neustadt, south of the Austrian capital.

The enemy gave every indication of organizing for a last-ditch defense of Vienna, gateway city to the mountainous hide-out the nazis have been reported repairing.

CHICAGO, April 3 (AP)—Rye was independently strong during most of today's trading in grain futures. Up fractionally at the opening, with the May contract in advance on short covering, the market continued to advance. A half hour before the close profit taking reduced the price fractionally.

At the close wheat was unchanged to 1 cent lower than yesterday's close, May $1.71¼-½. Corn was ½ to ⅞c lower, May $1.12⅝. Oats were unchanged to ⅜c lower, May 65¼c. Rye was ½c lower to 1¼c higher, May $1.23¼-¾. Barley was ⅜c lower to ½c higher, May $1.03¼.
