

BUCKAROO DAYS COMMITTEE MEETS

The Klamath Buckaroo Days committee held a recent meeting to discuss further plans for the coming 1945 rodeo celebration scheduled for July 4, 5 and 6.

President O. D. Matthews stated the committee is bending every effort to shape up all details of the rodeo well in advance. More time is naturally required, he said, during war time, with limited facilities and manpower shortage, to produce the best show possible.

The prize money scale has been considerably expanded this year, said E. P. Ivory, a committee director, and with 50 per cent greater prize money set aside for events, top cowhands and rodeo performers are expected to be attracted.

Further announcements will appear in The Herald and News, as well as such periodicals as the RAA bulletin and Hoof and Horn, as details are concluded.

Flashes of Life

MARKS THE SPOT
MILES CITY, Mont., April 6 (AP)—The male voting population of this eastern Montana city has maneuvered its way into the doghouse.

When housewives went to vote on a swimming pool bond issue, most of them found themselves disqualified. Only property owners could vote, and the family property in most cases had been listed under the husbands' names.

Said one disappointed but crestfallen woman: "This has been a bone of contention at our home election after election, and I intend to get it straightened out—tonight."

DOUBLE TROUBLE
SPOKANE, April 6 (AP)—Detective Harry Albright got his red sedan back after it had been stolen twice in four days, and if he ever catches the thief—

The car was stolen from in front of his home the second time and the detective glimpsed it going past the house next morning with the driver blowing the horn.

CITY-COUNTY JAIL COMMISSION NAMED proposed joint jail on the part of either city or county.

Recent action by the city council placed the $10,000 budgeted for 1944-45 in a special jail construction fund and thus far the city has collected nine months on this appropriation.

Added Funds

In addition, voters at the November election repealed the emergency police fund and the balance of that fund is to be used for jail construction. A check with the city clerk's office shows that at the present time there is $9325 on hand in this particular fund, and collections are still being made.

Members of the commission did not state just when they would meet to thresh out details of money, construction and location, but it is understood that
