

Cabaret Dance Is Huge Success

The cabaret show and dance which was held at the BOQ of the Marine Barracks on Saturday, March 21, was handled in true style by the entertainment committees of both clubs—Dr. Andrew Ginochio and Captain Ben L. Hoover of the Marine, and Mrs. Andrew Ginochio and her committee of the Marine Officers' Wives club.

The special numbers were a tremendous success. Those taking part were Mrs. Ben L. Hoover, who sang "Jenny Made Her Mind Up" and "Saint Louis Blues." Captain C. J. Hight presented a few specialty numbers on the piano. Dressed in true Hawaiian costume were La. A. J. Castagna and W. C. W. Keith, who imitated two hula dancers.

At a candlelight ceremony which took place in the auditorium of Mills school on Wednesday, April 4, a rank and proficiency program was held by the White Pelican Girl Scout troop.

First class rank was attained by Joyce Werner and Phyllis Kover, who are both completing six years of active scout work. Second class awards were presented to Nancy Lambro, Theodora Thompson, Helen Wignington and Donna Dexter.

Proficiency badges which were given at this time were in clothing, Ida Tennafoss; book-keeping and bibliography, Joyce Werner; hostess, Joyce Werner; Ida Tennafoss; Frankie Owen; Mary Beth Rice; Phyllis Kover; Beverly Delmer; Christine Neil; Anne Buchanan; Donna Dexter; Helen Wignington; Diane Seidel; Theodora Thompson; and Nancy Lambro.

The Scout service pin was awarded to Nancy Lambro at this time. The impressive ceremony was arranged by Scout Leader Mrs. Lowell Kaup, assisted by Mrs. Frank Bambo.

Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Wrigley gave a cocktail party preceding the cabaret dance in their home on Lakeside Drive, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Andrew Ginochio, who was surprised by the affair. Those helping to celebrate the occasion were Cmdr. and Mrs. L. T. Coggeshall, Cmdr. and Mrs. Stephen T. Kasper, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Ginochio, Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. J. M. Biscoe, Lt. and Mrs. John Gorman, Mrs. Irving R. Libony and Mrs. Bernard Dubel.

Pharmacist and Mrs. George Murrab Jr. are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, born March 29 at the dispensary of the Marine Barracks. The infant daughter, named Lynne Susan, weighed six pounds five ounces at birth.

Newcomers to the post are First Lt. and Mrs. Paul J. Vontersch and Mrs. Robert Felkner, wife of Major Felkner.

Mrs. John Kader Jr. and daughter, Donna, left Monday evening for Fresno, California, to visit with her parents for two weeks.

Cmdr. and Mrs. L. T. Coggeshall entertained with a cocktail party in their quarters on Wednesday between the hours of four and six for Dr. Robert Elderfield and Dr. Kenneth Blanchard, who were here from New York. Calling during the evening were Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Haviland, Col. and Mrs. George O. Van Orden, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Carlon, Major and Mrs. R. H. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Parsons and Captain and Mrs. Frederick G. Lewis.

WO and Mrs. N. B. Harrison entertained Captain and Mrs. Frederick G. Lewis with a dinner on Thursday evening, April 5, at their home at 2036 Leroy.

The bride is a resident of Ashland, Massachusetts, and the groom's former home was in Leeds, Massachusetts. They are now at home here.

An extra dance for members of the Winter Dancing club has been scheduled for Saturday, April 21. Members who did not purchase their tickets at the Daffodil dance, which was given recently, are asked to contact Mrs. Henri Conradt or any other member of the committee.

Music for the affair will be furnished by Shepherd's band, and the dance is to be given at Reames Golf and Country club and will begin at 8 o'clock, continuing until 11:30.

Pearl Jean Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, whose marriage to PFC Carl Raymond Hagel, United States marine corps reserve, will be an event of Saturday, April 14, has been feted at several lovely showers and parties during the past few weeks.

On Tuesday evening, April 3, members of the U chapter of the PEO sisterhood honored the bride-elect with a kitchen shower, which was given at the home of Mrs. W. P. MacMillan, with Mrs. J. V. Brewbaker as hostess. Many lovely gifts were presented to the guest of honor by the 25 guests who were there. The gifts were offered to Miss Wilson in a paper-covered hope chest by Mrs. Boyd.

At seven o'clock on the evening of Friday, April 6, Miss Wilson was again honored at a miscellaneous shower which was given at the Pellenn party room, with Mrs. Judith W. Bloom as hostess. The table was decorated with an arrangement of pink and white flowers for the dinner.

Guests at the affair included Pearl Jean Wilson, her mother, Mrs. A. R. Wilson, Mrs. Andrew M. Collier, Mrs. Warren Poole, Mrs. Stanley Soran, Mrs. David Barnett, Mrs. J. J. Trippett, Mrs. J. W. Elliott, Mrs. R. R. Elliott, Mrs. John Best, Mrs. Robert Pease, Betty Jones, Jean Rickerts, Ruth Henry, Lillian Redkey and the hostess, Mrs. Sloan.

With the ushering in of a new fiscal year for the league another group on foreign policy will be formed. This is one of the important undertakings of the league each year, and is open to all interested women whether members of the league or not. This most important national question deserves the attention of all thinking women. Women desiring to join should telephone Mrs. McKay.

material day by day, together with names and addresses of all the American delegates to the conference. Citizens who may wish to contact any of these delegates with a view of expressing their opinions may get these names and addresses from Mrs. McKay, telephone 8563, during the conference.

Another service to be offered by the local chapter during the conference is a fuller explanation of what is reported in the papers, if anyone desires fuller information. The material sent by the league representatives will enable the local chapter to put forth this information to persons desiring it.

On April 16 a round table discussion on the Dumbarton Oaks proposals will be held at the rooms of the Library club with Mrs. McKay, Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Loosley leading, and questions from the floor following the speakers. All women of the city, whether members of the league or not are urged to attend this meeting. Election of officers for the coming year will be held at this time.

With the ushering in of a new fiscal year for the league another group on foreign policy will be formed. This is one of the important undertakings of the league each year, and is open to all interested women whether members of the league or not. This most important national question deserves the attention of all thinking women. Women desiring to join should telephone Mrs. McKay.

AT A DINNER GIVEN EASTER SUNDAY at the Dalton ranch home at Malin, members of the family were told of the engagement of Elizabeth Louise Dalton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dalton, and Captain Robert A. Byrne, United States marine corps. Miss Dalton returned to Dominican college at San Rafael, California, on Monday evening after spending a vacation with her parents here. No date has been set for the wedding. —Kennell-Ellis.

Betrothal Told Easter Sunday

Elizabeth Louise Dalton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dalton of Malin, will become the bride of Captain Robert A. Byrne, United States marine corps, members of the family learned Sunday when Mr. Dalton toasted the young couple and announced their betrothal at a dinner at the Dalton ranch home.

No date has been set for the wedding. Betty Lou left Monday evening for San Francisco to resume her studies at Dominican college after spending Easter vacation here with her parents.

Captain Byrne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Byrne of Cleveland, Ohio. He was graduated from John Carroll university at Cleveland in 1942, a major in philosophy, and enlisted in the marine corps in April of that year.

Captain Byrne served overseas with the third marine division and saw service at Guadalcanal, and in the New Georgia group. In June he reported to the Marine Barracks here and is officer in charge of the bachelor officers quarters.

Guests at dinner Sunday afternoon included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson Dalton and daughter Shirley, who returned Wednesday to Dominican, Robert Dalton, Billy Dalton, Miss Nora Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dalton, and Betty Lou and her fiancé.

Continuing their program of presenting the conditions of the Dumbarton Oaks proposals to as many groups as are available, the League of Women Voters has contacted, up to the present, 14 groups aggregating 600 individuals. An interested audience of seventy-five heard Mrs. Twyla Ferguson talk on this subject at the Henley high school during the week, and Mrs. E. K. Loosley presented the subject to the Council of Churches, a group of the various Christian denominations of the city. The Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's church was addressed by Mrs. Donald McKay. A forum will be conducted by Mrs. McKay at the Hi-Y of the Klamath Union high school some time in the near future.

During the San Francisco conference, on which the eyes of the nation are now focused, the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

SOCIETY

AT A DINNER GIVEN EASTER SUNDAY at the Dalton ranch home at Malin, members of the family were told of the engagement of Elizabeth Louise Dalton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dalton, and Captain Robert A. Byrne, United States marine corps. Miss Dalton returned to Dominican college at San Rafael, California, on Monday evening after spending a vacation with her parents here. No date has been set for the wedding. —Kennell-Ellis.

Christened

Constance Anne Weaver, four-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Weaver of San Francisco, was christened at Grace cathedral in San Francisco on Saturday, March 31, at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Constance Anne, the only granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Weaver of this city, wore her father's christening dress for the occasion.

Guests at dinner Sunday afternoon included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson Dalton and daughter Shirley, who returned Wednesday to Dominican, Robert Dalton, Billy Dalton, Miss Nora Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dalton, and Betty Lou and her fiancé.

Continuing their program of presenting the conditions of the Dumbarton Oaks proposals to as many groups as are available, the League of Women Voters has contacted, up to the present, 14 groups aggregating 600 individuals. An interested audience of seventy-five heard Mrs. Twyla Ferguson talk on this subject at the Henley high school during the week, and Mrs. E. K. Loosley presented the subject to the Council of Churches, a group of the various Christian denominations of the city. The Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's church was addressed by Mrs. Donald McKay. A forum will be conducted by Mrs. McKay at the Hi-Y of the Klamath Union high school some time in the near future.

During the San Francisco conference, on which the eyes of the nation are now focused, the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

information, and the national office of the League of Women Voters will have representatives present. These representatives will keep local chapters furnished with

Easter Hat Party

With members and guests of the Wednesday club appearing in amazing and definitely original chaparral, the Easter hat party was a very successful affair of Wednesday evening, April 4. Everything from "freshly frozen" to "hard-to-get" numbers were modeled and later judged by the hostesses.

First prize was awarded to Mrs. Stewart Snell, who was very chic in a creation designed and executed by her husband, and featuring a bird's nest quaintly perched on a long wearing pillbox. Second prize was presented to Larry Fish for her original model consisting of gardenias and paper.

After refreshments were enjoyed, ten tables of bridge and two of pinochle were in play. High prize in bridge went to Mrs. Larry Fish and second to Mrs. M. A. Bakke. Mrs. Dale McIntee won high in pinochle.

Hostesses for the party included Mrs. E. B. Kiger, Mrs. E. P. Lee, Mrs. C. B. Larkin, Mrs. Eric Majors, Mrs. C. V. Colvin and Mrs. Marble Cook. The next meeting of the Wednesday club will be held on April 18. A cordial invitation is extended to members, guests and newcomers to Klamath Falls.

Nile Club

Members of the Daughters of the Nile had a most delightful luncheon at the Willard hotel on Wednesday, April 4, under the leadership of their president, Mrs. Walter H. Browne. The committee to assist the Shrine club in the sale of tickets for the dance at a benefit for crippled children, with Mrs. Lawrence Bertram as chairman, has had outstanding success and hopes to double its previous estimate.

Many members of the Nile club are planning to attend the installation ceremony of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, on Saturday, April 14, at Medford. Three members of the local club will be installed as officers at this time, including Mrs. Steven Moss, Mrs. Walter F. Brown, and Mrs. Walter H. Beane, as well as a former member, Mrs. Wilbur Arnold, now of Medford.

Two new members of the club to be welcomed at this time were Mrs. Fred H. Cofer and Mrs. F. E. Drake. Two members having birthdays in April were honored, Mrs. Harry Panning and Mrs. William Hagelstein.

The next meeting will be held on May 2 at the Willard hotel. Hostesses for the April 4 meeting were Mrs. Elmer C. Harnden, Mrs. D. A. Kenyon, Mrs. Harry Panning and Mrs. Otto Korschot.

Date Set

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Newman of 2718 Bisbee, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Betty Mae Ruge to marine corporal Emory Earl Padgett, son of Mrs. Myrtle Padgett of Pensacola, Florida.

The wedding date has been set for Friday, April 20, at the Immanuel Baptist church.

PTA To Elect

Final meeting for the school year of Fremont PTA has been announced for Wednesday afternoon, April 11, in the school auditorium when election of officers will be held.

The Camp Fire Girls' group and Girl Scouts' troop sponsored by the PTA will appear at this meeting, and there will be a short program, according to Mrs. Henry Gerber, president.

Responsibility of the community

In line with the policies of the National Federation of Soroptimist clubs, and under the able leadership of President Catherine Brumbaugh, the members of the Klamath Falls organization have made a worthwhile contribution to the war effort in their work of the past year. They will continue this service for the duration of the emergency, and share in the responsibility of the community in meeting the present housing problem.

The business meeting of the Soroptimist club at the Willard hotel on Wednesday, April 4, was given over to making plans for the Soroptimist House.

It was announced that several more boxes are ready for shipment to the sister club at Brighton and Hove, England. President Jean Thompson and Vera Ottoman were visitors from the Venture Club.

Returned Here

Mrs. Nina W. Currier has returned to her home at 1122 South 11th in Klamath Falls, after a month's vacation which took her to several points in the country.

Mrs. Currier visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Currier of Baraboo, Wisconsin, and was there at the time of the birth of their infant son, named David Knute, who was born March 23. She also visited her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Lust of Burbank, California, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Currier of Los Angeles.

During her vacation, Mrs. Currier also visited in Chicago, Dallas and in Mexico, during which time she was fortunate enough to see three of her young grandchildren.

Willard Hotel Is Scene of Lovely Tea

The Willard hotel was the scene of the lovely annual spring tea, given by the guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church on Saturday afternoon, April 7. Cards were begun at 1:15, and several prizes were awarded for the various games.

The tea table was attractively decorated with a low crystal bowl of daffodils and iris, and candelabrum were placed at either end of the lace-covered table. Pouring at the silver tea service during the afternoon were Mrs. Frederick C. Wissnack, Mrs. A. Bristoe Hood, Mrs. Edward Goeckner and Mrs. Ernest Howell.

A group of younger girls assisted about the rooms, including Patricia Benoit, Nancy Schubert, Betty Glidden, Norma Reeves, Ann Reeves, Katharine Newman, Joanne Benson and Edith Wissnack.

Among those who reserved tables for the afternoon were Mrs. James O. Patterson, Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. Ed Livingston, Mrs. Carl Michelson, Mrs. W. E. Hendrickson, Mrs. E. Wright, Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins, Mrs. Otto Korschot, Mrs. Myrtle C. Adams, Mrs. Walter West, Mrs. Ed Premo, Mrs. Ted Medford, Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. Paul Burk, Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson, Mrs. Frank Weaver, Mrs. J. P. Weig, Mrs. Henry Perkins, Mrs. E. Lawrence, Mrs. Peter A. Albertson, Mrs. Helen Shive Connolly, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. Le Huls, Mrs. Donald F. McKim, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, Mrs. Sam McKendree, Mrs. M. A. Baker, Mrs. C. M. Lalcoma, Mrs. H. Lambert, Mrs. Wyatt Padgett, Mrs. DeLox Mills, Mrs. Lynn Young, Mrs. William Deere, Mrs. James Rogers, Mrs. Raymond Reeves, Mrs. Irving R. Libony, Mrs. Ed Goeckner, Mrs. U. S. Balentine, Mrs. James Swanson, Mrs. Otto Ellis and Mrs. Charlie Read.

The committee in charge of the affair included Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Carl Michelson, Mrs. Horace Getz was in charge of reservations, Mrs. Tom Hampton, refreshments, Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins, tea table and Hazel Morrison, prizes.

Four Years Old

In honor of his fourth birthday on Thursday, March 29, Jimmy Sisemore, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Orth Sisemore of Lakeshore drive, was honored at a birthday party on the afternoon of that day. Games were played by the young guests after which refreshments were served to Mrs. Charles Mack and Becky, Mrs. Richard Maxwell and Stuart, Mrs. C. A. Kogan and Debby and Mrs. Phil Hitchcock and sons, Stephen and Phillip.

Couple Marry At Lutheran Church

The Zion Lutheran church in Klamath Falls was the scene of a lovely wedding on Sunday, March 25, when Virginia Kohlmeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kohlmeier of Brook, Oregon, became the bride of John Koglin, CM 3/c, U. S. navy, son of Arthur Koglin of Pittsburg, Penn. The ceremony was performed at 12:30 o'clock with the Reverend V. A. Schulte officiating.

For her wedding, the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a full length gown of white tulle with a sweeping train, and her veil, which fell to the tip of her train, was a gift of her aunt, Mrs. Albert Ronfeld. Her bouquet was a lovely arrangement of tallian rosebuds and gardenias, and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The maid of honor, Miss Hagelstein of Woodburn, Oregon, wore a full length dress of pale pink net, with a head dress of the same material. She carried a bouquet of red rosebuds and gardenias. Joe E. Waller of Portland, Oregon, who is also attached to the Klamath naval air station, stood as best man for the groom.

The church was decorated with sprays of pink and white flowers, and an arrangement of palms. Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Albert Ronfeld sang the wedding hymn, "Oh Perfect Love." The traditional wedding march was played by Mrs. Jewel Cantrell.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ronfeld, at Merrill.

For going away, the new Mrs. Koglin chose a black dress and hat with fuchsia accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Following a brief wedding trip, the newlyweds are now at home in the Rex Arms apartments.

Pan-American

April 14 has been set aside as Pan-American Day at the USO center. The evening will feature dancing, singing and games, followed by a buffet luncheon.

The evening of festivities will begin at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening, and gay costumes will be worn, including peasant skirts, jewelry and flowers.

Annual Musicale Slated Monday

The annual spring musicale, arranged for the pleasure of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club, will be presented at 8 o'clock next Monday afternoon in the main auditorium of the public library. Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music chairman, is in charge.

A string trio made up of Mr. and Mrs. John Best and Miss Lewis Hornby is being featured during the afternoon. The Bests are from the University of Idaho and have been thoroughly enjoyed by those who have heard them this past year. Mrs. Hornby is also well known here, where she has generously appeared on numerous programs.

Mrs. Edwin Schneebeck, who will sing during the afternoon, possesses a lovely soprano voice and has done considerable concert work. Lloyd Williamson, tenor, who will sing both solo and duet numbers, the latter with Mrs. Schneebeck, has been a favorite in radio singing.

The group will combine to present a delightful afternoon and following is the program: Trio in D minor, Mendelssohn; John Best, cello; Mrs. Lewis Hornby, violin; Mrs. John Best, piano.

"A Birthday" Woodman; "The Sweetest Flower That Grows" Rogers; Mrs. Edwin Schneebeck.

"Rose in the Bud" Foster; "Kashmiri Song" Fildes; Lloyd Williamson; Violoncello solo, Sonata in G "Sammaritana" John Best; Mrs. John Best at the piano; "The Blue Danube" Strauss; "My Alice Blue Gown" Tiers; From "Irene" Tiers; Mrs. Edwin Schneebeck; "Desert Song" Rombold; "After" Clara Edwards; Lloyd Williamson; Duet, "One Alone" Rombold; "Because You're You" from "The Red Mill" Victor Herbert; Mrs. Schneebeck and Mr. Williamson.

SHOWN SIGNING A TWO-YEAR LEASE to the Soroptimist House is Mrs. Calvin Peyton. Watching are three other members of the Soroptimist club, including (left to right) Mrs. W. Charles Whisenant, Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh and Mrs. Coral Sabo. The Soroptimist club is leasing the house from five owners who are members of the club, and will continue to maintain it as a hostess house for servicemen and their wives. —Kennell-Ellis.