Skits Presented At BPW Party

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the year for members of the Klamath County Business and Professional Women's club was the April party given Monday evening at the Willard hotel when the Past Presidents were in charge of the program, with Flo Ann Eaton presiding as chairman.

The program consisted of a number of short skits, with the membership divided into groups according to birthday months, the prize for the best awarded to the May group. This was an Edgar Bergen-Mortimer Snerd skit in which Catherine Brumbaugh took the part of Bergen, Rena Backes, Mortimer, Rose Poole, announcer, and Gwendolyn Miller, the voice behind the curtain. Several guests at the meeting were asked to act as judges, and the prize will be awarded at the next regular meeting, provided each member of the cast is present.

In January's vaudeville skit were Emma Carter, Betty Jones and Vivian Pernigotti; Febru- ary's which was a comic ver- sion of radio's Noah Webster's hour, Hattie Evans, Veneta Hunter, Martha Keller, Jewel Cantrall, Mable Humble and Joy Rolph; appearing for March were Martha McCollum and Lorene McCollum who present- ed a skit on the 7th War Loan.

A rummage sale skit was put on by the April group, com- posed of Edna Russell, Ellen Upp, Bertha Geiger and Evelyn Ickes; June's featured garden- ing with Neita West, Jean Por- ter, Mayme Johnson and Norma Miller participating, and flower seeds, donated by the Fire- stone store, were given as fav- ors.

July's was a vocal trio com- posed of Flo Ann Eaton, Hazel Morrison and Willie Uhlig; August and September appear- ed together for an Indian skit and guessing contest, under the di- rection of Isabelle Brixner, Grace Kintgen and Suzanne Hamilton. Appearing for Oc- tober were Beulah Elliott, Lydia Howard, Lucile Tweed, Kathryn Driscoll, Joanne Giv- an and Lois Hunt as ghostly shades, with musical accompani- ment by Jewel Cantrall. De- cember's skit was a Death Val- ley tragedy in which Olive Cor- nett, Agnes Geddes and Ina Patty provided a surprisingly humorous ending for the au- dience.

Rose Poole who heads the 7th War Loan drive for Klamath, in behalf of the Sceptomist and Business and Profession- al Women's clubs, spoke brief- ly on the goals set for this loan and announced that in behalf of women's activities, Mrs. Eleanor Wilson McAdoo will be a visitor in Klamath Falls on April 12, when a 9 o'clock breakfast will be given at the Pelican cafe. Inasmuch as space is limited, the affair will be in- vitational, it is announced.

Jean Porter read a list of the past presidents of the club, cov- ering the past 17 years, and told where each is now resid- ing. In behalf of the occasion, a birthday cake was cut and served by Norma Miller, this year's president.

An executive board meeting is scheduled for Monday eve- ning, April 9, at 7:30 o'clock when Jean Rawlins and Beulah Elliott will preside as host- esses.

"A World Where Life is Wholesome" will be the pro- gram topic for the meeting on April 16 at the Willard hotel. Beulah Elliott, chairman of the health and nutrition committee, will have charge.
