

Major League Baseball Clubs Wind Up Training

Teams Head For Home Parks For Final Exhibition Games Before Season Opens

NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—Major league baseball teams break up spring training camps today and head for their home parks for final exhibition games before the opening of the season next week.

Bobo Newsum, who is expected to better his 13-game won record of last year for the Philadelphia Athletics, reported at the A's Frederick, Md., camp and disclosure he had sustained another of his numerous bone fractures during the winter. He said he suffered a broken collarbone in an automobile mishap.

Bobo appeared all right against the Baltimore Orioles in his first start, however, working the opening three innings in satisfactory style.

Other training camp items: Boston Red Sox—Manager Joe Cronin will uncover new rookie pitcher, Jim Wilson, during five-game series with Braves that opens in Boston Wednesday.

Chicago Cubs—Ray Prim's almost perfect four-inning pitching against Cincinnati had Manager Charley Grimm wretched in smiles.

Chicago White Sox—Cass Michaels and Dan Reynolds, contenders for shortstop post, each made two errors against Tigers yesterday, much to Manager Jimmy Dykes' dismay.

Indians Lose Heath—Outfielder Jeff Heath has decided not to play with Indians and asked to be traded.

St. Louis Cardinals—Augie Bergame hit two doubles and two singles to lead attack against Browns in city series game. Johnny Hopp batted in five runs with triple and homer.

New York Giants—Mel Ott, Phil Weintraub and Danny Gardella hit homers as Giants swamped Newark, 20-1.

Brooklyn Dodgers—Club scored two runs against Montreal in third to break shutout streak of 25 innings.

Nicholson Homers—Philadelphia Phils—Bill Nicholson, club slugger who is working out with Phils until he reports to Cubs next week, homered in Phils intra-camp game.

New York Yankees—Outfielder Johnny Lindell had been ordered to report for a pre-induction draft examination at Atlantic City April 7, indicating he will miss first game at Yankee stadium.

Upsets Feature AAU Meet

By FRED HAYDEN
NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—Three major upsets featured the national AAU men's senior indoor swimming championships that ended Saturday.

The upsets saw three of the 10 champions win their first national individual titles, two of them at the expense of defending champions.

Most surprising was the downfall of world record holder Alan Ford, Columbia midshipman, in the 100-yard free style by the successful Bainbridge NTC squad's Walter Ris.

Ford, who won five national AAU titles while at Yale before entering Columbia Midshipmen's school, said he missed swimming practice for a week while settling into his new routine.

Another defending champion, Bainbridge's Joe Verdure, bowed by a touch in the 200-yard breast stroke, to Dave Seibold of Jackson, Mich., representing the Saginaw junior board of commerce. Seibold previously had won numerous high school titles in Michigan but this was his initial major conquest.

Third Surprise Registered—The third surprise came in the 3-meter dive. Navy Chief Specialist Frank McGuinan, (competing unattached) who thumbed his way by air for two days from his Treasure Island, San Francisco station, lopped Hobie Billingsley, Ohio State's NCAA champ. It was the first national senior triumph for McGuinan, who four months ago completed 20 months of overseas service.

Billingsley, who will report soon to the army air corps, also was upset in the 1-meter dive by Ohio State's graceful Greek, Ted Christakos, a paratrooper in the African, Sicilian and Salerno invasions.

LOS ANGELES—Babe Didrikzen Zaharias beat Betty Jameson, 4 up, in first 36 holes of 72-hole exhibition challenge golf match. Last 36 holes will be played at San Antonio, Tex., April 29.

WILDWOOD, N. J.—Johnny Moyer, Philadelphia, won eastern states inaugural golf championship with 6 and 5 triumph over Billy Daly, Philadelphia, in final.

Eagles Wallop Olympics, 12-13 In Hockey Clash

PORTLAND, Ore., April 9 (AP)—The Boston Olympics got a rough introduction to Pacific northwest hockey last night, going down to a 12-3 defeat in the opening game of their two-game exhibition series with the Portland Eagles.

The Rose City sextet ran the count to 9-0 before Boston showed any of the spark that made it the eastern United States' amateur titlist and counted three goals in four minutes.

The two clubs meet again Wednesday. Boston will open a series in Seattle Thursday against the Ironmen for the national amateur title.

Nelson Wins Open With 263

Record Score Cited Best Performance of All Time

By CHICK HOSCH
ATLANTA, April 9 (AP)—Byron Nelson's record of 263 for 72 holes was cited today as the greatest golf performance of all time but it won't go in the books that way.

The mark, made by the Toledo, O., precisionist in winning the $10,000 Iron Lung invitational here, will be listed only as a record for a 72-hole PGA tournament, says Tournament Manager Fred Corcoran.

Corcoran recalled the 264 Craig Wood, duration open list, shot in the 72-hole Metropolitan Open at Bloomfield, N. J., in 1940 and termed it "a sort of dual record."

He explained: "Wood's score was the lowest for 72-holes, until yesterday, and also the lowest for an officially registered championship. The 263 of Nelson will be entered as the lowest for a 72-hole tournament played as part of a tour, while Wood's will remain as the best for a definite medal championship—a fixed event."

While the other players and I agree that the play of Nelson in this tournament was the greatest performance of all time, it must be remembered that Wood's score was made over a longer course of a higher par.

The Bloomfield course (Forest Hills) is 6410 yards. Par, normally 71, was lowered to 70 for the 1940 tourney. The Capital City club here is 6155 yards. Par, normally 71, was lowered to 69 for the Iron Lung tournament.

Corcoran also recalled that Nelson shot a 264 at Corpus Christi but added that it was announced prior to the start of that tournament that no new records would be considered since winter rules were in effect. Here, full PGA regulations were observed.

Nelson was 13 strokes under par after yesterday's four rth round, nine strokes ahead of his nearest rival, Sammy Byrd.

In winning Nelson ran his winter tour triumph to eight, bettering the record of six set by Jimmy Demaret in 1940. The $2000 first prize sent his winnings to $21,050. The $47,000 he pulled down in 1944 was an all-time high.

His four-day score was 64-69-65-65, and included 22 birdies and nine bogies.

Byrd's 67 gave him 272, six ahead of Jimmie Hines of Amsterdam, N. Y.

Number 10 Lucky For High Scoring Basketball Players

PULLMAN, Wash., April 9 (AP)—Sports world numerologists may make something of this—Gale Bishop, the nation's No. 1 service scorer of Fort Lewis, Vince Hanson, Washington State college ace who topped the national collegiate scoring race, and Jack Ferrault, of Eastern Washington, top scorer of independent schools in the nation, all wore jersey No. 10 during the past basketball season.

By The Associated Press
Seattle and Portland locked again for the lead of the Pacific Coast Baseball league today after the Rainiers knocked over the ragged-playing Los Angeles Angels three straight over the weekend, and the Beavers dropped their Sunday doubleheader with Sacramento but still won the series, 4-2.

The Oakland Acons shouldered into second place by taking the series with Hollywood, 5-1. Los Angeles tied up for third place with San Diego, which ended up with a 4-2 series lead over San Francisco.

Today is travel day as the clubs switch about in four California cities for resumption of league play Tuesday.

Fan Attendance Strong
Fan attendance continued strong. The biggest Sunday crowd of the new season was the 17,284, turned out at Los Angeles to watch the Angels top a four game losing streak by fumbling a doubleheader away to Seattle, 6-3 and 8-3.

At San Diego, Hank Sweeney's sixth inning homer broke up a pitching duel between Elmer Orell and Carl Dumler to give the Padres a 2-1 win over the Seals who had taken the opener, 11-1.

Solons Down Beavers
Sacramento fans saw their Senators knock over the Beavers, 6-1 and 5-1. Big Earl Porter outthrew sinker-ball artist Ad Liska for the first game win, and Guy Fletcher won over Roy Helser in the short nightcap.

Oakland and Hollywood split their Sunday pair, the Stars winning the first, 8-1, and the Acons the nine-inning second game, 5-4. The winning run in the nightcap came as Alex Weldon issued a walk with the bags loaded.

Weekend results: Seattle 5-6, Los Angeles 4-3-3. San Francisco 13-11-1. San Diego 1-1-2 (last game 13-11-1). Sacramento 5-6-3. Oakland 9-10-1. Hollywood 3-4-4 (3rd game nine innings).

No games today (traveling).
Tuesday games: Portland at San Francisco. Oakland at San Diego. Seattle at Hollywood. Los Angeles at Sacramento.

"Sneeze" Achui May Clash With "Mask" Friday

Promoter Mack Lillard announced this morning that, although no definite rassing card has been booked for Friday night, Walter "Sneeze" Achui, former Dayton (Ohio) university football star, is being goaded to collide with the "Grey Mask."

Mr. Stoneface is a bit leery about meeting Achui, who specializes in the "Chinese sleeper." This particular hold has caused opponents of the Chinese grappler no end of trouble, but an interesting point is that he doesn't use the hold unless driven to it by the fouling of his rivals.

As the "Mask" would find it impossible to rattle without fouling, he will no doubt be the recipient of the "sleeper" if the two muscled meet.

Lillard stated that several new faces will be seen on this week's card and the bill will definitely be announced soon.

DAVISVILLE, R. I.—Haakan Lidman, Sweden, set new record of 14.4 for 110-meter high hurdles at Camp Endicott track meet. Jim Rafferty won three-quarter mile race in 3:02.2.

AUSTIN, Tex.—University of Texas won annual Texas track relays with unofficial point total of 28 to 27 for Corpus Christi naval air.

Fishermen Can Head For Streams Soon

Oregon's rabid trout fishermen can head for the streams April 14. The annual season opens then everywhere except in Lake county and certain restricted areas. Rogue river opens April 28 and Lake county May 20.

The bag limit is the same as last year, 15 fish in one day, with a maximum of 30 fish a week or in possession at any one time. The day's bag must not exceed 15 pounds plus the weight of one additional fish. The week's bag limit must not exceed 30 pounds, plus the weight of two additional fish.

"Bobby" Jones Bows Out of Golf

Robert Tyre Jones, who was one of the principals of the golden era of sports that featured among others, Babe Ruth, Jack Dempsey, Bill Tilden and Tommy Hitchcock, has decided to pass up the Iron Lung golf tournament at Atlanta, Ga.

This tourney was called the Masters before the war and is played on a course designed by Jones to the specifications he thought a tournament course should have. In bowing out, Bobby said that his game was just not good enough to warrant his playing, but good or bad, the crowd would have been following Emperor Jones.

Bobby was not as spectacular a golfer as is Samuel Jackson Sneed, the long-slaming pro from Virginia, but he was consistent and his shots pld off as witness his grand slam when he won the British Open, British Amateur, National Open, and National Amateur, all in one year, a feat never before accomplished and never equalled.

There will always be a bone of contention as to whether Bobby could have topped Lord Byron Nelson and Slammin' Sam in his hey-day, but his famous putter, Calamity Jane, has become a byword among followers of the game of golf and the name of Bobby Jones will be remembered after the others are perhaps forgotten.

So the old master has at last bowed completely out of tournament golf and with his passing goes that element that helped make it the great drawing card it is today.

Odds and Ends In the World of Sports

Klamath Union high school will have a tennis team this season coached by Miss Lillian Redkey and Miss Dorothy Gustafson. Both are girls' physical education instructors. . . . Orchids to those three fighting marines that won their bouts in Portland Friday night and scallions to the guys who said they couldn't do it.

Brownies Show Best Pre-Season Record

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—Despite the ODT's ruling which cut traveling to a minimum, most major league baseball clubs have managed to get in enough exhibition games to give the fans a fair idea of their comparative strength for the regular 1945 season that gets underway next week.

Except for Cleveland (3-0) and Pittsburgh (4-0), all against minor league and semi-pro opposition, the Browns showed the best record through games including Sunday, April 8, with eight victories and two defeats. In two games with their 1944 world series rivals, the St. Louis Cardinals, they won one and lost one.

Giants Break Even
The Giants and Boston Red Sox are next with 6-3 records, followed by the Senators with a 9-4 rating. The Red Sox played eight of their nine pre-season games against big league opposition, winning five out of eight from the New York Yankees.

The Nats split six games with the Boston Braves and the Giants broke even in two with the Yankees.

Only other games involving two major league clubs showed the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds halving four games; and the Chicago White Sox taking

Pro Grid Magnates Confused

NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—The fifty-third player chosen in the National Football league draft yesterday — and the fourth picked by the New York Giants — was Barney Poole, who is fully expected to do some first-class playing for West Point to the last.

That selection gives an idea of the confused state in which the pro football magnates find themselves even now some four months after they adjourned their mid-winter meeting because they couldn't solve the wartime problems they encountered.

Army Plebs Again
Poole is eligible for the pro draft because the class which he started at Mississippi graduates this year. However, he will be an army plebe again. He failed in one subject and had to drop back a year.

From the No. 1 choice of the Chicago Cardinals — Charley Trippi of Georgia and the army air forces—right down to the last name on the list of 330 draftees, the clubs expected to reap the benefit of only a few of the men selected. A few were known to be army discharges or physically unacceptable, but most of them likely will be in the armed forces next fall.

Heath Refuses To Play Ball With Indians

INDIANAPOLIS, April 9 (AP) Jeff Heath, former Seattle high school athlete whose potent bat has pounded out many a baseball for the Cleveland Indians, has asked to be traded.

Vice President Roger Peckinpaugh disclosed yesterday he had received a letter from Heath in which he stated "after long and deliberate consideration I have decided not to report." A telephone call, Peck said, verified the letter and brought forth information that the player wished to change uniforms.

"He can sit out in Seattle ever unless I can make a trade which will be of benefit to the team," the Tribe executive asserted.

KUHS Cindermen Down Medford By One Point

KUHS cindermen topped Medford Saturday in a track meet at Medford, not far from the Tornado by a margin of one point, 611 to 604. The meet was decided in the 890-yard relay which was won by Klamath Falls.

Dave Henthorne, top pole vaulter, set good marks in the 100-yard dash with 15.8 and the 440 with 51.8. Center of Medford was high point man with 18 points, winning the high-jump, broad-jump, and javelin throw.

Pope took the high hurdles event for Klamath and Jim Palmer took first place in the pole vault.
