

Lovely Ceremony Performed Saturday

A lovely double ring ceremony was performed at the Sacred Heart church on Saturday, April 7, at seven o'clock in the evening when Catherine Ackerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Ackerman of 139 Jefferson, became the bride of PFC Alois S. Ligman, United States marine corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ligman of Stevens Point, Wisconsin. The Reverend T. P. Casey officiated.

White carnations and Easter lilies were banked before the altar, and arrangements of pink carnations, calla lilies and Easter lilies were placed on the sides. Preceding the ceremony, "Ave Maria" was sung by a soloist of the choir.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a traditional wedding gown of white slipper satin, and a lovely veil of fingertip length. Her colonial bouquet was an arrangement of gardenias and carnations, set in a ruffle of tulle.

Bessie Pope was the maid of honor, and wore a full length dress of pink net, with a bouquet of pink rosebuds and blue forget-me-nots. PFC Carl Bihner stood as best man for the groom.

Following the impressive ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Gass at 429 North 3rd. The just-weds cut a lovely tiered wedding cake which was later served to the guests by Mrs. Holly Monroe. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. D. N. Clemens, Mrs. Rosa Loomis, Mrs. J. Fred Flock and Mrs. Gass.

Mrs. Flock presided at the silver coffee service. The table was centered with the white wedding cake surrounded by sweet peas in pastel shades, and tall tapers were placed at either end of the table, covered with a lace cloth.

Spring flowers were used in other parts of the rooms, including arrangements of Easter lilies, stock and white snapdragons. Pink and pale lavender sweet peas were used on the buffet, and other bouquets of daffodils and blue bearded iris graced the rooms.

Guests at the wedding reception which followed were Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Gass, Mr. and Mrs. Holly Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Flock, Margaret Flock, of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pope, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Priest, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Colahan, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Majors, WO and Mrs. Joseph DePilla, WO and Mrs. Richard Bandy, WO Edward Kron, T/Sgt. and Mrs. Karanmonta, S/Sgt. and Mrs. W. A. Roy, S/Sgt. and Mrs. Neard, S/Sgt. and Mrs. Roy Binders, S/Sgt. William D. Cunningham, Sgt. Carl Passaglia, Sgt. Calahan, PFC Charles Mealmian, Mrs. David Noble, Mrs. Rosa Loomis, Mrs. Harold Coon, Mrs. Pauline Clinton and Roy Zarosinski.

Following a brief wedding trip, the young couple returned to Klamath Falls to make their home with the parents of the bride.

For going away, the bride chose a gold colored suit with brown accessories, and a corsage of gardenias and talisman rosebuds was pinned to her shoulder.

Family Reunion

The family of W. O. Stone met at the home of F. O. Stone on Sunday, April 11, for a family reunion, and this was the first time the entire family had been together for fourteen years.

These on hand to celebrate the occasion were C. C. Fowler, of Ford, Kansas, Delmar Stone and Mrs. Frank Book of Berkeley, California, Clifford Stone, who is home on leave from the Southwest Pacific, Mrs. Vern McGuire of Riverside, California, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd O. Stone and family, Lois Stone and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Stone, all of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Hauger of Pacific Terrace received word that they are the grandparents of a baby girl, born on Thursday, March 29, at the Tacoma General Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Tennefer of Tacoma, Washington. The infant daughter, who weighs seven pounds eight ounces at birth, has been named Janice Lee. Mrs. Tennefer is the former Betty Hauger of this city.

Affairs Given for Mrs. Hazel Foster

Several affairs were planned for Mrs. Hazel Foster, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon during her official visit to Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Fred H. Cofer entertained with a luncheon on Tuesday, April 10, at her home at 1017 High. Spring flowers were used about the rooms, and on the table was an arrangement of carnations, for which her chapter at Prineville is named.

Guests at the luncheon included Virginia Brown, grand representative of Arkansas, Geneva Brattain, worthy matron of Cascade Crest chapter at Chiloquin, Oregon, Arle Mae Johnson, worthy matron of Prosperity chapter at Malin, Solly Woods, worthy matron of Aloha chapter of Klamath Falls, Marian Wilson, conductress of Prosperity chapter, Vera Hackett, Ruth Kenyon, Mary Phinney, Catherine Casper, Neita West and the hostess.

On Tuesday afternoon, the Eastern Star Social club entertained with a tea in honor of Mrs. Foster at the Masonic hall between the hours of two and four o'clock.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth, which was given to the chapter by the

SOCIETY

By Joan Campbell

AMID A SETTING OF ALL WHITE FLOWERS banked before the altar of Sacred Heart church, Catherine Ackerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Ackerman of Jefferson street in this city, became the bride of PFC Alois S. Ligman, United States marine corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ligman of Stevens Point, Wisconsin. The young couple, who exchanged vows on Saturday evening, are making their home with the bride's parents for the present time.

Parties Given Prior To Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson entertained with a wedding dinner for their daughter, Pearl Jean, and PFC Carl Raymond Hesel, United States marine corps, whose marriage was an event of this afternoon at four o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. The wedding dinner was given at the Pelican party room on Thursday evening, preceding the rehearsal.

Places were set for Mrs. James Sloat, Ruth Henry, Gene Ricketts, Gertrude Hanson, the Reverend and Mrs. David Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre, Sgt. and Mrs. Leslie Nepples, PFC Henry Ward, Sgt. Andrew Wilson, Sgt. Ira Burt, Sgt. Robert McAvey, the two guests of honor and the hosts.

Included among the many lovely affairs which have been given for the bride-elect prior to her marriage was a luncheon at the Willard hotel last week. The hostesses included four women from the office of Willson Tile and Abstract Co. who are associated with the father of the new Mrs. Hesel.

Places were laid for Mrs. Stanley Hajjick, Mrs. Thor Newman, Mrs. Lois Oliphant, Mrs. Betty Wood and the three guests of honor, Pearl Jean, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson.

Corsages were presented to Pearl Jean and her mother, and a boutonniere to Mr. Wilson. Following the luncheon, a lovely piece of the bride's china pattern was presented to her by the four hostesses.

Dad's Dinner

At an executive meeting of the Altamont PTA, plans were made for a dad's chili bean supper to be held in the gymnasium of the junior high school on Tuesday, April 17, at 6:30 p. m. The "feed" is to include chili beans, vegetable salad, pie, and coffee.

Entertainment, which is being provided by men of the organization, under the chairmanship of Wyatt Padgett, will include a weight-lifting exhibition by several men from Peebler's gymnasium, wrestling and boxing by junior high school students and a demonstration of circus stunts by the Altamont Boy Scouts.

Ceremony Read

A double ring ceremony, read by Dr. Day in the chapel of the First Methodist church of Pasadena, united Mary Jayne Fry and PFC James M. Condry, United States marine corps.

The bridegroom is a local man having graduated in 1941 from Klamath Union high school. He enlisted in the marine corps in December of 1941 and spent two-and-one-half years overseas before returning to this country on leave in May of last year. He is now stationed at Camp Pendleton in California.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Condry reside at 2234 Dar-

Spring Shower

TULELAKE — Mrs. Estil Allison, the former Laura Osborn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Osborn of Tulelake, and a bride of late February, was honored on Saturday afternoon, April 7, with a delightfully planned miscellaneous shower which was held in the annex of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church. Co-hostesses for the affair were Mrs. James Stoddard, Mrs. Otto Haynes, Mrs. Everett Herron, Mrs. J. I. Ott, Mrs. W. S. Edwards, Mrs. Vern Hensire, Mrs. Viola Nelson and Mrs. H. T. Street.

The lovely refreshment table, covered with center with a spring arrangement of daffodils and tall yellow tapers, and the yellow and white color scheme was carried out in other appointments.

The numerous beautiful gifts were placed upon a table to which the newlywed was escorted by Mrs. Street. During the afternoon, two piano numbers were played by Darlene MacRostie, and two vocal solos were sung by Mrs. Don Webster. Pouring for the seventy-five guests who were present were Mrs. Phil Park and Mrs. Alice Micka.

Mrs. Allison left Tulelake in February to meet her future husband, wounded in action overseas and who was in a hospital in New Orleans, La. Following the wedding and honeymoon, Mrs. Allison returned to Tulelake to complete her year as a member of the faculty of the Tulelake elementary school. She plans to return to New Orleans some time in May.

Wed Easter

A beautiful ceremony was that of Easter Sunday when Sue Gable, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Voyle Gable of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Pharmacist Mate 1/C James McGee of Shreveport, Louisiana. The informal wedding took place at the First Christian church, amid a setting of palms and Easter lilies at one o'clock in the afternoon, with the Reverend Howard F. Hutchins officiating.

The bride was lovely in a turquoise blue afternoon dress with white accessories, and a corsage of rosebuds in pastel shades was pinned to her shoulder.

Barbara Homer was the bride's only attendant, and Pharmacist George G. Murrath Jr. stood as best man for the groom.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, Phyllis Hutchins sang "I Love You Truly", accompanied by Mrs. Howard Hutchins at the piano.

Following the service, a small reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hand of Tulelake, at which time the bride and groom cut their tiered wedding cake. Thirty-five relatives and friends of the young couple were present for the ceremony and reception which followed. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Everett Puckett, 1150 East street, entertained at her home assisted by Mrs. Paul Sterling. Gifts were arranged on a kitchen table.

Mrs. Beiding will become the bride of Donald Black, son of Mrs. G. Logan Black and the late Mr. Black, in a ceremony to be read at the Black residence, 207 Grant, at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening.

Guests at the Friday evening affair included Mrs. Beiding, Mrs. G. Logan Black, Mrs. Don Sterling, Mrs. Bert Fenton, Mrs. Rose Beckman, Mrs. Charles Kenyon, Mrs. Pete Lawrence, Mrs. Pete Lawrence Jr., Mrs. Kitty Puckett, Mrs. Vernon Puckett, Ethel Puckett, Audrey Lawrence, Donna Lawrence, Juanita Lawrence, Pauline Puckett, Helen Puckett, Phyllis Puckett, Donna Sterling and Sonya Sterling and the hostesses.

Named Head

Mrs. Lewis Hornby will serve as president Riverside Parent-Teacher association for the coming year. Retiring president is Mrs. Lane Warren.

Vice president is Principal Garry Robertson; secretary, Mrs. Earl Allen; treasurer, Mrs. Dick Reeder. There will be no meeting of the PTA on April 17 due to the district conference to be held in Ashland. Teachers of Riverside will preside over the annual spring tea on April 24, at the school and at this time there will be the installation of officers. This is the last meeting of the school year.

Jaycettes

Election of officers was the feature of the evening when members of the Jaycettes met in the club room of the city library on Thursday, April 12. Mrs. Eldred Putnam was elected president for the ensuing term, and with her will serve Mrs. Max Hicks as vice president and Mrs. Ray Ward as secretary-treasurer.

A panel of the board of directors was also elected at this time, including Mrs. Charles Finch, Mrs. Dan Farris, Mrs. John Sandmeyer and Mrs. Donald Sloan, retiring president.

Seven

Jim White celebrated his seventh birthday on Saturday, April 7, at the home of his parents on Madison street. Those present for the occasion were Dickie Houser, Dennis and Freddie Tuft, Delores and Shirley Tracy, Shirley and Sonny Howell, Don, Patsy and Sandra Barron, Carmel Kaye and Bob White, and the honor guest.

The afternoon was spent playing games, after which cake and ice cream were served by Jim's mother, assisted by Mrs. Ellen Barron.

Accepted

At the meeting of the Junior Hostesses which was held at the ladies lounge of the Elk's temple on Wednesday, April 4, four new girls were accepted. They were Genevieve Lund, Dorothy Daily, Mary Stiles and Pat Avery.

Episcopal Church Scene of Ceremony

White Easter and calla lilies were banked before the altar of St. Paul's Episcopal church when Dorraine Rose Van Lue, attractive daughter of Mrs. Alfred A. Van Lue of this city and Mr. Dorin C. Van Lue of Salinas, California, became the bride of Corporal William Howard Meadows, United States marine corps, son of Mrs. Ruth L. Meadows of Watertown, South Dakota. The young couple exchanged vows at five o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, April 7, with the Reverend Frederick C. Wisenbach officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by Corporal Louis Oss, chose a tailored suit of moss green with pink accessories, and wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and sweet peas.

Constance Clarke of Morehead, Minnesota, was the maid of honor, and wore a green suit with black accessories. A corsage of gardenias was pinned to her shoulder. PFC James I. Meadows, brother of the groom, stood as best man.

Immediately preceding the wedding ceremony, a number of selections were played on the organ by Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was given at the Willard hotel at six o'clock for fifteen guests. A joint reception took place later at Reames Golf and Country club with Corporal and Mrs. Louis E. Kemper and Corporal and Mrs. Romeo J. Wells, who were also married on that day. All three grooms were in the 2nd marine division, and saw action in four major engagements, including Guadalcanal, Tarawa, Saipan and Tinian.

Relatives of the groom who arrived for the wedding were Mrs. Ruth L. Meadows of South Pasadena, California, Mrs. Arnold E. Tillman, sister of the groom, and her daughter, Maureen of San Francisco, California and Mrs. Robert Crawford, the groom's cousin, who arrived here from North Freedom, Wisconsin.

Surprise Party

Mervyn Wilde was pleasantly surprised on Sunday evening, April 8, when his wife invited a group of friends to their home in Malin to help him celebrate his birthday.

The evening was spent playing cards, after which a crab feed was enjoyed by the guests. Prizes for pinocle were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Toffel and Mrs. Stanley Johnson.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kalina, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stastny, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Halousek, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rajnau, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Steyskal, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Toffel and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Johnson.

Stork Shower

The home of Mrs. Noel Patzer was the scene of a clever stork shower which was given on Wednesday evening, April 11, by Mrs. Orval Lyon. The table, which the refreshments were served with, was centered with rosebuds and a dainty figure of a stork and baby. Tall white tapers were placed at either end of the table, which was gay with attractive arrangements of pastel sweet peas.

Games, appropriate to the shower, were played by twenty guests present for the affair. High score went to Maurice Houser, and first prize in another game was given to Mrs. William Hurn.

Many lovely gifts were presented to the guest of honor in a pink and white bazaar, which was located in another room, and was found by Patricia by following a string of yarn until it was found.

Mrs. Eileen Hicks Speaks to Club

Eileen Hicks was the speaker at the Soroptimist luncheon on Wednesday, April 11, when she related the experiences of a 7000-mile trip through Canada and the eastern United States. Mrs. Hicks told of stop-overs in Chicago and Toronto and in Montreal where the thermometer registered 30 degrees below zero. The highlight of the trip, however, was the visit to the ski lodge at Mount Tremblant, where fashionable enthusiasts of this winter sport gather from cities of the eastern and Professional Women's club was a guest at the luncheon. Mrs. Gillen will be in charge of the agricultural division of the 7th War Loan drive.

Venture club members were present at this time. Phyllis Smith and President Jean Thompson, of Adams will entertain members of the Soroptimist and Venture clubs at dinner in her home near Merrill on Tuesday evening, April 17, at 7 o'clock. Reservations should be made to Lena Robbins by telephone 4138.

Winnifred K. Gillen, home demonstration agent, and past president of the Business and Professional Women's club was a guest at the luncheon. Mrs. Gillen will be in charge of the agricultural division of the 7th War Loan drive.

Venture club members were present at this time. Phyllis Smith and President Jean Thompson, of Adams will entertain members of the Soroptimist and Venture clubs at dinner in her home near Merrill on Tuesday evening, April 17, at 7 o'clock. Reservations should be made to Lena Robbins by telephone 4138.

Winnifred K. Gillen, home demonstration agent, and past president of the Business and Professional Women's club was a guest at the luncheon. Mrs. Gillen will be in charge of the agricultural division of the 7th War Loan drive.

Venture club members were present at this time. Phyllis Smith and President Jean Thompson, of Adams will entertain members of the Soroptimist and Venture clubs at dinner in her home near Merrill on Tuesday evening, April 17, at 7 o'clock. Reservations should be made to Lena Robbins by telephone 4138.

Winnifred K. Gillen, home demonstration agent, and past president of the Business and Professional Women's club was a guest at the luncheon. Mrs. Gillen will be in charge of the agricultural division of the 7th War Loan drive.

Venture club members were present at this time. Phyllis Smith and President Jean Thompson, of Adams will entertain members of the Soroptimist and Venture clubs at dinner in her home near Merrill on Tuesday evening, April 17, at 7 o'clock. Reservations should be made to Lena Robbins by telephone 4138.

Winnifred K. Gillen, home demonstration agent, and past president of the Business and Professional Women's club was a guest at the luncheon. Mrs. Gillen will be in charge of the agricultural division of the 7th War Loan drive.

Venture club members were present at this time. Phyllis Smith and President Jean Thompson, of Adams will entertain members of the Soroptimist and Venture clubs at dinner in her home near Merrill on Tuesday evening, April 17, at 7 o'clock. Reservations should be made to Lena Robbins by telephone 4138.