CITY SCHOOLS TO CLOSE ON MAY 25

Elementary and Klamath Union high school students Monday embarked on the last six weeks of the school year. The seven city schools will close May 25, as will the high school, it was announced today.

Majority of the county schools will close May 18, with the exception of Bonanza, Henley, Merrill and Malin institutions which will close June 1. This includes both grade and high schools, the superintendent's office stated.

Baccalaureate services for KUHS students will be held May 20, and commencement May 23, the KUHS principal's office stated.

Work on Roads Aided By Warmer Weather

Warm weather and clear skies speeded work on Klamath county roads and Saturday night a crew completed a 10-day job on the Sprague River road, it was announced Monday by County Engineer Wally Hector.

Surfacing material was put on bad spots on the 25-mile stretch between Sprague River and Chiloquin, Hector said. The crew is now preparing to work on the Washburn way job where the road bed will be built up and a heavy rock base laid in preparation for oiling. Rock for this job is coming from Peterson hill at the infirmary, the engineer reported.

Sixteen concrete posts and footings have been poured on the Dehlinger bridge across Link river and County Engineer Wally Hector said Monday that he was now waiting for fir bridge timbers which will come from Washington.

With the arrival of the timbers, construction on the bridge proper will be under way. Five men are now employed on the bridge crew, but this group will be enlarged when work on the span starts.
