Mrs. Roosevelt Resumes Column

NEW YORK, April 17 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt today resumed her column "My Day," in which she said "When you have lived for a long time in close contact with the loss and grief which today pervades the world, any personal sorrow seems to be lost in the general sadness of humanity."

The column, copyrighted by United Feature Syndicate, was interrupted by the death of President Roosevelt last Thursday.

"There is only one way in which those of us who live can repay the debt who have given their utmost for the cause of liberty and justice," Mrs. Roosevelt wrote. "They died in the hope that, through their sacrifice, an enduring peace would be built and a more just world would emerge for humanity."

COUNTY BRANCH OF TEACHERS' GROUP MEETS

Klamath county branch of the Oregon State Teachers association held the annual spring session Saturday at Klamath Union high school. More than 100 teachers and administrators took part.

Under direction of Lillie Darby, president, the afternoon session opened with a prayer by Rev. Clyde Beard of Linfield college. Alyce Wells and Charles Selby, KUIS students, sang two numbers.

Dr. Ray Hawk, director of research and field service from the home office in Portland, was introduced by Elton Fishback. Hawk discussed the progress made in school legislation, the value of association to teachers and the need for continued financial support on the part of teachers. He placed particular emphasis on building of strong county unit organizations over the state.

Mrs. Rose Poole and Henry Semon, state legislators, were introduced by Wyatt Padgett, legislative chairman. Mrs. Poole explained the more important school bills passed at the last session and Semon said legislators welcomed information on education from school people.

Mabel Humble, Altamont junior high, was named chairman of the new economic welfare committee. G. E. Robertson, Riverside, was named publicity chairman.

Chairman Wilbur Robinette of the membership committee, reported the percentage of membership was 93 per cent.

Visitors who attended the session included C. R. Bowman and Mr. Stanton, county superintendents of Jackson and Josephine; Mr. Norby, Mr. Winslow and Mr. Caldwell, superintendents of Ashland, Grants Pass and Lakeview, and Mr. Roberts, principal of Grants Pass high school. Dr. Ray Hawk met with the executive committee Saturday for a preliminary discussion of the association's program.

FARM LABOR NOW AVAILABLE HERE

Clyde James, farm labor office assistant, announced that good weather has started farm work in earnest this week. Farm labor is available now at the employment office, 116 S. 6th.

Monday, 60 workers registered for employment. They included caterpillar and tractor operators, general farm labor hands and teamsters.

Eighteen men were reported placed yesterday in farm work and half a dozen more were sent out, on whom no report has been heard yet, James stated.

Eight calls from farmers for specialized work are still open. The demand for help in agricultural work will be fairly steady from now on, said James. There is an indication that point to seed cutting and planting will begin before the end of the month, he said.

Women supply most of the help in cutting, and those wishing to help this season are reminded to register at 116 S. 6th.
