

TRUMAN TELLS BIG 4 DEMOS OUT PROGRAM

By FRANCIS J. KELLY
WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—President Truman today told a group of democratic lawmakers unofficially called "the big 4"—that he remains committed to the general legislative program of his predecessor, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The White House visitors included Senate Majority Leader Clement (Ky.), House Speaker Weyburn (Iowa), Senator McClellan (Del.), president pro tempore of the Senate, and House Majority Leader McCrackin (Mo.).

The new president affirmed his support of a Roosevelt agenda which included approval of the Bretton Woods monetary agreements, broadening of the reciprocal trade agreement act, extension of the extension of the law and active service law and a program for international peace.

Details of legislation were discussed, but one of the items said he concluded Mr. Truman hoped for extension of the draft law with amendment. The Senate is up that bill today, and it is a powerful bipartisan effort under way to modify it by barring use of 18-year-olds in combat duty unless they had at least six months of training.

STRIKERS RETURN TO WHEEL COMPANY

DETROIT, April 19 (AP)—Five thousand striking employees returned to work at the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel company today by agreement's refusal to comply with a regional war labor board's order ordering the reinstatement of five discharged union members caused unrest in the three plants.

Among those returning were five discharged men, who company spokesmen said forced way past plant guards. The men said the guards were to eject the men from the plant, but insisted they did not be paid for their time.

The directive was unprecedented in that it ordered the company to rehire, before a strike was ended, employees discharged for disciplinary reasons during the strike began. The men were minor officials of the United Automobile Workers (UAW), whom the company accused of effecting a foreman from one of the plants.

Walter Downie, Kelsey-Hayes president, said the board directive would be disregarded pending an appeal to the national labor board.

MRS. ROOSEVELT TO CONTINUE 'DAY'

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said today in her newspaper column she would not accept or run for public office or any office at the present time.

She added, however, that she planned to continue her column, "My Day," and her magazine page in the Ladies Home Journal as well as writing "an occasional article."

George A. Carlin, general manager of United Features Syndicate, said Mrs. Roosevelt's contract to write "My Day" had been renewed last March 10 for five years.

"Mrs. Roosevelt is a great lady and a great person in her own right," he declared. "Her column will be accepted on its own merits. From now on she can speak more freely on all matters."

In her column today, Mrs. Roosevelt said:

"I have two jobs that I consider myself obligated to do and that I want to do. My daily column I have always looked upon as a job which I wanted to have considered on its merits. Because I was the wife of the president, certain restrictions were imposed upon me. Now I am on my own, and I hope to write as a newspaper woman..."

"My magazine page is also a contract that I wish to fulfill as well as I possibly can."

GRIFFIN SEES STEP-UP IN COAST'S JOB

"Collapse of Germany can only increase our difficult job in the Pacific northwest," states Rear Admiral R. M. Griffin, commandant of the 13th naval district. "We anticipate and are preparing for a sharp step-up in the repair work that will come to our shipyards."

"As the entire war swings to the Pacific, it is natural that the west coast will have to bear the brunt to keep the ships repaired and in action. Because this area is the closest continental naval district to the scene of intense action, battle-damaged ships and ships requiring routine overhauls will be sent here first to save time in getting them back in shape to our forces now in the Pacific theater move into the Pacific, more ships must be sailed from our ports to carry the great bulk of supplies and equipment required for their support. We may confidently anticipate capacity loadings on the west coast to take advantage of the shortest route to the scene of action."

"Our island victories to date are well ahead of schedule, but the Jap still thinks he can win the war or prolong it for years. We must help prevent that here at home by staying on the job every day and keeping enough ships and men out there to send him down for the full count."

LOGGER QUESTIONED IN HEAD, HANDS CASE

PORTLAND, April 19 (AP)—A California official said today that William A. Wellesley, itinerant logger, admitted knowing the man whose mummified head and hands were found in a suitcase near Fort Bragg, Calif.

Wellesley, arrested at Molalla, Ore., Monday for questioning, denied, however, any knowledge of the two-year-old slaying of Austin C. Barber, said Folger Emerson, assistant district attorney of Alameda county.

"Wellesley told us he and Barber had worked together at an oil refinery in Oileum, Calif.," said Emerson, who came here to question the logger. "He said they also roomed together for a while."

Emerson quoted Wellesley as saying that Barber quit his job about two years ago and left town. "And I haven't seen him since," the logger was quoted as saying.

The California official said he planned to continue questioning Wellesley today. No charge has been filed against him.

TRICK RIDERS TO APPEAR OVER 4TH

The Buckaroo Days committee held a meeting Wednesday night to further plans for the 1945 rodeo celebration to be held here, July 1, 2, 3 and 4.

The committee announced that the Gusky troop of trick riders has been engaged and will entertain each of the four days of the show. Gusky has performed his roping and riding tricks with Ringling Brothers and the Tom Mix Wild West show.

The Gusky troop is composed of himself, his wife, and two children, a boy 14 and a girl 13. The family is from Carthage, Calif.

A unique double routine of rope spinning will be an interesting feature of the rodeo, and Gusky's amazing performance of roping two horses at the same time while standing on his head, will be one of the highlights.
