Elks Collect 4000 Books for Services

More than 4000 books were collected by the Klamath Falls Elks lodge for the merchant marine and coast guard, it was reported today by Herb Williams, chairman of the drive.

"Our quota was 1000 books, and naturally, we are tremendously pleased at the result," said Williams. "The campaign started slowly, but at the end the books poured in. They are about ready for shipment. We want to thank everybody who helped."

'Dozer at Work On Lake Road

A bulldozer was taken into the Lake o' the Woods today by the Klamath county road crew to remove snow from the roads. Work will start Thursday if no drastic weather conditions occur in the meantime.

Ansl Pearce of the forest service made a trip up Tuesday to check road conditions to the Lake o' the Woods and reported the snow melting fast. He found the road passable for four and one-half miles from the junction.

LT. KERSHAW TO GO ON SEA DUTY

Lt. (jg) W. R. Kershaw, U. S. navy, who has been stationed at the Klamath naval air station since January 12, 1944, one month before the commissioning of the base, will report for sea duty.

Lt. Kershaw is being detached Wednesday, April 25, and ordered to commander fleet air, west coast, San Diego. He has served
