

KUHS Cindermen Set For Hayward Relays

Flashing spikes will bite the cinder path at Eugene tomorrow when 15 Pelican trackmen make their bid for top honors in the Hayward relays.

Dave Henthorne, the Klamath coach, will run the anchor position in any sprint relays in which the Pelican trackmen are entered and Leonard Qualm and Herbert Barker will handle the distance events.

The excellent weather has enabled the KUHS sprinters to get in some long workouts of late and Coach Paul Deller is confident that his boys will give a good account of themselves when they collide with at least 40 other Oregon prep schools in one of the feature track and field attractions of the season.

Respected Jim Palmer has been soaring over 10 feet in the pole vault event in practice jumps and walked off with the title in this event in the dual meet between Medford and Klamath Falls. He will definitely be a contender for a high place in the standings at Eugene.

Jim Pope is now hitting his stride in the hurdles and will strive to break the tape for the Red-and-White in the hurdle relays.

Outside of the pole vault, KUHS is entered in only one other single event and that will be the discus with Ben De Vore the chief hope of Deller.

This meet is the first big track event of the season and the Pelicans may show their heels to other competitors on Saturday afternoon.

Detroit Red Wings Down Toronto, 2-0, In Stanley Cup Play

DETROIT, April 20 (AP)—Hockey's Stanley Cup playoffs went deeper into conflict with the baseball season today after the Detroit Red Wings slayed off elimination with a 2-0 shutout victory over Toronto here last night, sending the series into a sixth game Saturday at Toronto.

Writing is compulsory in my opinion.

Twitzy Ted Sets Torrid Hitting Pace

By BILL BECKER LOS ANGELES, April 20 (AP)—The Coast league's most hitger hitting is giving the pitchers fits gets these days.

That, of course, would be Ted Norbert, Seattle outfielder, who virtually does a rumba every time he steps on the plate. Norbert's bat is currently clicking off seven better than thumps.

He pounded seven homers in Seattle's first 18 games. No other batter in the league hit more than two. He also drove in 19 runs and batted .338.

Should he maintain that home run pace, Norbert's batting average is a shoo-in to win the league honor of $1,000 in 1945. He is scheduled for 38 games.

His unorthodox batting style is well known and he is expected to hit the knockout, Twitzy Ted, has long been eminently successful in the Pacific coast. With Portland in 1944 and 1945, he set the league in flames with 26 and 28.

Knockouts Feature Marine Smoker Bouts

A couple of new sluggers who ought to readily find places on the post boxing team were unopposed during the three-round smoker bouts at the Marine Baracks gym last night.

One, a tall named Wit Curran, from Detroit, needed only one minute and 20 seconds to knock his light-heavy opponent, Don Cook, first through the ropes and then completely out. Cook hit the canvas like a felled ox and had to be carried from the ring.

The other, a slender Indian kid from Arizona named Lowell Damon, floored 150-pound Lewis Fernandez twice in the second round of their proposed three-rounder for a TKO. Rushing all the time, Damon bloodied Fernandez's nose and shoved him through the ropes in the initial round and then tagged him with a couple of haymaker rights for the finish.

In the semi-windup, Gene Conner needed only one minute and 25 seconds to floor 142-pound Wade Curtis with a terrific solar plexus punch. Curtis went down flat and his handler, Johannes Stefan, threw in the towel.

Rasslers Tangle In "Battle Royal"

Tonight at the Klamath bicep bin rassling fans will flock in early to witness the gory "battle royal" booked by Promoter Mack Lillard, the kingfish of Punch Plaza.

Six of the most accomplished groin artists on the circuit will vie for top honors and a possible headline billing with the "Grey Mask" next week. These half-a-dozen lads include Tony Morelli, Tony Ross, Billy McEuin, Gust Johnson, "Sneeze" Achiu, and last but not least, the "Grey Mask" himself.

It is anybody's guess as to who will emerge victorious in this crunch classic, but it seems safe to say that it will definitely not be Mr. Stoneface.

The hooded hoodlum is about as well liked by the other maters as a Black Widow spider in your slipper and they will most assuredly see to it that the masked menace isn't around long.

Morelli is making a return to the ring here after a long absence and is a distinct threat to mangle the other maters and his subsequent opponent into submission.

"Sneeze" Achiu, the "Chinese sleeper" artist, may cut the mustard and guzzle his cohorts in crime while Tough Tony Ross is another man not to be taken lightly.

All in all, it adds up to a lively evening for Klamath mat fans and may the best man win!

"Sneeze" Puts On Pressure

"Sneeze" Achiu, fast, clever Chinese grappler, slaps a powerful arm bar on Tough Tony Ross in their semi-windup tiff on the crunch card last week. Tonight a "battle royal" will headline the card and Promoter Mack Lillard announced that six top maters will participate including Mr. Stoneface, Tony Ross, Tony Morelli, "Sneeze" Achiu, Gust Johnson and Billy McEuin.

Beavers Rack Up 21 Runs

Portland Nine Pulverizes Hollywood Stars, 21-2

By The Associated Press Pacific Coast league competition moved into a five-way race today with only two and a half games separating the first and fifth place teams.

Seattle again dropped into a tie with Portland for the loop last night, 6-4, to Oakland for the second straight time.

The Oaks, battling to hold their third place spot, broke a 4-4 tie in the first of the tenth and shoved over two runs on an error and two hits. Alex Palica, rookie Rainier hurler, was saved from his first defeat in four starts when he was benched in the seventh for a pinch hitter.

The Beavers ran wild against Hollywood to crush the Stars 21-2 after the score was knotted at 2-2 until the fifth inning.

Three Hollywood moundsmen gave up 22 hits while Don Pulford was limiting the cellar-dwelling Stars to seven bingles for his fourth straight win. The two teams meet in a double-header tonight.

Solons Down Seals

The second extra-inning Thursday night game saw the San Francisco Seals bowing to Sacramento 9-4. The Solons got to Pitcher Ken Brondell for five runs in the first of the tenth to cop their first game in three starts against the Seals.

Earl Porter, Sacramento hurler, came through with a three-run double to rack up his own victory.

At Los Angeles the San Diego Padres took a 2-1 series lead over the Angels with an 11-4 win, scoring seven of their runs in the first three innings.
