

Glants Down Brooklyn; Old National Loop Lead

New York Club Wins Four of First Five Games With Display of Power

By JACK HAND
The base power by the New York Glants kept the Brooklyn Dodgers from leading today although Maury Wills still hasn't seen the pitcher go the route.

Giants surprised their admirers in winning their first five games with a display of power more than any other team in the league.

Frankie Hayes' two-run homer in the first started the Philadelphia A's off to a 5-3 margin over the pitching credit over Joe Bowman.

with St. Louis trying off the lid against Cincinnati today to complete the picture.

Butch Nieman's dramatic round-tripper with two on and two out in the ninth saved the Braves a 6-5 nod over the Phillies' Charley Schanz, Rookie Charles Cozart, up from Atlanta, received credit for his first big league decision.
