AT ONE OF EARLY SPRING'S most attractive weddings, Pearl Jean Wilson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rockwell Wilson, became the bride of PFC Carl R. Hagel, United States marine corps, in a ceremony read Saturday at 4 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church.

Pearl Jean Wilson Bride of Saturday

A lovely bride of last Saturday afternoon, April 14, was Pearl Jean Wilson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rockwell Wilson of this city, whose marriage to PFC Carl R. Hagel, USMC, of St. Paul, Minn., was solemnized at four o'clock in the First Presbyterian church.

The church was beautifully decorated for the wedding with palms, arrangements of pink snapdragons and carnations and white Easter lilies and stock. Many white tapers in high candelabra, wreath in fern, were lighted before the service.

Soft organ music was played by Mrs. George McIntyre as the guests entered the church and she also played the traditional wedding processionals and recessional. Gene Ricketts sang "Beloved, It Is Morn" just before the ceremony and also as the young couple knelt for the blessing, pronounced by Dr. Odell, Miss Ricketts sang the hymn, "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white slipper satin fashioned with a long full skirt and sweeping train, a close fitted bodice with a round yoke of white marquisette with marquisette ruching. The sleeves of the gown were snug fitting to the wrist. The bride's veil of fingertip length fell from a white satin Juliette cap which was wreathed with a halo of white sweetpeas. Her only jewelry was a simple gold cross, gift of the groom.

The matron of honor, Mrs. James Sloat, (June Cunningham), was the bride's only attendant. She wore a pale pink net gown over deeper pink tulle and carried pink sweet peas in her hair.

PFC Henry Ward was best man and ushers were Sgt. Leslie Nepple, Sgt. Andrew Winn, Sgt. Ira Burt and Sgt. Robert McAvay, all members of the United States marine corps.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilson wore a cadet blue dress suit with shell pink hat and accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds, white alyssium and blue forget-me-nots.

The wedding party and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson received the guests in the church following the ceremony and later Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Landry were hosts at their home on Pacific Terrace with a wedding dinner.

Guests included the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson, the Reverend and Mrs. David S. Barnett, Mrs. James Sloat, PFC Henry Ward, and out-of-town guests, Dr. and Mrs. Morgan Odell, Mrs. Ernest Moser of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moser and Marilyn of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Harris and son Robin of Redding, California, and Gladys Smith, Mary and Ruth Landry. Mrs. Harris is the niece of Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagel left late Saturday on a brief wedding trip to the Oregon coast and are expected home this weekend. For traveling, the bride wore a fuchsia wool suit with black top coat and black hat and accessories. The orchid from her bridal bouquet was pinned to the lapel of her coat.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Hagel will be at home here. The groom is stationed at the Marine Barracks. Mrs. Hagel will continue on as secretary to Rev. Barnett of the Presbyterian church.

Wedding Tuesday Is April Event

The residence of Mrs. G. Logan Black, 207 Grant street, was the scene of an attractive home wedding at half past seven o'clock last Tuesday evening when Mrs. Mildred Belding of this city became the bride of Mr. Charles Donald Black.

Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg read the service in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Lewis Hornby played incidental violin music.

Vows were exchanged before the fireplace which was banked with greens and white candles. The bride wore a shell pink gown fashioned with a long full chiffon skirt, bodice of lace and bracelet length sleeves. She carried an arm bouquet of pink and lavender sweet peas centered with a cluster of gardenias, and wore a band of rapture rosebuds in her hair.

The lovely lace-covered refreshment table was centered with a spring arrangement of daffodils and lavender sweet peas and tall yellow tapers. A figurine of a marine and his bride were placed at either end of the attractive table.

Many gifts were presented to Mrs. Vornholt in a basket trimmed with the yellow and lavender color scheme, and a corsage of yellow rosebuds and lavender sweet peas was pinned to her shoulder, a gift from the three hostesses.

Games and cards were played during the evening with prizes awarded to Mrs. L. L. Gay, Mrs. George Sample and Miss Barbara Palmer.

Those bidden to the affair included Mrs. Vornholt, the guest of honor, Mrs. Keith Coddington, Mrs. L. L. Gay, Mrs. Helen Mueller, Mrs. George Sample, Mrs. George Tucker, Mrs. Roy Taylor, Lucy Kimball, Joanne Siemens, Barbara Palmer, Betty Champagne, Marjorie Botens, Joanne Hamilton, Phyllis Duffy, Hazel Morrison and the hostesses.

Hosts at a waffle supper on Monday evening, April 16, were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnstable in honor of Pharmacist and Mrs. Lynn Bauman and Pharmacist and Mrs. Ed Bingham. Both men have received their orders for overseas duty and are to leave the Marine Barracks in the near future. Mrs. Bauman plans to return to her former home in Saint Paul, Minnesota while Mrs. Bingham will proceed to Memphis, Tennessee.

Guests at the supper party were Sergeant John Whitmar, Corporal Angelo Calderon, Corporal James Cotton, Corporal Bert Hegler, PFC Terry Saunders, Ann and Jean Blake, Gladys Wardwell, Janice and Cowell Barnstable, Lyle Lambert and the hosts.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Drake on Hillside street was the scene of a farewell dinner party for Mrs. G. Logan Black, who left on Wednesday morning for Princeton, British Columbia to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Tidball.

Following the dinner at eight o'clock, cards were played, and a lovely gift was presented to the guest of honor. Those invited to the affair included Mr. and Mrs. Lou Arens of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew, Miss Mary Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Humble, Mrs. Mildred Belding, Don Black, Mrs. Donald Vannice, Miss Orpha Hudson and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Drake.

In celebration of her tenth birthday, Jean Adams, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, was hostess to a group of her friends on Saturday afternoon, April 21.

Dessert was served at the Adams home on Del Moro street, after which the guests enjoyed an afternoon of roller skating.

On the guest list were Diane Oldenburg, Joan Slahi, Joyce Lisbony, Linda Ellis, Alice Geary, Ann Johnson, Joyce Lamb, Donna Jacobs, Kathleen McAtee, Tommy Moore, Richard Hilton, Richard Swanson, Jimmy Peak, Wayne Winkle, Bob Van Vactor, Barton Adams, Paul Adams and the hostess.

Pink fashions and tall pink tapers graced the table at the Francis Manning home on Roseway, when Mr. and Mrs. Manning were hosts to a number of friends at a cocktail party followed by a buffet supper before the Knights of Columbus dance on Tuesday evening.

Those who called at the Manning home were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. Solga, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Honzel, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Druucker, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pleser, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. Manning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Andrews of Stewart addition have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Velda Andrews, to Private Roy R. Cook of the United States army. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Peter Cartwright and young son, Danny, are visiting here from Portland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford at the Lloch C. Prock home on Lakeshore drive.

An arrangement of daffodils centered the refreshment table and pouring were Mrs. Walter England and Mrs. J. C. Stevenson Jr., a former resident of Tulelake and a member of the Winema club now of Macdoel.

Mary England presented two accordion solos on the program, and proceeds from the tea and approximately fifteen dollars were given to the Red Cross.

Mrs. William H. Staiger of Los Angeles will arrive here Sunday for a one week's visit with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Stanley A. Staiger, and her young son, Stanley, Jr. This will be Mrs. Staiger's first visit with her grandson.

C of C Dinner

Eleven high school girls were honored with a party at the Pelican cafe Thursday night by the chamber of commerce.

The girls are all advanced students in the commercial department of KHS and have each contributed two weeks of half days in the chamber of commerce office, as part of a practical training course.

Original placecards in the form of tiny shorthand notebooks marked each place, with a gift of appreciation to each girl.

The girls who have helped with the office work in the past year are Beverly Zamsky, Beatrice Bellant, Lela Bravo, Bertha Wilson, Pat McFarland, Mary Lou Sexton, Edna Richards, Joyce Cox, Eleanor Jones, Lethena Crutchfield and Mrs. Karl Smykyl.

Others attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Palmer, Mrs. Aletha Shannon, Mr. Malcolm Epley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stark, Peggy Rakestraw and Judith Brown.

Houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Blohm on Pacific Terrace are their son and daughter-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. Richard Blohm, who arrived in Klamath Falls from Fort Sumner, New Mexico on Wednesday, April the eighteenth. This is the first time the young couple have visited here together since their marriage several months ago. Mrs. Blohm is the former Miss Hathaway Kellogg-Smith of Maryland.

Among the many affairs that have been planned for Lieutenant and Mrs. Blohm during their stay in Klamath Falls will be an open house on Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. Blohm as guests. Approximately forty guests will call between the hours of five and six-thirty o'clock.

Following the morning of golf, luncheon was enjoyed by the members, with bridge played in the afternoon. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. William Dalton, Mrs. William Grove, Mrs. Clifford Shuck and Mrs. Dave Liskey. The special prize of the afternoon was awarded to Mrs. Shuck.

A "blind bogey" tournament was the feature of the day on Friday, April 20, and a basket lunch and bridge were enjoyed during the afternoon. Coffee was served by the hostesses, including Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. Guy Harmon, Mrs. E. D. Hamacher and Mrs. Carl Steinseifer.

Bridge Party

Members of her bridge club were entertained Friday evening when Mrs. Stanley A. Staiger was hostess at her home, 1428 Pacific Terrace.

Guests included Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. Roy Whittatch, Mrs. Lloyd Froom, Mrs. Robert P. Ellington Jr., Mrs. John Sandmeyer, Mrs. Richard Post and Mrs. Melvin McCollum.

Everything ran in circles of the "jinxed number" at the Matt Finnigan home recently when Carmel Finnigan celebrated her thirteenth birthday on Friday the thirteenth, and thirteen guests were bidden to her home, 309 Washington street to help her celebrate the occasion.

Games were enjoyed by the guests, who arrived at half past seven, and refreshments were later served from an attractive table decorated with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of sweet peas in pastel shades and tall tapers. A large birthday cake was topped with the words "Friday the Thirteenth."

Enjoying the birthday party were Clarissa Mason, Sally Barnhisel, Totie Liskey, Judy Vandenberg, Lorraine Steinman, Fay Nelson, Byron and Ronny Terr, Nicholas Long, Robert Lee Everett, John Elliot, and Lloyd and Bill Gass.
