

Cubs Blank Reds, 4-0; Move Into Second Slot

Passeau Allows Cincinnati Club Only Five Hits; Blasts Out Circuit Clout

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Cholly Grimm strummed a happy tune on his banjo today with his Chicago Cubs in second place and winning form by Claude Passeau and Paul Derringer easing his pitching worries.

The mound department was Grimm's big headache all last season and when Passeau popped up in spring training at French Lick, Ind., with a sore arm the Cubs' hopes took a nose dive. The towering righthander had the best record on the club last year with a 15-9 mark, but had to pass up the honor of working opening day.

Derringer Wins Two

Derringer tossed the first one, won it, came back with a second straight victory four days later. Inasmuch as he dropped his first four in 1944 and didn't snag a victory until May 20, that was a decided improvement. His lifetime total was boosted to 209.

Passeau relieved Hank Wyse Friday against Pittsburgh but worked only one-third inning so Grimm waited until yesterday's first starting effort, a 4-0 shutout of Cincinnati, before counting on him too heavily.

Passeau Hits Safely Only Five Times

Cincinnati hit safely only five times, all singles, off the 36-year-oldster from Lucedale, Miss., as Bucky Walters suffered his first setback. Passeau didn't confine his efforts to pitching, hitting his first home run since 1942 in the third inning and driving in a second tally in the seventh with a single to center.

All other big league games were postponed, leaving the field open to discussion of new Commissioner Albert B. (Happy) Chandler and naming of 10 new members to the hall of fame.

10 Join Hall of Fame

The diamond immortals, selected by a special committee of veteran officials and baseball writers, were Roger Bresnahan,

Dan Brouthers, Fred Clarke, Jimmy Collins, Ed Deleahanty, Hugh Duffy, Hugh Jennings, Mike (King) Kelly, James O'Rourke and Wilbert Robinson.

The late Commissioner Kene-saw M. Landis had been named by the same group at a December meeting but the baseball writers failed to appoint a 20th century star in their January poll.

San Diego Pitcher Leads PCL

LOS ANGELES, April 26 (P)—Carl Dumler, San Diego's slender righthander, picked up two more wins during the week ending last Sunday and remained at the top of the Pacific coast league pitching standings with seven victories and no defeats.

Dumler, 28, and never before regarded as a ball of fire in almost 10 years of professional chugging, accounted for more than half of his team's first dozen wins. He pitched six complete games and won the seventh in relief.

Allows Only 8 Runs

In 53½ innings pitched, Dumler has allowed only eight earned runs—an earned run average of 1.38, lower than the league's all-time low of 1.56 for a regular pitcher. Ed Love of Los Angeles set that mark in 1914.

Dumler's leading rival continues to be Southpaw Glenn Elliott of Seattle, who failed to improve on his 5-0 record of last week.

Another San Diego twirler, Vallie Eaves, is the loop's strike-out pacemaker with 41 in 47 innings. Dumler and Charley Cuellar, Los Angeles curve artist, are tied for runner-up honors with 27.

NEW YORK—Despite cessation of the sport the Racing Manual for 1945, just off the press, numbers 1000 pages, an increase of 100 over the 1944 edition. It tells everything about horse racing except when it will be resumed.

"Sneeze" Takes It On The Beak

Gloomy Gust Johnson and Billy McEuln work on "Sneeze" Achiu while Tony Morelli holds him in the "battle royal" on last week's crunch card. This Friday night at the armory "Blood and Guts" Davidson will collide with Johnson in the opener. Tough Tony Ross will hop beaks with Morelli in the semi-windup, and the "Grey Mask" will crunch craniums with Achiu in the head-line event.

KUHS Track Team Does Well In Relays

We were the recipients of a letter yesterday from Paul Deller, KUHS track coach, in which Paul complained that the KUHS track team had not received a fair amount of space.

Paul apparently feels that we have some sort of grudge against track as a major sport. This is not true and if we have played track down, it was done inadvertently and is entirely our fault.

We feel that the high school athletics merit more space than any other sports in Klamath Falls. Perhaps the Klamath cindermen did deserve more of a build-up than they received and the only excuse we have to offer is that track results come in late after the page is almost entirely made up and we are limited as to news space.

The Pelican cindermen very definitely deserve an accolade for their fine showing in the Hayward relays at Eugene Saturday. It was one of the toughest meets of the year and KUHS placed third in a tie with Salem. The Klamath squad this year is a green outfit and by that token, it merits all the more credit for crashing through to a high place in the standings.

Henley high school also did exceptionally well by placing third in class "C" and lacked only two points from annexing the class championship.

The Klamath Union high school squad gathered a total of 9½ points in the meet. The third place tie would have been equivalent to a first place deadlock three years ago, as Portland schools did not compete in the meet then.

Paul has done a great job this year in building the Pelican track team into a contender for state honors. His criticism is well taken and we are thankful to him for letting us know about it.

It has been our honest intention to be fair if nothing else, and if the Klamath boys have felt slighted, we are sorry about that, too.

We have taken this means to rectify the unintended slight and we feel that is the best that anyone can do.

Junior Golf Tourney Scheduled

Nine Klamath Falls boys will compete in a city junior golf tournament Saturday, April 29, at Reames Golf and Country club. The tourney will consist of 18 holes of medal play with no handicap.

John West, tournament chairman, has donated a cup and the winner to assume permanent possession of the trophy with a new one being donated each year.

Each boy is sponsored by an organization and the participants and sponsoring groups are as follows: Jack Anker, Eagles; Bill Barnett, Lions; George Bell, chamber of commerce; Jim Noreen, Moose; Don Rumelhart, Reames; Fred Reeves, Elks; Joe Sellars, Kiwanis; Bill Perrin, Rotary, and Johnny West, Shrine.

Starting time has been set for 9 a. m. and the boys will be in there trying to make each shot count when they tee off for the junior championship.

All the boys entered have been getting in a fair amount of practice on the tricky Reames layout and Klamath golf bugs may see an amazing display of golf Saturday morning.

John West, along with "Moon" Mullis and other club officials, are directly responsible for instigating and carrying out the tournament.

Rainiers Creep Up On Bevos

Seattle Splits Double Bill With Stars; Beavers Lose

By The Associated Press

The Seattle Rainiers crept up on league-leading Portland, splitting a double bill last night with Hollywood, 0-3 and 2-1, while the Beavers were being humbled by the Oakland Aorns, 2-4.

The Aorns' win tied them for third place with San Diego, which was shaded by the San Francisco Seals, 4-3.

Solons Split With Angels

Fourth place is a tie between the Seals and Sacramento, which divided an afternoon double-header with Los Angeles, 2-3 and 4-1.

The extra games were occasioned by the weather and travel delay. The clubs play single games tonight.

The scattered-bit pitching of Garth Mann gave Oakland its series-tying win over Portland.

Stars Drop Rainiers

At Seattle the Stars handed young Alex Palica his first setback in three starts in the seven-inning opener; the Rainiers bunched three hits for all of their runs in the sixth frame of the nightcap.

Bob Joyce marked up his fourth straight win of the season in pitching San Francisco to its victory over San Diego.

A seventh inning double by Roy Nicely brought in the deciding run.

The steady pitching of Charley Cuellar gave the Angels their first game decision, while Guy Fletcher turned in a five-hitter as Sacramento took the short nightcap.

GREAT LAKES, Ill., April 26 (P)—Memo to American league batters: Bob Feller apparently hasn't lost his art of throwing strikes.

The former Cleveland pitcher gave his right arm a test yesterday in the Great Lakes-Northwestern university game which the sailors won, 12 to 2. In three innings, Chief Specialist Feller, who manages the sailors, struck out seven, walked none and gave up two singles.

Other former big leaguers in the sailors' lineup were Ken Keltner of Cleveland and Pinky Higgins and Johnny Gorsica of Detroit.

PORTLAND, April 26 (P)—Joe Kahut, the farmer-fighter now in naval service, will battle Jack Dillich, a 6-foot-2 190 pounder from San Francisco, in ten-round event here May 4.

Matchmaker Joe Waterman announced a second ten-round on the same card: Leo (the lion) Turner, Portland, in a return match against Jackie Ryan, San Francisco. The two drew in a recent ten-round bout here.

Thirty A. L. Players Enter Armed Forces

CHICAGO, April 26 (P)—Thirty baseball players from the American League, including seven each from Chicago White Sox and Washington, entered the armed forces between the close of the 1944 season and the opening of the 1945 campaign, the American league service bureau said today.

American league clubs have contributed 258 players to the services in World War II, compared to the roster of 264 active players now on the reserve list of the eight clubs.

Tigers Lead Service Parade

The Detroit Tigers, who led the first World War than any other American league team, again lead the service parade with 38 players now in the armed forces, one more than Washington's 37. The Philadelphia Athletics have 36 players listed on the honor roll.

Close behind ranks Chicago with 35, New York, with 34, Boston and Cleveland, 25 each, and St. Louis, 27. Of the total there are 98 pitchers, 48 catchers, 48 outfielders and 48 infielders.

A breakdown of the national defense service list of former American leaguers shows 52 are in the navy, 10 in the coast guard, six in the marine corps and one in the merchant marine.
