WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—General Mitchell was voted Wednesday to be posthumously awarded the late William (Billy) Mitchell Medal of Honor for his promotion to major general.

Decorated for bravery in the World War, Mitchell died in 1930 after being stripped of rank and command a decade later by court martial for acting as a spy and chief of staff to develop the nation's air power.

Mitchell had frequently been criticized for lack of air strength in Pacific possessions open to surprise attack from Japan, according to the court verdict, publicly accused of being "incompetent, finally negligent and almost culpable."

The legislation, which goes to the president for approval, authorizes presentation of the congressional medal to Mitchell's sister, Mrs. Martin Flanagan, of Milwaukee, Wis., for "his outstanding service and foresight in the field of American military aviation."

Dogs In City Must Be Tied, Says Fields

Amos Fields, city poundmaster, emphasized strongly today that dogs inside the city limits of Klamath Falls must be either tied up or kept in enclosed premises from May 1 to June 30, according to a city ordinance.

Last year this situation got out of control, Fields said, but no excuses from dog owners will be accepted this year.

Any dogs not properly restrained according to law will be picked up and the owner will be arrested and cited to appear in court, he said.

A handling charge at the city pound will also be assessed against the owner in addition to any fine imposed by the court, Fields stated.

Dismissal of Mail Fraud Case Asked

PORTLAND, April 27 (AP)—A request that the government's mail fraud action against Cross and Janik, Portland music publishers, be dismissed because of insufficient evidence was before the court today.

The publishers contended through their attorney, Bardi G. Skulason, that all hopeful songwriters who sent them ditties had signed a contract permitting the firm to revise the songs as they saw fit. Government witnesses have contended they could not recognize their tunes when they came back in folio form.

Some government witnesses yesterday were from New York, Ohio, and Texas and had come 3000 miles to testify. The government accused Cross and Janik of promising fabulous sums in royalties to "victims" by mail, getting $60 from some to "put their songs over."

Juveniles Escape Lane County Jail

EUGENE, April 27 (AP)—Law enforcement officials today were searching the Willamette valley for two 18-year-old boys who escaped from the Lane county jail, lowering themselves 20 feet down a wall with strips of torn blankets.

The youths, Richard Dale Weddell, Springfield, and Thomas Culver, Monroe, gained freedom by cutting a hole in the jail wall.

Man Charged With Attempting to Sell 3000 T Gas Coupons

PORTLAND, April 27 (AP)—William Goepfert today awaited return to Seattle for trial on a federal charge of offering to sell more than 3000 T-gasoline ration coupons.

He waived hearing when he appeared before U. S. Commissioner Robert A. Leedy yesterday. The government charges that at least one of the coupons allegedly in his possession was identified as burglarized from a Portland ration board. Coupons for 90,000 gallons were taken in the burglary.

State police and harbor patrolmen have made several attempts to recover a heavy metal object thought possibly the missing ration board safe, from the Tualatin river. A woman reported seeing several men leave a weighty object from an automobile the night after the robbery.

Search For Indian Slayer Spreads

SEATTLE, April 27 (AP)—The search for Joe Bill, 33-year-old Eskimo sought on a murder warrant in connection with the slaying of 5-year-old Irma Irene McGough Sunday, spread today into central Washington.

Three members of the Yakima police force and the night dispatcher at the city's bus depot said a man answering Bill's description had called at the police station and depot late Sunday night seeking aid in locating his wife.

In Seattle, however, Det. Capt. James Lawrence ordered a close check on all fishing vessels and small craft near Ballard after a tip that Bill was seen on a pier there Tuesday. This, said Lawrence, was the "last definite word we have had of his whereabouts."

Ceiling Price Boosts Granted On Fir

WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP)—Ceiling price increases for western Oregon and Washington sawmills on Douglas fir boards were granted yesterday by the office of price administration.

The authorized increases are $4.50 per thousand board feet for Douglas fir No. 1, 2 and 3 common boards 1 inch, 1 1/2 inches and 2 inches thick, and $3.50 for No. 4 common boards of the same thickness.

The boosts were effective April 25.
