"I guess that looks showy enough—I want something pretty snappy though that'll match up to my son's uniform so he'll be proud of me when he comes home!"

Women's Club

LANGELL VALLEY— Grace Dearborn and Mary Dearborn entertained the Langell Valley Women's club at the home of Grace Dearborn on Thursday afternoon. The meeting was conducted by the president, Eva Roberts, and three new members joined the club at this time, including Marien Randall, Miriam Potucek and Lillie Smith. Plans were made for a dance to be given on the 12th or 19th of May, after which it was voted to have a contractor estimate the cost of repairs on the community hall.

Following the regular business session, the women spent the afternoon doing Red Cross sewing.

The next meeting will be held on May 24 at the home of Cora Leavitt, and Mary Leidy will be the assisting hostess.

Installation

Installation of officers of the Neighbors of Woodcraft was held in the KC hall on the evening of Monday, April 16, and the 48th birthday of this organization was also observed at this time.

Dicksey Weed was the installing officer and those who assumed the chairs were Alta Clark, guardian neighbor; Susie Smith, past guardian neighbor; Vera Reeves, advisor; Irma Miller, magician; Stella Dryden, senior guardian; Ida Mochettaz, banker; Mildred Smith, captain of the guards; Martha Gilcrist, attendant; Leola Thompson, musician; Ellen Ely, outer sentinel; Mrs. C. O. Dryden, Roberta Gerkin and Evelyn Patterson, managers.

Stella Dryden, Irma Miller and Willan Floetke were in charge of the program which followed, and were hostesses for refreshments served later in the evening. The musical program included piano solos by Patsy Ruth Miller, Pat Nidorf, La Rayne Weed and Katherine Blanas. Ethel Mae Skinner presented a vocal solo, accompanied by Louise Barnhart at the piano. Recitations were given by Richard Weed and Patsy Ruth Miller, followed by a reading by Susie Ganns. A trio including Phillip, Pat and Paula Ann Clark was followed by a clarinet solo by George Vlahos.

C. O. Dryden gave an interesting address upon the good of the order, and each outgoing officer was presented with a gift by a member of the Juveniles of Woodcraft. The four installing officers, including Dicksey Weed, Mildred Smith, Leola Thompson and Effie Redkey, were also presented with gifts at this time.

The refreshments were highlighted by a birthday cake in observance of the 48th birthday of the order of the Neighbors of Woodcraft.

March Wedding

TULELAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell this week announced the marriage of their only daughter, Bette, to Sgt. John F. Kelly, serving with the U. S. army intelligence department at Camp Tulelake. The wedding was an event of March 28 in the army chapel at the Presidio at San Francisco. Mrs. Campbell, mother of the bride, journeyed south for the wedding, and the young couple returned to Tulelake following a short wedding trip.

For the ceremony, Mrs. Kelly chose a gray ensemble with black accessories, and a corsage of white orchids. She is a graduate of the Tulelake high school, later attending Oregon State college at Corvallis where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Zita Kelly who resides at the Presidio. He was a student at the University of California prior to entering the service, and plans to resume his studies there when the war is over.

Upon their return to Tulelake, the newlyweds were feted at an old-fashioned charivari at the home of the bride's parents, when a number of friends "spirited" the bride, later returning for refreshments.

Transferred

Mrs. Ogden E. Brooks and Mrs. John Arkell of the Klamath Agency entertained on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Brooks in honor of Lillian D. Lund, who expects to be transferred in the near future to another agency in the U. S. Indian service. An enjoyable evening was spent by the 14 guests who were bidden to the affair.

The Chiloquin home extension group of Indian women also surprised Miss Lund with a party and refreshments after its regular meeting on Wednesday, May 2. Mrs. Rebecca Kirk, secretary and chairman of the group, presented the guest of honor with a lovely gift.

Man Arrested On Concealed Weapons Charge In City

Richard C. Fisher, route 3, Klamath Falls, was arrested Saturday by city police in the Pastime cafe charged with carrying concealed weapons. Fisher was alleged to have drawn a revolver and threatened Clarence O. Day at Day's residence at 530 Broad.

He later entered the Pastime where police made the arrest. As the officers started to remove Fisher from the Pastime he broke and ran, but was apprehended at 9th and Klamath. He is lodged in the city jail at present. Police are conducting a further investigation of the case.

A thought for Americans as news comes of Europe's liberation

GOD of our fathers, known of old . . .
Lord of our far-flung battle-line . . .
Beneath whose awful Hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies . . .
The captains and the kings depart . . .
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget!
