Life In Pacific

Having been a director of activities for the Red Cross for two years in a Southwest Pacific district, W. E. Dimon of the Tulelake Center at Newell, Calif., is well equipped with first-hand stories of a Yankee soldier's life during the early days of war with Japan. Mr. Dimon related some of his experiences to an interested audience of Soroptimist club members and guests at the meeting on May 9 at the Willard hotel.

He told of the Oregon 32nd division, pioneers on working out a design for living and fighting in the jungles. Supplies were limited and uncertain, with fresh meat about once in 15 days. Even a bottle of warm "coke" was a prize to be treasured, he stated. Efforts to get supplies to the men in New Guinea highlighted in his story.

Mr. Dimon spoke, with feeling, of the spirit of the fighter pilots, who seemed to have but one thought — to refuel their planes as quickly as possible and get back into the sky to "finish" the Japs. He said that the Yank never lost his sense of humor and maintained a high morale, unequaled by the soldiers of any other country.

Guests at the luncheon included Jean Thompson and Doris Arnest of the Venture club, and Margaret Strode, school nurse.

Mrs. Rose Poole announced that the 7th War Loan "kick-off" breakfast will be held at the Willard hotel on Monday, May 14, at 7:15 a. m., and urged that representatives of all organizations be present.

Double Ring Rites Read In Reno Church

Of interest to their many friends here is the marriage on Wednesday, May 2, of Robert B. Chilcote, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote of Klamath Falls, and Barbara Jane Rakestraw, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Rakestraw, also of this city. Vows were exchanged at the vine-covered Methodist church in Reno, Nev., at 4:30 in the afternoon, with the Rev. Osborne officiating at the double ring ceremony. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Rakestraw, parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. John Martin.

For her wedding, the new Mrs. Chilcote chose a brown suit with matching accessories. For something old, she wore a 75-year-old wedding ring belonging to Mrs. Martin, for something new, she wore her wedding suit, for something borrowed, she carried a lace hankie belonging to her mother, for something blue, she wore a blue top coat. She carried a large bridal bouquet of pink and white spring flowers.

Barbara, better known as Peggy, was graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1939, and later attended the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Alph Chi Omega sorority.

Mr. Chilcote was graduated from Klamath Union high school and attended the University of Oregon where he was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, graduating in 1941. He was commissioned as an ensign in the United States navy in 1942, later being discharged.

After spending a brief honeymoon in Reno, Mr. and Mrs. Chilcote returned to Klamath Falls and are now at home to friends at 2036 LeRoy street. While in Reno, they made trips to Lake Tahoe, Carson City and Virginia City.

Campfire Ride

The first campfire ride of the season, sponsored by the Sunset Riding stables, was enjoyed by 72 men and women on Tuesday evening. Riders left the stables at 7:30 for the seven-mile cross-country trot, with 50 on horseback and 22 in the gay red and white haywagon drawn by a team of horses.

Refreshments of wieners, salad, coffee and pop were served on a hill overlooking the city, and music was furnished by three members of the marine band, who played the drums, an accordion and a banjo.

These evening rides are to take place every Tuesday evening, with riders leaving the stables at 7:30 and returning at 10:30 or 11 o'clock. Anyone who can ride is welcome.

May Day Party

Novel May Day decorations built around a two-tiered angel food cake delighted the 13 small guests who gathered at the M. H. Melchert home on Johnson street to help young Stuart Melchert celebrate his seventh birthday. The cake was topped with a Maypole, around which was twined peach-colored streamers leading to individual blue nut cups, and the colors of peach and blue were carried out in all the table decorations.

The gay occasion was celebrated on April 30, as Stuart's birthday fell on Sunday. Games were played out-of-doors by his friends and schoolmates, including Joanne Bogatay, Paula Cook, Carol Stolk, Martin Snyder, Sandra Gilbert, Evelyn Joyce Deets, Lynn Dornheim, Zeta Samson, Lionel Scott, Barbara Jo Stinson, Richie Bogatay, Durne Cook and Kenneth McKim.

Brownie Tea

Members of Brownie troop 22 of the Pelican City school were hostesses at a Mother's Day tea on May 9 in the school auditorium. Twenty-eight Brownies proudly escorted their mothers to a seat, and presented them with corsages of iris blossoms.

The troop leader, Julia Gigler, and her assistants, Mrs. Robert Zarne and Mrs. Edward Simpson are teachers in the school. Their Brownies presented a short program, each girl taking her turn in a review of all the troop has done during the past year. They called attention to a table full of clever stuffed dolls that they had made, as well as the artistic mats of gay yarn which they wove by hand on looms of their own making. Following the singing of familiar songs, each hostess presented her guest of honor.

Miss Gigler welcomed the mothers, and introduced Mrs. Roy Carter, Girl Scout executive, and Mrs. D. W. Holloway, training chairman on the Girl Scout council. Mrs. Carter explained that a troop committee was the backbone of a Girl Scout troop, and asked for volunteers from the mothers to carry on the fine work begun by the present leaders.

Refreshments were served from an attractive tea table, presided over by four little girls in Brownie uniforms, including Shirley Johnson, assisted by Hilda Stanley and Jo Ann Lawson, assisted by Marian Simpson.

A gratifying number of mothers volunteered to serve as leaders and troop committee members for the coming year. They are Mrs. Lee Smith, Mrs. M. W. Simpson and Mrs. Harry Ravizza for leadership; Mrs. C. B. Whitlock, Mrs. Lyman Williams and Mrs. Hugh Smith for troop committee.

Navy Commander, Wife Honored Friday

Guests of honor at several social affairs during the past week have been Cmdr. and Mrs. R. R. Darron, who left Klamath Falls on Thursday of this week. Cmdr. Darron was formerly the commanding officer at the Klamath naval air station, and has been transferred to the naval auxiliary air station at Arcata, Calif. He and Mrs. Darron and son, Robert, will spend a 15-day vacation in southern California before reporting to the new base. Taking over command of the station is Cmdr. Phil L. Haynes, who, with his wife, arrived in Klamath Falls on Wednesday. Cmdr. and Mrs. Haynes are making their home at 4661 Boardman.

On Friday, May 4, the officers at the Klamath naval air station were hosts at an "Aloha Party" for the couple at the bachelor officers' quarters. Dancing was enjoyed by nearly 130 guests, including the officers, their wives and friends. Music was furnished by the post orchestra of the Marine Barracks, and a delicious buffet supper was served to the guests at 10 o'clock.

During the evening, Cmdr. and Mrs. Darron were presented with a large sterling silver cigarette box which was a gift from all the officers.
