News Behind The News

By PAUL MALLON
WASHINGTON, May 15—The way the tax trimming program was announced made it sound colossal, but it was short of that.
When business corporations paid their excess profits taxes (running up to 90 per cent or more) in these war years, they did so under a provision of law which promised a 10 per cent refund within three to five years.

back some of the balm it is offering with the excess profits hand.
This is about all there is in the "tax reduction."

Back-Stage Stabbing

BEHIND its announcement however the participants indulged themselves in a little light and fancy stabbing.
Senate Finance Chairman George had announced two days earlier, he thought the government should promise a real reduction to begin next January 1, whether or not Japan was beaten.

Hinges On Outcome

MY own information is that nothing is likely to be done about a cabinet change in treasury until after the Bretton Woods agreements sink or swim in congress.
Other than that, it can be said Truman appreciates Morgenthau's good New York financial connections, but, on the other hand, George would take the job if offered.

"I'm going into some job in essential industry—that's about the only chance a girl has nowadays to find an eligible man!"

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By JUANITA SHINN
The most anxiously awaited day of a school year perhaps is the last day of school. To a senior it seems that the time will never come when at last that precious bit of paper, commonly known as a diploma is at last in his hands, and he need worry about school no more.
