MYSTERIOUS NOTE LEADS TO SEARCH

LOUISA, Ky., May 17 (AP)—The "T. B. Snow" whose 38-year-old note found in a bottle on a beach near Reedsport, Ore., related a now-forgotten sea tragedy of 1907, probably was a member of a family of five children all of whom moved from this community many years ago, Mrs. Blanche Moore, editor of the Big Sandy News, said yesterday after exhaustive interviews with oldtimers.

The youngest member of the Snow family, who first came to Louisa some 50 years ago, was called Templeton, Mrs. Moore discovered. The editor said no one here has any definite knowledge of where members of the family are now.

The note read:

"November 7, 1907, on a raft at sea, almost dead and dying for water. If not picked up before night I will die before morning. If anybody finds this, please put in the papers so my people can see what has become of me." It was signed "T. B. Snow, Louisa, Ky."

FOUR PLEAD GUILTY OF DEFRAUDING U. S.

SPOKANE, May 17 (AP)—An army sergeant and three Spokane produce dealers yesterday pleaded guilty to charges of conspiracy to defraud the federal government in connection with the delivery of fruit and other produce to the Fort George Wright hospital here.

The four were Sgt. Edward P. Bisluk, hospital mess receiving clerk, and Frank C., Felix P. and Eugene Pupo.

Lt. Vernon Y. Dean, hospital mess officer, is on trial for the same offense and District Attorney Edward M. Connelly said sentencing of the four who pleaded guilty would be deferred until the completion of his trial. Connelly charged in his opening statement at the Dean trial that "all five agreed to prepare false invoices and bills for merchandise representing that certain quantities of fruit and produce had been delivered" to the fort hospital.

Vermont had the first normal school to be established in the world.

Tough Improvement Job Prohibits Bids

PORTLAND, May 17 (AP)—The city has a $16,500 street improvement job so tough that even the municipal paving plant won't bid on it.

Several trolley rails with complicated switching frogs criss-cross the street.

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen Need Not Embarrass
Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wabbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture health). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.
