

SCHEDULES
EVENTS AT SCHOOL

School events are into the final lap of the year that will climax on Friday evening, May 31, commencement exercises at the gymnasium. Members of the junior and senior classes gathered last Friday at the high school for the junior-senior banquet. The program was given by Superintendent Fred Peterson, and Superintendent Donaldson gave the address. The program was given by Superintendent Donaldson and Superintendent Peterson.

TULELAKE PLANS FOR GRADUATION

TULELAKE — Tulelake high school graduates are going into the final round of the school year. The senior ball, scheduled for May 19 in the high school gymnasium, is the only one planned by the three schools of Tulelake, Merrill and Malin and promises to be one of the society highlights of the spring season. Theme of the affair has not been announced but the curfew is "off" and the Chicagoans will play.

Rev. Hugh L. Bronson, pastor of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church and Father Hunt of the WRA center will officiate at baccalaureate services to be held Sunday night, May 27, in the Presbyterian church here. Students will wear caps and gowns for both baccalaureate and for commencement on May 31.

Don Groves will deliver the valedictory address and the class this year will present two valedictorians since four-year averages of Joyce Turnbaugh and Jean Wolfe were almost identical.

Marie Chiarucci is senior class advisor. Boys who are in the service and who will also receive diplomas are Robert Adams, Lester Cushman, Harry Mauch, William Powell and Phillip Urbach.

Five students who have been in and out of the hospital in the last year are now on inactive duty are John Bowen, Clatus Birtwhistle, Pat Hannon, Elmer Wails and Roy Waldin. Other graduates include Murlene Buell, Luana Doble, Jerry Ganger, Don Groves, Janice Hartsell, Sam Hollander, Grace Jones, Eleanor Kandra, Cora Martin, Leslie Meeler, Pat McVey, Ed Neunast, Harold Porterfield, Betty Rhodes, Charles Schreiber, Gerald Scott, Vauicee Spry, Joyce Turnbaugh and Jean Wolfe.

The Grand Canyon is more than 300 miles long, 13 miles wide, and a mile in depth from the brink of the canyon to the river bed.

the regular assembly on Friday morning. Lenda Mae Story was the master of ceremonies and she called first on Loy Welch to lead the group in the flag salute. A resume of the year's work was given in the following program:

Langell Valley

Mr. and Mrs. George Thurman and son Wayne of Carson City, Nev., left last week for Yakima, Wash., after spending the past month with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and Martin. Mrs. Thurman is Frank's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Fluckus of Dalry spent last week in Upper Langell valley with Mrs. Killgore and sons.

Mrs. Mary Dearborn spent Friday and Saturday with her son Mike and family. Dorothy Spence, Dorothy Anderson and Mrs. Barney Brown, all of Klamath Falls, spent the weekend with the Homer Roberts family.

Mrs. F. W. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Partridge visited at the Les Leavitt home on Saturday. Mrs. Mary Smith spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier and Mrs. Smith were dinner guests of the Johnsons on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marchant and family spent Mother's Day in Klamath Falls with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones and brother, Ray Jones and family.

GROESBECK TO TALK
AT COMMENCEMENT

MERRILL—R. C. Groesbeck, Klamath Falls, member of the board of higher education in Oregon, will be commencement speaker for the graduating class of the Merrill high school on May 31, it was announced this week by George Elliott, principal. The program will begin at 8 p. m. in the high school gymnasium.

Janice McCollum is valedictorian and Dorma Cox is salutatorian. Music will be presented by the high school glee club under the direction of Mrs. George Elliott. Diplomas will be presented to the six graduates by Principal Elliott and honor students of the graduating class and of the high school will be recognized during the program.

Members of the graduating class and the high school faculty gathered last week for the annual junior-senior banquet in the party room of the Pelican grill. Later the group attended the theatre.

Dr. David J. Ferguson will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in the Merrill Presbyterian church on May 27 and school will be closed officially on June 1. There will be no classes on Memorial day.

Twenty-one students of the elementary school who are completing work of the sixth grade will enter junior high school next fall.

Special Airlines Flight Scheduled

PORTLAND, May 18 (AP)—The first of two special flights heralding June 1 opening of northwest airlines transcontinental service was scheduled to arrive here today with Croll Hunter, firm president, aboard.

A group of New York and Detroit newsmen accompanied Hunter. A return flight to New York next week will carry a party of western newsmen.

Mrs. Bill Phillips has returned home after spending several days in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Lester Leavitt and Mrs. Mary Leidy will entertain the Langell Valley Women's club at the Leavitt home on May 24. Everyone is cordially invited.

Fort Klamath

Mrs. Theodore R. Nicholson and daughter Patsy returned the first of the week from Medford, where Mrs. Nicholson was confined for a week with an attack of influenza, and little Patsy was a patient for a month following an emergency appendectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and children have also returned to Fort Klamath from Medford, where their second child, a girl, was born April 5. She has been named Barbara Joyce.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gray of Newberg, Ore., are visiting at the home of his cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gray and daughter Anne.

Friends here were sorry to hear of the passing of Mrs. Philip Frankland, whose death occurred last Tuesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leonard Meshke, at Tulelake. Mr. and Mrs. Meshke are owners of the former Pearl Baker ranch here, which was managed by Mr. and Mrs. Frankland. The remains of the deceased were taken to Yakima, Wash. for interment in the family plot.

A quota of $20,000 has been set for Fort Klamath in the 7th War Loan drive. Mrs. Alfred B. Castel is chairman of the committee, the following including her corps of assistants in selling bonds locally.—Nora McAuliffe, Mrs. Harold Wimer, Mrs. Carl Wilson, Mrs. Frank Denton, Mrs. Ray Loosley, Mrs. E. M. Brattain, Mrs. Robert Cable and Mrs. Joe Taylor.

Mrs. Hugh Riessen, who had been in Fort Klamath for the past two weeks looking after her local property interests, was called back to San Francisco Saturday by news of the serious illness of her husband. Upon arriving in San Francisco, Mrs. Riessen found that her husband had passed away before she had arrived. Mr. and Mrs. Riessen are old-time residents of Klamath county, where they are well-known. Riessen had been in poor health for some time past, but his condition was not considered serious.
