Wed In Portland

The wedding of Marie Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon of Henley, and Capt. W. Merrill Bond, United States army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bond of Portland, was solemnized on Saturday, May 12, at 2 o'clock in the post chapel at the army air base in Portland. First Lt. Rodney Glasgow, post chaplain, read the ceremony.

Sgt. Gaymond played the traditional wedding marches at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Ralph Hill, wore a light green suit with matching accessories, and carried a white prayer book with orchids.

Beverly Shaw of Portland, a close friend of the bride, was her only attendant, and chose a gold crepe dress with white accessories. Her corsage was a spray of rosebuds and lilies of the valley. Edward Lewis of Seattle, uncle of the groom, stood as best man.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at Henri Thiele's tea room, after which the young couple left for a wedding trip to Victoria, B. C. Both the bride and groom are graduates of Oregon State college at Corvallis. Capt. Bond graduated in forestry, and was associated with the forest service at the time of his induction. He has just returned after 26 months of overseas duty in Africa and Italy with the air force.

Mrs. Bond taught school at Henley for several years, and has spent the past three years in the Girl Scout offices at Portland.

Bridal Shower

Marjorie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Brown of Tulelake, who will be wed on June 3 to Cpl. Sylvester O. Francis, was the guest of honor at a bridal shower held in the annex of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon.

The refreshment table was arranged with a red, white and blue Maypole, and other decorations about the room included lovely bouquets of apple blossoms and lilacs. A musical program was furnished by R. D. Alkin and Carolyn Boyd. The many gifts were presented to Miss Brown by several "small fry" who sang an original ditty to the tune of the Marine Hymn. A piano duet was given by Katherine Potter and Norma Brown.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Cecil Buell, Mrs. Iris Collins, Mrs. Lura Allison and Mrs. Ray Alkin.

Dorothy Kesterson Is Bride Of Monday

Residents of Klamath Falls are being told of the marriage of S/Sgt. Dorothy Kesterson of the Women's Army corps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kesterson of 1885 Portland street in Klamath Falls, and Pvt. James H. Skeel, United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Skeel of San Francisco. Vows were exchanged at the Glide Memorial church in San Francisco on Monday, May 14, with the Rev. J. C. McPheeters officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore the regulation army uniform, and carried orchids. Mrs. J. E. Avana of Sacramento, Calif., was matron of honor for her niece, and the groom's father stood as best man.

The church was simply but impressively decorated with arrangements of white stock, snapdragons and Regal lilies with rhododendrons in delicate shades. Lighted candelabra were placed on either side of the altar.

The bride's mother chose a dress of pastel blue with navy blue accessories, and a lavender orchid was pinned to her shoulder. Mrs. Skeel, mother of the groom, was attired in a dusty rose suit with black accessories and a lavender orchid. Following the 7 o'clock ceremony, a wedding supper, served in the Persian room of the Hotel Sir Francis Drake, was enjoyed by relatives and close friends of the newlyweds. With the spotlight focused upon them, the young couple danced alone to the strains of a familiar waltz played by the orchestra. Both Mr. and Mrs. Skeel are graduates of the University of Oregon at Eugene. The bride was affiliated with the Phi Beta national music organization, and was an active member of Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in Klamath Falls. At present she is stationed in New Jersey. Pvt. Skeel was a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. He has just returned after three and one-half years in the South Pacific with the famed 41st division. The just-weds are enjoying a two-week wedding trip in Santa Barbara.

Saturday Tea

The home of Mrs. Harold J. Hendrickson was the scene of a lovely Saturday tea in honor of Mrs. Paul F. Butler, wife of the hostess' brother, who is visiting her sister-in-law while her husband is serving overseas with the Seabees. Mr. Butler is the former manager of the restaurant at Walgreen's in Klamath Falls, and they have many friends in this city.

The lace-covered table was centered with a clever arrangement of delphiniums and ivy around a graceful swan, and bouquets of spring flowers were used about the room. Yellow tapers at either end of the table were used to carry out the yellow, pink and white color scheme.

Pouring at the silver tea and coffee services between the hours of 2 and 4:30 were Mrs. Ed Crawford and Mrs. Bert Johnson, both of Merrill, and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Louis Stewart and Mrs. William Colbert, also of Merrill.

Other guests included Mrs. Scott McKendree, Mrs. W. C. Bailey Sr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, all of Merrill, Mrs. L. Cooley, Mrs. Eugene Rollie, Mrs. Robert McCambridge, Mrs. Robert Felker, Mrs. Alfred Flora and Mrs. Angelo Serena, of Klamath Falls.

Reception

A group of old friends were invited to Sari's by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Persson for a reception and dinner on Thursday evening in honor of their son-in-law and daughter, PFC and Mrs. Carl Peterson. The young couple were married in San Francisco on May 12. Mrs. Peterson is the former Gerda Peterson who has been associated with the FPHA in the naval unit at San Francisco. The groom has just returned after three years of overseas duty in the South Pacific.

The tables were attractively decorated with spring flowers, while a large tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table. The cake was later served to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goeller, Mr. and Mrs. Erik Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Waldin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lekbert, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hedberg, Mr. and Mrs. Hilding Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Wright, Werner Lundquist, Mrs. E. A. Sauborg, the guests of honor and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson plan to leave on Monday for a wedding trip to Santa Barbara.

Senior Girls Honored At Tea

The annual spring tea for senior girls graduating from high school, given by the American Association of University Women, was held at the J. Royal Shaw home on Pacific Terrace on Saturday, May 12.

The tea table was attractively decorated with a white linen cloth, and centered with a lovely all white arrangement of lilacs, tulips, narcissi and other spring blossoms. Tall white lighted tapers were placed on either side of the centerpiece, and a large crystal punch bowl was at one end of the table, with a silver tea service at the other.

Tea hours were from 3:30 to 5. Pouring from 3 to 3:30 were Mrs. O. K. Puckett and Mrs. Lloyd Gobie, from 3:30 to 4, Mrs. Frank Jenkins and Mrs. Robert B. Chilcote, from 4 to 4:30, Mrs. Howard Listoe and Mrs. Harold Teale, and from 4:30 to 5, Mrs. Robert Shaw and Mrs. James Kerns.

On the reception committee were Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr., the incoming president, Mrs. Laurence Shaw, Mrs. Sam Mushen, the retiring president, and Mrs. Warren Nogle. Assisting in the living room were Mrs. Louis R. Mann, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Stanley Woodruff, Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore, Mrs. Burkhalter, and other members. Mrs. Donald Vannice, Mrs. John Merryman, Mrs. Ailsa Kuykendall, and Phyllis Foster assisted in the dining room.

Music during the afternoon was arranged by Mrs. Don Zumwalt. Mrs. Vernon Kuykendall sang "Cradle Song," "Were My Song With Wings Provided," "The Year's At the Spring," and "Were I the Flaming Sun," accompanied by Mrs. Zumwalt at the piano. The string trio, consisting of John Best, cellist, Mrs. John Best, pianist, and Mrs. Lewis Hornby, violinist, played the first movement from Mendelssohn's "Trio in D Minor" and "Pierette."

Mrs. Vern Owens was general chairman in charge of arrangements for the tea.

Breakfast

Kappa chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its annual breakfast honoring the mothers of the members at 9 o'clock on the morning of Sunday, May 13, in the Blue room of the Willard hotel.

Miniature umbrellas, filled with spring flowers, served as attractive place cards. Table centerpieces were four lovely plants which were later presented to Mrs. G. E. Moore, Mrs. A. H. Weatherford, Mrs. John Milne and Mrs. J. R. McLellan.

The program which was presented during the breakfast consisted of a welcome to mothers by Madge McLellan, an acceptance by Mrs. G. E. Moore, introduction of members and guests by Mrs. Arthur Moore, and the reading of "Our Creed" by Mrs. Norman Moty, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Arthur Moore.
