

Mothers Honored At Tea And Ceremony

Mother's Day was observed when the Girl Scouts of troop 5 and Brownies of troop 29 honored their mothers with a program and tea given in the auditorium of Roosevelt school on Saturday afternoon, May 12, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Everett Vanderpool and Mrs. A. L. Brandt were in charge of arrangements. Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe, commissioner, Mrs. Roy Carter, executive secretary, and Mrs. O. R. Holloway, leader chairman, were guests of honor, representing the Girl Scout council.

The program featured the interesting and impressive "flying up" ceremony, in which Brownies Linda Ellis, Judy Garner, Kathleen McIntee, Joyce Lamb, Joann Miller, Leora Traw, Gloria Stalk and Donna Jacobs took the oath and became Girl Scouts.

Annual Girl Scout awards were made by Mrs. Roy Carter and Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe. A first class badge was awarded to Sharon Williams and a large number of the girls received second class awards. Most of the Girl Scouts present received service pins for work done during the year in community service.

Mothers and guests were served from an exceptionally attractive tea table centered with an arrangement of yellow tulips. Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Radcliffe and Mrs. Carter. Carriages of spring flowers were presented to each mother as she was introduced by her daughter. The tea committee included Mrs. Victor Newman, Mrs. Thomas J. Orr and Mrs. Lloyd Porter.

Mothers who were honored at this time were Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe, Mrs. Lloyd L. Porter, Mrs. George E. Condrey, Mrs. D. W. Holloway, Mrs. David L. Snyder, Mrs. Irving R. Lisk, Mrs. A. O. Ronicko, Mrs. Roy Carter, Mrs. Charles R. Stark, Mrs. Willard Preston, Mrs. William R. Elliott, Mrs. B. E. Miller, Mrs. T. W. Dunwoodie, Mrs. Tom Wright, Mrs. Lloyd R. Lamb, Mrs. Otto Ellis, Mrs. A. Betrothal Told

Elizabeth Frances Campbell of Roseburg recently revealed her betrothal to Patrick W. Kilby of Klamath Falls. Vows will be exchanged on June 23 in the Presbyterian church at Roseburg. Miss Campbell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Campbell and is a former high school economics teacher. She was discharged from the Waves in October of 1943, and since that time has been serving as a dietitian in the Veterans' hospital in Roseburg. The groom-elect, formerly of Roseburg, came to Klamath Falls the latter part of March as contact officer for the veterans benefit office. He is purchasing a home in this city, and they plan to make their home here after their marriage.

Oath Of Office

The officers of the Altamont PTA who will serve for the coming year were installed on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. John Selby, state regional vice president, gave the oath of office to Mrs. R. E. Wanser, president; Mrs. James Clark, vice president; Mrs. Montgomery, secretary; Mrs. Mildred Frather, treasurer and Mrs. Gienger, historian.

A lovely program, featuring the crowning of a May queen, was presented by the pupils of Altamont elementary school, to a large number of parents and friends. A Maypole dance, drills featuring the flags of the allied countries and singing were the highlights of the afternoon's entertainment.

A delightful luncheon was served by Mrs. W. S. Metter, retiring president of the Altamont PTA at her home on Biscoe street on Thursday noon to officers and chairmen who have worked with her during the past year.

Guests present were Mrs. E. E. Metter, Mrs. E. F. Langor, Mrs. Hans Frei, Mrs. E. A. Davis, Mrs. R. A. Nelson, Mrs. Charles Santo, Mrs. R. E. Wanser, Mrs. J. F. Clark, Mrs. C. A. Larson, Mrs. A. M. Davison, Mrs. C. L. Barkdoll and Wyatt Padgett.
