

Couple Married At Episcopal Church

In an informal ceremony which took place at St. Paul's Episcopal church on Sunday, May 13, at 12:30, Helen Jean Larsson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Larson of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Sgt. Marvin Watson, United States marine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stephenson, also of this city. The Rev. Frederick W. Wisenbach officiated.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white marquisette with lace inserts and a short train. Her net veil was bordered in lace, and fell to the tip of her train. The veil was held in place with a snag lace cap, embellished with seed pearls, and stood up in front to form halo effect. She carried a white prayer book with a lavender orchid and white streamers.

MARRY AT LUTHERAN CHURCH

In a ceremony which took place on Saturday, May 12, Peggy Lou Rumer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rumer of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Cpl. Frank Jakubowski, United States marine corps, of Chicago, Ill. A moss green suit with matching accessories was chosen by the bride for her wedding ensemble.

Wed Tuesday

MERRILL—In an informal single ring ceremony that took place at the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday, May 15, at 8:30, Edna Marie Beasley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Beasley of Merrill, became the bride of James Merrillees, son of Mrs. Marie Mankin of Evansville, Ind. The Rev. David Barnett read the service that was performed before a few relatives and close friends.

For her wedding, Mrs. Merrillees chose a street-length dress of white chiffon over satin, with a light basque lace yoke and full skirt. A shoulder-length veil was caught about her head with a cluster of white carnations, and she wore a single white orchid at her shoulder.

Evelyn Tierce of Klamath Falls was the maid of honor and wore a street-length frock of pale blue with pink flowers in her hair, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. William Falvey stood as best man for the groom.

Mrs. Beasley, mother of the bride, was attired in a navy blue ensemble with white accessories, and a corsage of garterias and pink rosebuds was pinned to her shoulder.

Mrs. Merrillees is a graduate of the Merrill high school, later training at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. She is in the office of Dr. F. E. Trotman at Merrill at the present time.

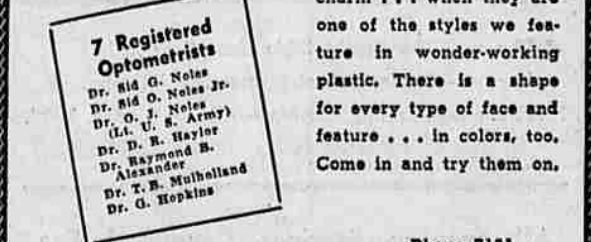

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Merrillees enjoyed a short wedding trip down the coast to San Francisco. Upon their return, they plan to make their home at Merrill.
