

Browns Batter Yankees To Get Into Flag Fight

St. Louis Takes Two From Bombers To Tie With Detroit For 2nd; Sox Lead

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

If the St. Louis Browns remain the American league champions, they may have their ancient nemesis—the New York Yankees—to thank.

In capturing both ends of a doubleheader from the Bronx Bombers yesterday, 10-1 and 5-2, the Browns jumped right into the thick of the flag fight, tied with Detroit for second place, only a game behind the league-leading Chicago White Sox.

The twin triumph was the eighth and ninth in succession over the Yankees in a carry-over streak from last season. Their victory on the final day last October 1 gave the Browns their first American league pennant.

Nelson Potter and Bob Muncie were the Yankee spoilers yesterday. Each won his third game, Potter yielding only four hits and Muncie spacing nine hits effectively in the nightcap.

St. Louis won the opener in the first inning, scoring seven runs against Alcy Donald. A two-run homer by opposing pitcher Walter Dubiel prevented Muncie from hurling a shutout. Pete Gray of the Browns was the hitting star of the day with four safeties, three in the opener.

The White Sox protected their first-place berth by defeating Boston twice, 4-2 and 8-2, to drop the Red Sox into the cellar.

Pitching continued to be the White Sox forte as Thornton Lee and Orval Grove went the route for Chicago's 15th and 16th complete game in 22 contests.

The largest crowd of the major league season, 51,340, of which 46,375 paid, saw the National league-leading New York Giants divide a twin-bill with the Pittsburgh Pirates at the Polo Grounds. The Giants won the opener, 5-1, as Bill Voiselle gained his eighth straight triumph without a defeat. Preacher Roe handed the New Yorkers their first shutout of the season, 4-0, in the nightcap on four hits.

The Chicago Cubs treed the Brooklyn Dodgers twice, 4-2 and 4-1, before 33,708 paid customers, to move into fourth place in the National league. Paul Derringer won his fifth game in the opener and Hank Wyse has fourth triumph in the nightcap.

After Stubby Overmire, Detroit's lefty, had beaten Washington in the opener, 4-1, for his initial victory of the season, Marino Piretti pitched the Senators to a 1-0 triumph over Al Benton. The rookie righthander yielded only three hits for Benton's first loss against five victories. Outfielder George Binks' double in the ninth scored Joe Kuhel with the winning run.

Bucky Walters batted rather than pitched his way to his first victory of the season as Cincinnati split with the Reds, winning the opener, 10-8, and dropping the second, 9-4. Walters hit two homers to account for the winning markers in the first game.

Coaker Triplet and Glenn Crawford gained revenge on their old teammates collaborating on a ninth-inning score to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 7-6 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, after the Redbirds had won the opener 6-2. Whitey Kurovski homered in each game, while Vince DiMaggio hit one with the bases loaded in the second game.

Cleveland and the Philadelphia Athletics split. The A's won the opener, 6-2, on a four-run outburst in the 10th inning and the Indians copped the nightcap, 4-2. Charlie Gassaway gained his first American league triumph in the opener.

Inter-class Swimming Meet Set Wednesday

KUHS interclass swimming meet will be held Wednesday at 4 o'clock in the KUHS pool, according to Joe Peak, city athletic director.

Events scheduled are: 35-yard free style, 210-yard free style, 170-yard backstroke, 140-yard freestyle, 70-yard free style, Under-water swim, 140-yard relay.

Diving competition has been discounted this season as the diving board at the high school pool is in need of repair.

The freshman class of 1944-1945's sophomores—are the defending champions.

Antone Leone To Wrestle Sailor Hogan

Antone Leone, the toughie with a French name, will open Mack Lillard's wrestling card at the armory next Friday night by taking on Sailor Hogan, a navy man with a fine reputation in ring circles, in the first bout of a four-star grunt and groan night.

Leone, who has always put on a good bout for the fans, is the man who never seems to have enough of any battle, no matter how bad he seems to be taking a beating.

Last week he struggled with Paavo Katonen in the opener and when the match was finally declared a draw after the fourth round, Leone took it upon himself to do a little extra-curricular battling with Paavo after both had their robes on.

Leone's mean tactics have always aroused the ire of the fans, but they seem to enjoy his antics just the same.

There is also a rumor afoot that Ken Eccles, the Hollywood wonder boy, will be back. He gave the fans a good exhibition of wrestling skill in his last appearance here three weeks ago, and his return will be appreciated by the majority of the wrestling enthusiasts.

Districts Unchanged For 1945 Grid Play

PORTLAND, May 21 (AP)—The Oregon High School Activities association drew up the 1945 prep football picture today, outlining most district playoffs but keeping district boundaries unchanged.

The A championship game was set for December 1, with inter-district contest November 24. The B championship will be played November 22, with inter-district tilts November 17.

District champions, except in one case, will be chosen without a playoff, according to the season's win-loss record. In case of tie, the decision will be made by first downs and—if necessary—by yardage.

Oregon's big schools will play in the usual four districts: Eastern Oregon, southern Oregon, northwestern Oregon, and Portland public schools. Eastern Oregon will play northwestern Oregon, and southern Oregon the Portland titlists in semifinals at the home site of one of the finalists.

The only playoff within a district this year will be in northwestern Oregon, between the newly established northern and southern subdivisions. The subdivision titlists, chosen by season's record, will play off at the southern school's home site this fall.

The class A districts:

1. Eastern Oregon: Union, Wallowa, Baker, Malheur, Umatilla, Morrow, Gilliam, Sherman, Hood River, Wasco, Wheeler, Grant and Harney counties.

2. Southern Oregon: Jefferson, Crook, Deschutes, Lake, Klamath, Douglas, Coos, Curry, Josephine, Jackson counties.

3. Northwestern Oregon: Northern subdivision: Tillamook, Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Beaverton, Tigard, West Linn, Newberg, McMinnville, Dallas, Astoria, Seaside, Vernonia, Rainier, St. Helens, Scappoose, Columbia Prep, Parkrose, Central Catholic, Hill Military.

Southern subdivision: Corvallis, Albany, Lebanon, Sweet Home, Cottage Grove, Springfield, University, Eugene, Junction City, Toledo, Salem, Milwaukie, Gresham, Oregon City, Sandy, Estacada, Canby, Molalla, Silverton, Woodburn, Mount Angel.

4. Portland public schools. Class B districts: 1. Hood River, Multnomah, Clackamas, Marion, Linn, Benton, Lincoln, Polk, Yamhill, Tillamook, Washington, Columbia, Clatsop counties.

2. Lane, Douglas, Coos, Curry, Josephine, Jackson counties. 3. Gilliam, Sherman, Wasco, Jefferson, Wheeler, Crook, Deschutes, Klamath, Lake counties. 4. Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, Baker, Grant, Malheur, Harney, Morrow counties.

In inter-district B playoffs this year, the district 1 titlist will play district 3, and district 2 will play district 4.

Triple Loss Drops Ducks Two Games

Angels Beat Beavers' Lead To 4 And One-Half Games; Seattle Takes Seals, 2-1

By The Associated Press
Gloom hovered over Beavertown today after a disastrous weekend knocked two full games off Portland's lead in the Pacific Coast league.

The Beavers' triple loss to Los Angeles dropped them within four and a half games of Seattle, which took two out of three from San Francisco. Oakland and San Diego remained half a game apart in third and fourth place as both clubs were defeated twice in three games with Sacramento and Hollywood, respectively.

Portland will meet the Angels in a single game at 8:30 tonight, while Seattle takes on the Seals in a doubleheader starting at 7:30. The Monday night engagements have been scheduled to make up for tilts postponed last week by rain and travel delays.

The Pacific northwest teams shift opponents Tuesday. The Beavers lost to the Angels 2-5 Saturday, and repeated 5-12 and 0-6 Sunday to put them on the short end of a 3-2 series standing. Lou Novikoff, Los Angeles outfielder, was the big noise in the Sunday opener as he got on base nine times. Don Osborn limited Portland to three hits in the nightcap.

Seattle, which has won three out of four from the Seals, dropped its one game of the series Saturday, 3-9, but came back Sunday to cop a twin bill 10-3 and 9-1. The Rainiers scored all of their 10 runs in the fifth inning of the opener, four of them being accounted for by Ted Norbert's homer with the bases loaded. Alex Palica registered his sixth victory of the season against one defeat in the tall-order.

Sacramento wound up with a 4-3 series margin over Oakland, losing 1-3 Saturday and coming back Sunday to take a doubleheader 5-4 and 16-1. The Solons clinched the first game with a four-run rally in the eighth and pounded four Acorn hurlers at will in the nightcap.

Although San Diego shaded Hollywood 4-3 in the week's series, the Padres were able to salvage only one game over the weekend. The Stars won 8-6 Saturday and then split Sunday's pair 0-3 and 10-1. Carl Dumber, who won his first eight games for the Padres and then suffered four consecutive de-
