GENERAL DALTON DIES ON ISLAND

MANILA, May 21 (AP)—Brig. Gen. James L. Dalton, 35, one of the youngest generals in the army, was killed by a Japanese sniper near Balet pass on northern Luzon island, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today.

Dalton, whom MacArthur referred to as "distinguished and intrepid," was killed May 18. MacArthur announced the young officer's death with "great sorrow."

Dalton, whose widow and two daughters live in Kennebunk Port, Me., was assistant 25th division commander. His body was buried yesterday in the Santa Barbara army cemetery near Binalonan, 100 miles north of Manila.

Dalton commanded the 161st regiment, formerly part of the Washington state national guard, through the Guadalcanal and New Georgia campaigns in the Solomons, and on Luzon in the battle of San Manuel where the main Japanese tank strength was smashed.

He was killed while inspecting a front line ravine which formerly sheltered the enemy command on that front.
