Portland's badly crippled Beavers, beaten six times in their last seven starts, today face the problem of staying off a Seattle drive which has brought the Rainiers within two games of the Pacific Coast league leaders.
Manager Marv Owen's Portlandites dropped a twin bill last night to San Francisco while the Rainiers were continuing their winning pace against Los Angeles. Oakland trimmed San Diego to strengthen its hold on third place while Hollywood was coming through for the second night in a row against Sacramento.
The Beavers, in losing 5-0 and 4-1, have dropped two out of three to the Seals after being beaten four in a row by Los Angeles in the finale of their last series. Four Portland regulars are on the sick list. Ad Liska, ace pitcher, was taken to the hospital last night suffering from influenza. Catcher Eddie Adams is out with a split finger. First Baseman Larry Barton has a bad leg and Pitcher Jack Tising is laid up with a broken toe.
Frank Seward hurled five-hit ball to give San Francisco its victory in the opener, with Elmer Orella limiting Portland to six blows in the nightcap. The Beavers scored their lone run of the two tilts in the ninth inning of the second game, the first time they had tallied against the Seals in 19 frames.
pected to be late June or early July, will be announced within a week or 10 days, according to Thomas H. Richardson, chairman of the executive council of the minors.
