

Republican Council Chapter Begun Here

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, a republican national committee member, spent the last two weeks in this area organizing chapters of the Republican Women's Council of Oregon. Mrs. Gerlinger has been active in local, state and national politics for many years, and recently accepted the responsibility of organizing chapters of this state-wide organization, which has been planned to supplement others of this type throughout the state. Two chapters were formed in Klamath Falls, one composed of housewives who will meet in the afternoons, and the other including business women who will meet in the evenings.

N of W Meet

On Monday, May 21, at 8 p. m., Neighbors of Woodcraft met in regular session in the KC hall, Alta Clark, guardian neighbor, was in charge of the business meeting and Martha Gilchrist and Evelyn Patterson were hostesses for the evening. The next meeting, June 4, will be held at the home of Mrs. C. D. Dryden, 810 North 11th, and Mrs. Dryden and Alta Clark will serve as hostesses.

Juveniles of the Neighbors of Woodcraft met at 4 p. m. Monday afternoon, May 21, in the KC hall for a business meeting, games and refreshments. Mrs. C. O. Dryden, neighborhood guardian, assisted with the non-hostess entertainment and refreshments.

Mrs. Gerlinger wishes to emphasize the necessity for building a large state-wide membership of informed, patriotic women whose vision challenges their own for the welfare of this other nations. Mrs. Gerlinger conceived the idea of forming such an organization after visiting the national capitol.

Members of the evening group met at luncheon in the KC hall Friday at 1 o'clock and discussed plans, policy and organization in the coming year for membership. Mrs. Simpson presided.

Plans call for a membership of this group of 200 or more, when this number is obtained a gala evening party is held.

Marries

Helen Marie Kourda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kourda of Jersey City, N. J., became the bride of Orville Lee McCallister, CMM of the United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Stephenson of Klamath Falls, in a ceremony which took place last week. After a brief wedding trip, the groom will return to San Francisco for further orders. Mrs. McCallister will remain at the home of her husband's parents until his return.

The Catholic ladies who served at the USO center during the month of May were Mrs. W. Spitzer, Mrs. Joe Malani, Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mrs. J. Wagner, Mrs. Phil Brick, Mrs. Norman Moty.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ragland, the former Marie Collier, and two-year-old son, David, arrived in Klamath Falls last week to spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Collier at Pine Grove. The threesome left on Wednesday to visit with his mother, Mrs. U. S. Ragland in San Francisco. Mrs. Ragland and David will return here Monday to stay at the home of her parents while her husband returns to Fort Monmouth, N. J., for an indefinite period. He is attached to the army signal corps there.

Review PTA

Annual meeting for the year of review PTA was held Thursday afternoon, May 10, in the pool auditorium with the president, Mrs. Harold Shaffer, in charge.

Highlight of the afternoon was installation of new officers Mrs. L. E. Juniper who also presented them with gifts. Those elected were Mrs. Shaffer, president; Mrs. Oliver Powell, vice president; Mrs. Ray Brown, secretary; and Mrs. A. P. Tilton, treasurer.

Dorance Ollmann, principal, presented Mrs. Shaffer with the president's pin and a gift of appreciation for her past year's work as leader of the Fairview association. Mrs. Shaffer presented Mrs. Juniper, former president of the PTA, with a gift in appreciation for her assistance throughout the year.

Mrs. Shaffer read an excerpt from an article published in the Friday Evening Post, "Are Worthy to Welcome Them?" which ended with the sentiment, "Be the kind of people worth fighting for!" The view delegates who attended PTA conference at Ashland April gave a resume of the meeting.

The audience was entertained by the Fairview orchestra under the direction of Lillie Darby. Playing were Beth Lee, Bob, Margaret Powell, Bob, Schenbacher, Larry Derrah, Sara Dolan and Margery, with Margaret Bright and Jack Ayers as accompanists.

First graders, May Monty and Sharon, Lee Dewing, gave a flag salute. The attendance award went to Miss Icker's graders. Refreshments served by the first grade teachers with Mrs. Ollmann and Mrs. Solle presiding.

Club

Potluck luncheon was enjoyed by members of the Republican club on Wednesday, May 23, in the IOOF hall. There was a good attendance, and Alfreda Stein, Vera Clemens and Ora served as hostesses. After luncheon and the business meeting, several brain-twisters were submitted to the audience, Nina Currier and Alma receiving awards for ability. Alice Gowland, a noble grand and a resident of Klamath Falls for the past years, is leaving to return home in Ashland, and in parting a farewell message to the club.

Next meeting will be jointly with the Past No. 1 club and will be a picnic at the home of Mrs. Belden on South River.

Stingerette Social club regular monthly meeting was held Thursday afternoon, at the KC hall. At potluck luncheon was Mrs. N. B. Gale, Gary, Mrs. Joe Matelick, Mrs. J. A. B. Guthrie, Mrs. Redman, Janice Pex, D. Kious, Carol and Mrs. Ed Brown and Mrs. Pex, the hostess. Special white elephant was presented to Mrs. Pex.
