at the theatres. Several members volunteered and others who can help Thursday and Saturday evenings, Sunday afternoons and evenings until the end of the drive are asked to call Mrs. Poole.

Ina Paity was appointed chairman of the cookie donations to the USO during July. Members can reach her by calling 5187. Mrs. Boley requested that dues be paid as soon as possible, at least during June, in order that they may be mailed into headquarters early.

Colorful table decorations of tulips and lilacs were arranged by Annis Struthers and Marilyn Bryan, a navy nurse who is assisting at the health unit and who was a guest for the evening.

The June executive board meeting will be held at the home of Norma Miller instead of with Mrs. Brixner, as formerly planned. The scrapbook of clippings and pictures of the year's activities, made by Edna Russel, was on display.

Plans were revealed for the meeting on June 4, which is to be a Bond Rally, with advance members of the Infantry show and a portion of the Marine band entertaining.

Historians estimate that gloves were in use more than 3000 years ago.

ENGAGED

Merrill and Mrs. John Burke of Merrill have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to PFC Pat Kossman of the United States army. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kossman of New Jersey and is stationed at Camp Tulelake at the present time. Miss Burke is a graduate of the Merrill high school with the class of 1941. The wedding date has been set for June 17.

Senior Ball

TULELAKE—In an old-fashioned garden setting, with a background of evergreens, members of the senior class entertained at the annual senior ball on Saturday evening, May 19, in the gymnasium of the Tulelake high school. One hundred and fifty couples danced from eight until one to music by the Chicagoans, a section of the marine orchestra. The affair was formal, and guests were present from Tulelake, Merrill, Malin and Klamath Falls.

Next week marks the end of the school year, with baccalaureate services to be held on Sunday evening, May 27, in the high school gymnasium. The Rev. Hugh L. Bronson, pastor of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church, and the Rev. George Kasparian, minister at the Full Gospel church, will deliver the addresses. Members of the graduating class are to wear caps and gowns.

Commencement will also be held in the gymnasium on Thursday evening, May 31.

Marry At USO

TULELAKE—In an informal ceremony which took place at the USO service room at Tulelake on Wednesday, May 23, Patricia Robson of Portland became the bride of PFC Clyde Brantover of Astoria. The single ring ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of enlisted personnel of Camp Tulelake where the groom is stationed. The service was read by the Rev. Hugh L. Bronson, pastor of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church, at 7:30 in the evening.

For her wedding, the bride chose a brown tailored suit with a checked topcoat and brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Walter McGrath, the matron of honor, wore a pale blue dressmaker suit with a corsage of pink carnations. PFC Walter McGrath, also of Camp Tulelake, stood as best man.

More Than Human Urge

On the last day of my life, I will throw away all the sermons I ever preached, all the prayers I ever made and all the calls on the sick. Then I will get on the good plank grace and cross over to the land of glory. So said the old preacher, as he neared the end. It was God's grace for him but what for you and me?

Many a time we have set ourselves against God's holy will and earned his fierce wrath. But by that same grace, He found a way to save us. First, He cleared us, for—"The blood of Jesus Christ, God's son, cleanseth us from all sin." Next, with sins blotted out, God made these human bodies of ours to be His temple—"What, know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you?"—BIBLE. This was penned to certain new believers, not yet freed from the old evil ways. But the Holy Spirit had created within them the new man and they came through to clean lives.

You said O.K.A.Y. Your heart believed God, that your sins were blotted out. Now—FEELINGS OR NO FEELINGS—God has taken up within you. The new life is now in effect. Make it abide. Feed out of the Bible. Be much in prayer. Yield Him the right of way and LIVE BY POWER FROM ON HIGH. So you are to come into the true, joy, cheer and peace. So lived the Apostle Paul who affirmed—"I ever toil, wrestling with all the energy of Christ who is mightily at work within me." See Phil 1:29. What for you?
