POCKET MONEY

LUZON, May 28 (AP)—Capt. William "Stretch" Morgan, Sioux Falls, S. D., returned to duty after two months in the hospital recovering from a wound. He drew his pay and stuck 800 pesos in bills in his wallet.

A short time later while the 6 foot 5 inch officer was talking with a platoon leader over a walkie-talkie, a Jap sniper's bullet grazed his arm and embedded itself in the 800 pesos in the wallet which was in a pocket over his heart.

PHEW!

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 28 (AP)—Albuquerque residents turned on the gas, took a few sniffs, and called the mayor's office to complain about sewer gas.

Gas and electric company officials explained that it wasn't sewer gas. It was sulfur gas. A new gas well had been tapped and its contents pumped into the city's gas mains before they discovered the well didn't produce natural gas.

JOB COUNSELING PROGRAM SLATED

A program of vocational counseling will be opened at the Marine Barracks, Capt Harry C. Mahan, post educational services officer, announced today. Purpose of the program will be to advise marines as to their postwar vocation and to make plans for jobs.

Four enlisted men from the barracks left Sunday for Eugene where they will attend a one-week school in vocational counseling of veterans, conducted by the United States employment service. The men are Cpl. Robert Henderson, PFC John T. Dillon, PFC Warren Brenner, and PFC Fred Taylor.

In line with this program are the recently-arrived sound films showing the work in 12 occupations, which are shown to marines asking vocational guidance.

REVERSE PRIZE

MILTON-FREEWATER, May 28 (AP)—A prize in reverse is boosting war bond sales here.

The industrial plant with the lowest E bond record must tether a goat at its front entrance for a week.

Soldier Held On Bail For Burglary Charge

MEDFORD, May 28 (AP)—Pvt. John R. Anderson, 21, listed by army authorities here as an escapee from a Louisiana camp stockade, was held on $1000 bail today on a charge of burglary not in a dwelling.

He waived preliminary hearing Saturday. District Attorney George Neilson said Anderson was arrested driving a stolen Missouri automobile and admitted a $2500 tool theft from an Ashland, Ore., garage. Neilson said the soldier also admitted a Mount Shasta, Calif., burglary.

State police were seeking a male companion and a girl in another automobile. Neilson was awaiting army decision to release Anderson for civil prosecution.

Restrictions Removed On Power Line Plans

PORTLAND, May 28 (AP)—Restrictions have been removed on construction of continuous rural power line extensions in Oregon costing under $25,000 for materials.

Action of the war production board and the rural electrification commission was reported by George W. Hendrix, Oregon Rural Electric Co-operative association president.

"Construction is proceeding as rapidly as materials and labor can be found," Hendrix said. "About $2,000,000 in REA loan funds alloted to Oregon system has not been drawn because of wartime restrictions, but is now available."

He said lines built first will be those connecting areas closest to the existing system.

LUCK

KANSAS CITY, May 28 (AP)—A Kansas City man was knocked unconscious while rolling up a motor car window when lightning struck near his home last night. A house guest gave artificial respiration as an ambulance was summoned.

When the ambulance arrived they found the unconscious man recovered and 30 cents and a card game.

The mastiff dog has also no important particular several centuries B. C. to present time.
