Cooper Pays 1st Dividend To Braves; Ferriss Gains Sixth Straight Win

By JOE REICHLER (Associated Press Sports Writer) Boston may not be represented in the world series next fall but it appeared today that the hub possesses the major league's two outstanding gate attractions in Pichers Dave (Boo) Ferriss of the Red Sox and Mort Cooper of the Braves.

Ferriss gained his sixth straight victory and his fourth shutout as he limited the Chicago White Sox to one hit, a single by Tony Cuccinello, to help the Red Sox take a twin bill yesterday, 7-0 and 2-1. Emmett O'Neill turned in a two-hitter to complete the twin-triumph.

The Sox rookie righthander has drawn nearly 65,000 persons in three home appearances.

Cooper paid his first dividend to the Braves on their reported $50,000 investment by blanking Cincinnati, 4-0, in the opener of a doubleheader with the Reds, who took the nightcap, 5-0, behind the three-hit pitching of Bucky Walters. Cooper, ace righthander obtained from the St. Louis Cardinals last week, gained his third triumph without a setback by holding the Reds to four hits.

The St. Louis Browns' winning streak of nine straight over the Yankees ended when New York won both games, 10-9 in 14 innings and 3-1. The second contest was called after seven and a half innings because of darkness.

Bud Metheny's single scored the second and winning run in the 14th after the Browns had gone ahead in their half with one tally. Oscar Grimes was the star of the second, his two-run single deciding the game. Pete Gray, the Browns' one-armed outfielder went hitless in two at bats in the opener and hit a pinch hit single in the aftermath.

The first-place New York Giants were humbled by Pittsburgh, 16-4, in the opener of a twin bill and were behind 10-5, at the end of seven and a half innings when the nightcap was halted because of Pennsylvania's 7 p. m. Sunday law. The game will be completed today before the regular scheduled contest. The Bucs combed five Giant hurlers for 18 hits, including Bill Voiselle, who lost his first game after eight straight victories.

Cleveland won its fifth straight and eighth of its last nine games by defeating the Philadelphia Athletics, 8-3, in the first of a scheduled doubleheader. The nightcap was called off because of rain.

The last-place Philadelphia Phillies stunned the world champion St. Louis Cardinals twice on two finely pitched games, 2-0 and 3-2. Charley Schanz and Charley Sproull each gained his first triumph, with Schanz limiting the Redbirds to two hits in the opener. The double defeat dropped the Cards into the second division.

Detroit and Washington split, Hal Newhouse winning the first for the Tigers, 3-1, for his fifth triumph and Mickey Haefner outdueling Forrest Orrell, 2-1, to give the Nats an even break. Rudy York hit his first 1945 homer for the Tigers in the first game.

The Chicago Cubs defeated Brooklyn 6-1, in the first game and came out with a 2-2 tie in the second halted after eight innings by darkness.

THE HARD WAY MADE EASY

Fisherman's Paradise is completely hedged in by regulations and that may be why it also is hedged by casters, standing at about five-yard intervals along the banks, flicking their lines in blithe disregard of the safety of passers-by and of the snarls that result when two or three cast to one spot at the same time. Anglers may fish only with barbless artificial lures—and no 'hardware' such as spinners; they get whacked with a $20 fine for even having worms in their possession. No trout less than 10 inches long—seven in the special women's section—may be kept and although as many as 10 a day may be caught, only two may be killed. The project was begun 11 years ago as a model for stream improvement and a school for fly casting, but now it's mostly a place where Pennsylvanians can be sure of catching a couple of trout to eke out their rations. During the record season—which lasts only about six weeks each year—some 24,000 anglers took home more than four tons of trout. And do they have fun?

SPORTSPOURRI The Giants are a trifle annoyed at the brushoff they got from Sam Bredon in an effort to buy Mort Cooper. Secretary Eddy Brannick called last Saturday to ask if Mort was for sale. Bredon told him to call back Wednesday night, at which time the deal with the Braves had been completed. Sam Snead's current golf worry is how long his 11-year-old driver will last. Sam gives it credit for producing those long drives. When Al Davis fought a six-round main bout against Bernie Friedman in 1938, he was the youngest main event fighter ever to appear in Madison Square Garden. Tonight's tussle with Rocky Graziano will be Al's 12th feature bout in that arena—cooperation note: Since ODT Director J. Monroe Johnson issued his recent warning that a great many sports events involving travel would have to be cancelled, the only national event to be called off was the lawn bowling tournament.

MONDAY MATINEE Latrobe, Pa., has ambitions to become the Cooperstown of football. Its citizens claim the first professional grid game was played there and that it should be suitably memorialized. Sgt. Mike Kamis, former Chicago boxer, who spent 340 days on the fighting fronts in Europe as a medical corpsman, would rather talk about his scrap with Barney Ross 10 years ago. "That," he says, "was a fight."

Muscle Fans To See New Face Friday

Klamath wrestling fans will be treated to a new face in the armory arena Friday night when Speedy Maloney, grunt and groan artist from the sunny south, takes on Georges Dusette in the opening event.

According to the boys who have seen him wrestle, Maloney is a rough, tough, crowd-pleasing muscle-bender. He has wrestled quite a bit on the southern circuit and reports of his prowess have spread even to Klamath.

Dusette is a well-known lad in Klamath. Two weeks ago he was paired in the main event with Gorgeous George Wagner, where Gorgeous dropped him two out of three falls much to the disgust of the crowd which was with Dusette because of Gorgeous' mean tactics.

The semi-windup and main event pairings will be announced later in the week, according to Promoter Mack Lillard, who promises a great, crowd-pleasing card.

Hollingbery Out; Sorboe In At WSC

Part-Time Basis, Salary Sparked Severe; Babe Coached Cougars 17 Years

PULLMAN, Wash., May 28 (P)—The Washington State college Cougars, coached for 17 seasons by Orin E. (Babe) Hollingbery, will reenter Pacific Coast conference football competition this fall under the guidance of Phil Sorboe. Hollingbery's star passing quarterback of the early thirties.

The "Babe," dean of west coast coaches and senior coach for the west in the annual Shrine East-West games for many years, was replaced by Sorboe Saturday when he was unable to reach an agreement with the athletic council to return to Washington State on a part-time coaching basis.

The council released a statement saying Hollingbery had "found impracticable to accept" an offer which "provided for a salary of $6000 as head football coach on a part-time basis requiring residence on the campus for five months during the year."

In Yakima, where he had been a rancher and businessman since Washington State dropped football and gave him a leave of absence in March, 1943, Hollingbery commented that "no coaching job is a part-time job. You either do the job or you don't." He had been getting $10,000 a year at WSC for the last 12 years, but said he offered to go back for $8000. Of his plans for the future he said: "I am free as the air."

The council said Arthur B. (Buck) Bailey, line coach with Hollingbery since "Babe" came to Pullman from the San Francisco Athletic club in 1928, would be asked to return as soon as he is released from the navy.

Sorboe left competitive athletics in 1937 and started coaching at Clarkston high school where he made an outstanding record. He went to Aberdeen high school in 1940 and moved the next year to Central Washington College of Education at Ellensburg. In his first year as a college coach he won the Winko league title.

Taking a wartime leave in 1943, he went to Lincoln high in Tacoma where the following year he turned out an undefeated team which won the city and cross-state titles. He recently resigned at Lincoln and was going back to Central Washington with a part-time coaching job at Ellensburg high school, but the Washington State offer changed his plans.

Pro Golfers Plan Matches To Aid Vets

By HAROLD CLAASEN WEST ORANGE, N. J., May 28 —The Professional Golfers' association plans today to conduct matches all over the country such as the Byron Nelson-Sammy Snead affair of last weekend to get funds for its rehabilitation program for wounded servicemen.

Snead defeated Nelson by a single stroke in medal play at Fresh Meadow on Long Island Saturday with 6000 present, but dropped the match play competition, 4 and 3, before some 1200 well-drenched spectators at the Essex County Country club Sunday.

"Our program has been in progress since 1941, but now that many of our wounded are returning from Europe and from the Pacific, we are stepping it up. Every dime we take in on these matches, and others throughout the country, goes for rehabilitation," PGA President Ed Dudley asserted.

Snead spent 26 months in the navy before a chronic back ailment brought about his discharge. He said after the match he "would be willing to play for the rehabilitation fund for 10 years if necessary after having seen some of our wounded veterans hobble around a pitch-and-putt course on crutches."

Crippled Beavers May Take Baiting When Seattle Men Battle Them This Week

By The Associated Press The Portland and Seattle ball clubs, which have been battling since the start of the season for leadership of the Pacific Coast league, will meet for the first time this week in a series which may affect the final outcome of the 1945 race.

The Beavers' month-long reign in first place appears jeopardized as their crippled team, victim of a second straight series defeat, moves into Seattle with a scant half game lead. The Rainiers will have the double advantage of playing on their home field and of riding a winning streak that gave them six out of seven last week over Los Angeles.

The third-spot Oakland Acons, who beat off a San Diego threat with a 5-2 series victory, tangle with their neighbors, the Seals. The Padres will entertain the Solons this week, while the Angels will play host to Hollywood in a cross-town series.

The Beavers managed to squeeze out a 5-3 win over San Francisco Saturday in a game called on account of rain in the seventh, but dropped Sunday's single tilt 8-4 as weather curtailed a scheduled twin bill. The weekend split gave the Seals the series 4-2.

Portland apparently had its Sunday game on ice as it went into the ninth inning with a 4-3 lead, but a five-run San Francisco outburst drove Pitcher Roy Helser from the mound and gave Hurler Bob Joyce his tenth win of the year.

Seattle dropped its only game of the series to Los Angeles Saturday 6-3, but came back Sunday for a twin killing 8-2 and 6-2. Chet Johnson hand-cuffed the Angels in the opener while Keith Frazier and Hal Turpin limited last year's champions to four hits in the nightcap.

Hollywood saw its three-game winning streak end Saturday as Oakland copped Saturday's game with San Diego 5-2 and split Sunday's doubleheader, winning the first game 4-3 and dropping the scheduled seven-inning afterpiece 9-8 in the ninth frame. The Acons scored all their runs in the sixth stanza of the opener. Lou Vezelich singled in the winning run for the Padres in the nightcap.

"Paid" College Athletes Frowned On By Conference

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., May 28 (P) Legislation outlawing any sort of recruiting or proselytizing of athletes and giving to Commissioner Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson vastly broadened powers in enforcement of such rules was put into effect by the western conference Friday.

The new legislation was designed to halt all forms of proselytizing and provides penalties ranging up to expulsion of a school from the circuit where charges of violations serious enough to warrant such action are proved.

Violations, under the new code, include paying of tuition or expenses of athletes, providing of jobs not deemed necessary by a school, or payment of salaries for unnecessary service. It also prevents "representatives" of the athletic field secretaries of the associations to approach athletes with the purpose of persuading them to attend any university for the purpose of engaging in athletics.

The legislation, however, will not have the effect of making "white" athletes ineligible for youth. The schools will be allowed to provide opportunity for athletes to give their jobs to pay expenses of the upkeep of the school.

Further, coaches can take advantage of their school's prospective athletes if they do not make trips to athlete's home, nor pay for such visits to the institution.

Two Idaho Men Leave For Great Lakes Track Go

MOSCOW, May 28 (P)—John Taylor, University of Idaho freshman track star, and Jack Anderson, Vandal distance ace, will leave here Tuesday with Coach Mike Ryan to compete in a collegiate track meet at Great Lakes naval training station June 2.

The pair also are entered in a national collegiate event at Milwaukee, June 9. Taylor was announced Saturday as winner of the Dingle trophy, given annually to the Idaho track man selected by his teammates as outstanding in competition, scholarship and character.

Taylor is an honor student and is undefeated this year in his specialty, the high hurdles. He has been beaten but once in the low hurdles, by Lee Schloesser of Whitman college.
