Cards Edge Giants, 4-3, With Ninth Inning Spurt

Yankees Trip Indians, 4-3; Bengals Lose To Boston; Drop 2 Games Behind

By JACK HAND (Associated Press Sports Writer) Bill Voiselle's surprising form reversal had baseball tongues wagging today as the New York Giants continued to drop back toward the pack in the National league.

All was serene in Mel Ott's camp when Big Bill from Ninety Six, S. C., reeled off eight successive mound triumphs but since Voiselle was belted out in Cincinnati 10 days ago, the New Yorkers have faltered.

It looked as though Voiselle was about to register his initial victory of the first western jaunt last night but the St. Louis Cardinals spurred for three in the last of the ninth to tip the score in their favor, 4-3.

Game Held Up Voiselle really had an excuse for that one although it would be hard to find any logical reason for his failure to last more than three innings in three previous starts, two of this he was charged with losing. The ace righthander held a 3-1 lead going into the ninth at Sportsman's park and had given up one more run when a severe wind and rain storm interrupted play for almost an hour.

When Voiselle again took the hill, Ray Sanders greeted him with a score-tying single and Whitey Kurowski tripled to win the game for Reliever Harry Brecheen. It was the Giant's fifth setback in their last six games.

Reds Trip Bums Bucky Walters recovered from a shaky start by going 13 innings for Cincinnati to beat Brooklyn, 6-3. Frank McCormick's three-run homer broke up the marathon night duel. The win stretched Cincinnati's victory string to six.

Pittsburgh, which took over second place by a 6-5 shade over Philadelphia, holds a three-percentage point edge on the Cards and Brooks, who are tied for third.

Chicago's tilt with Boston was washed out in the fifth before the Braves could make it legal, with Mort Cooper holding a 5-1 edge at the time.

Yanks Sock Indians New York's Yankees greeted Cleveland like long lost relatives after a tough series with Detroit and pummeled the Indians, 9-2, behind Floyd Bevens' five-hitter, Yank Catcher Mike Garbark finally broke his hit famin with two singles after going 50 times for only one hit all season.

Detroit dropped two full games behind the Yanks by bowing to Boston, 6-4, when Walt Wilson and 18-year-old Bill Pierce walked in two runs with the bases loaded. Dave Ferriss, appearing as a pinch-hitter, stroled to force in the tie-breaking score.

White Sox Nip Solons Washington had the same trouble when Walt Holborow passed three Chicago batters in succession to hand the White Sox an 11-9 decision in the 11th.

Sig Jakucki's three-hit, 4-0, whitewash of Philadelphia for St. Louis was the finest job of the day and the Brownie hurler helped his own cause with a triple that started the scoring.

By TOP WRANGLER Howdy folks: That collectshun of fine gals I've been so proud of have chalked up a winner agin. It's the Saddle club, of course, and they don't wear medals on their club suits, but shure as shootin' show a spirit of helpfulness close under their shirts. They up and bought a chromium foldin' wheel chair for the Disabled American Veterans hospital. A young lad, Sam Maestas of Battery L 18-Field Artillery Bn, wuz chosen by the hospital for the club chair. Sam's eyes filled with tears of appreciation . . . the hospital wrote the club.

A host of fellow celebrants are takin' a trek to a ranch close to Yreka. Leavin' here Wednesday and makin' the ranch for a big Bar-B-Q Sunday when the Yreka Sheriff's Posse will join 'em 'round the ol' chuck wagon. Sheriff Ben Richardson—he's related to me by transfusion, will be on hand to help keep our Sheriff Lloyd Low in good order. Don't spec' this will be no place for wimmen folks in a calico dress so the wives who plan to join the festivities better pit on their ridin' hardware. 'White' Goodman is a-hawlin' the bed rolls . . . and other stuff along by truck.

I got wind, Wally Moss is a startin' a 'piggin'-string society'. Wally's got a place all fixed up where a bunch of fellers kin jet-propulsion calves to practice on. I'd like to join this club, never made a loop fit a calf in my life but I kin shure nuff try.

The junior 'horsey set' deserve sum attention—I wuz a-talkin' to Patsy Summers and Dolores Hunt and these colorful little riders along with many more want a spot for their age in horsemanship circles. I'm fer helpin' these kids git that chance. Blanche Harmon wuz a-actin' awful busy like tother day goin' back and too with that hoss trailer of her'n. Beck on she's a savin' wear and tear on the saddle leather or sumpin'.

Yuh cud a branded me with a runnin' iron when I heered Ed Connolly sold his shop. I didn't catch the new owner's name, but he's awful cordial like. Through this Memorial weekend let us remember, to be an American is a proud possession; something beyond price. Gotta git on down and stand in line fer sum cigarets and chewin' terbacky. Bye now.

'Gorgeous George' Guzzles Helser Katonen In Main Mat Tiff

By PAUL HAINES Gorgeous George Wagner may be the "Toast of the Coast," but he's just a short drink of water to Paavo Katonen. George succeeded in dumping Paavo last night in two out of three falls in the headline tiff on Promoter Mack Lillard's crunch card, but he knew he had been to the wars after it was all over.

Wagner carried on an interesting conversation with Referee Wally Moss throughout most of the tussle which went something like this: Wally: Break the hold, George. George: Why? Wally: That's a choke hold.

Fishing Forecast Is Poor PORTLAND, June 2 (AP) — Weekend anglers were warned by the state game commission not to expect much luck tomorrow in generally high and roily streams.

The fishing forecast was "poor" for most eastern and southern Oregon areas, and the coastal section was virtually "washed out."

Wardens said Columbia county streams are clearing, and Lane county rivers should be good with another week of clear weather. Benton and Coos counties reported streams in fair condition.

The Deschutes river yielded a few good catches during the week.

Marine Nine Set To Meet Sailors Sunday Afternoon Klamath Falls sports fans will get their first glimpse of two local service teams Sunday at 3 p. m. at Recreation park when the marines from the Marine Barracks clash with the sailors from the naval air station.

Rainy weather has forced the postponement of all baseball games in this area to date, but it is hoped that the diamond will be in sufficiently good condition to allow the ball game Sunday.

A game is also scheduled between the two clubs this afternoon at the air station, but due to limited seating capacity only servicemen will be permitted to attend. The game tomorrow is open to the public free of charge.

George: No it ain't. And so on far into the night. Gorgeous Gets Mad George took time out to argue with the fans, the referee, and almost came to blows with his second. In other words, Gorgeous was a bit irked with one and all.

Wagner took the first fall in the third canto by going under Paavo and seizing him by both legs and pinning his shoulders to the rosin with a hold which we shall call a "Wagner special" in lieu of something more specific.

In the fourth heat Katonen almost broke Wagner's back by slamming him against the corner ring post and then evened the count with a hangman's hold. In the fifth stanza the boys settled down to work in earnest. Both went so far as to climb the ropes seeking an advantage and these tactics finally ended with Paavo heaving George out of the ring.

Wagner Takes Match As Wagner attempted to climb back into the square, Paavo threw Moss to one side to get a clear shot at his rival, but George had had time to get set and hung a beauty on Katonen's button and took the match with a full body press.

Paavo stormed and ranted and was last seen pursuing George into the dressing room. That dressing room must be the scene of some dandy battles.

Leone Downs Ackles Antonio Leone guzzled Kenny Ackles, the Hollywood Wonder Boy, in the semi-windup by using methods he must have picked up on New York's east side. He gouged, pulled hair, used his closed fist and made himself generally objectionable—but he won. With the count a fall apiece, Ackles missed with a shoulder butt and Leone fell on him to take the bout with a body press.

In the curtain-raiser Georges Dusette topped "Speedy" Maloney with his standing full-Nelson after "Speedy" had lived up to his handle by displaying bursts of swiftness that would have made "Man-of-War" nothing but a show horse. When ever Dusette went after his favorite hold, Maloney ran so fast that he could have outrun Jesse Owens from a standing start.

This bout was far and away the best display of real razzling Baksi by knocking out Steve was a good, clean match. Next Friday the boys of Cauliflower Row will slug it out again for the patrons of Punch Plaza with at least one new face appearing on the card.

New York—Tami Mauriello 200, New York, knocked out Steve Dudas, 198, Edgewater, N. J., 1.

Helser Blanks Suds, 5-0

Portland Now Leads League By 3½ Games; Seals Beat Oaks In "Grudge" Tilt, 5-2

By The Associated Press Hearts of baseball fans in Beaverton beat faster today as Portland continued its return to winning form after a two-week losing streak and stretched its Pacific Coast league lead to three and a half games.

The Beavers, overcoming the double handicap of injuries and playing on the home field of the challenging Rainiers, shut out Seattle last night for their fourth victory in five starts.

Seals Whip Acorns In the race for third place the San Francisco Seals also made it four out of five over Oakland to creep within a game of the Acorns. Sacramento blanked San Diego for the second night in a row to remain half a game behind the Seals, while Los Angeles evened its series with Hollywood at two-all.

Helser Wins For Bevos Portland's 5-0 victory over the Rainiers was never in doubt after the first six innings as Roy Helser played flawless five-hit ball behind the early five-run lead to which his mates spotted him. Young Alex Palica, 18-year-old Seattle mound ace, was charged with the defeat.

Called "Grudge" Game San Francisco's 5-2 win over Oakland came in a highly touted "grudge" game at the expense of "Sad Sam" Gibson, former Seal hurler, now with the Acorns. Gibson is credited with having made uncharitable remarks about the Seals when he was released before the start of the season, and both teams had beaten the drums loudly on their intention of winning in Gibson's first appearance against his ex-teammates.

Babbitt Hurls 4-Hitter Sacramento's 5-0 blanking of San Diego stretched the Padres' string of consecutive scoreless innings to 23. Gene Babbitt turned in a four-hit job on the hill for the Solons. Jacksonville, Fla.—"Red" Cochrane, 147, Elizabeth, N. J., knocked out Pete
