

Board Meeting Held On Friday

Mrs. B. C. Johnston, president, was in charge of the business meeting of the executive board of Camp Fire Girls, held at the chamber of commerce on May 25. Members present were Mrs. H. D. Gleason, Mrs. John McFee, Louise Sullivan, Mrs. Loren Palmerston, Mrs. John Selby, Mrs. John Kennedy, Jewel Cantrall, Dr. L. L. Truax, and E. P. Livingston.

Mr. Livingston, who has been reappointed as camp chairman, spoke of the new equipment which has been purchased for camp. It was announced that summer camp will be held at Camp Esther Applegate at Lake of the Woods from July 29 to August 12. Only registered Camp Fire Girls may attend and Blue Birds may attend during the second week. Weekly fees are $10.

Wed At Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Steinhorn of 2023 Darrel street in Klamath Falls was the scene of a very impressive wedding ceremony on Sunday, May 27, when their daughter, Lois Elaine, became the bride of Flight Officer Robert James Halvorsen, United States army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Halvorsen, also of Klamath Falls.

The couple was attended by Carleen Engle and 2nd Lieutenant Earl Green. The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Catherine Smith, sister of the bride. "O Promise Me" was sung by E. E. Burroughs, accompanied by Mrs. Smith.

For her wedding, the bride chose an aqua blue ensemble with navy blue accessories with a corsage of rosebuds and gardenias. Following the ceremony, a reception was given for the newlyweds, and forty guests were invited to greet the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Halvorsen left for a brief wedding trip, after which the groom will report to Turner Field at Albany, Georgia.

Ceremony Read

The wedding of Barbara Ruth Wilkenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilkenson of Klamath Falls, and Charles J. Marrs, United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Marrs of Waco, Texas, was solemnized on Saturday, May 26, at the First Christian church, with the Reverend Howard F. Hutchins officiating. For the ceremony, the bride chose a white wool suit with powder blue accessories. A corsage of pink rosebuds and blue forget-me-nots was pinned to her shoulder. Beverly Zamsky was the maid of honor, and Merle E. Rote, United States navy, stood as best man for the groom.

The young couple left on the morning of May 28 for Dallas and Waco, Texas, for a brief wedding trip. While there, they plan to spend a few days at the home of the groom's parents. They will make their home in Alameda, California, where the groom is to be stationed after June 29. The bride is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1945.

Farewell Party

Mrs. Marian Caramonta, who recently resigned her position with a local firm, was the guest of honor at a farewell luncheon on May 29.

On the guest list were Roberta Parrish, Dorothy Fields, Jessie Cutting, Nevate Smith, Berneva Amoureux, Lorraine Quillen, Pauline Johnson, Neil Lindbergh, Joyce Cox, Joyce Landrum, Della Stark and Lila Cox.

Happy Hour

The Happy Hour club met at the home of Alfreda Steinmetz, and attending were Addie Sandell, Maud Hoxley, Lina Motchenbacher, Anna Funk, Lora Evans, Louise Umphrey, Jennie Hurn, Rose Jones, Emma Hamilton, Annie Biehn, Hattie Keller, Alice Lion and Ruth Heiderich.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sandell on June 12.

Klamath Lutheran Church

Cross and Crescent Streets
S. M. Topness, Pastor

Sunday, June 3rd

Sunday School, 9:45 a. m.
Divine Worship, 11:00 a. m.
Membership Day, Sermon: "Abiding Riches"
Fireside Hour, 5:00 p. m.

Daily Vacation Bible School June 4th to 15th, 9:00 to 11:30 a. m.

Klamath Lutheran Extends a Cordial Invitation to All to Share Its Work and Worship

May Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eittrheim of 747 Alameda have announced the marriage of their son, Sergeant Harold D. Eittrheim, United States marine corps, to marine Sergeant Jacqueline Stallings of Portland, Oregon.

The wedding took place on Sunday, May 5, in the Catholic chapel at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. A large east coast marine training center where both are stationed. The groom is with the post band, and Mrs. Eittrheim is attached to the camp communication section.

The bride, given in marriage by her commanding officer, Captain L. D. Dyer, chose a wedding gown of white satin with a full train. The maid of honor and two bridesmaids were also dressed in white gowns.

Mrs. Eittrheim is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Stadin of Portland. A graduate of Klamath Union high school, she was a former resident of 624 Washington street in Klamath Falls.

The groom is a veteran of 18 months of overseas duty, where he served with the band of the third marine division. Also a graduate of Klamath Union high school, he was a former student at Oregon State college in Corvallis.

Graduate

Two girls from Klamath Falls were among the 808 young women who were awarded associate of art degrees at Stephens college in Columbia, Missouri on Tuesday, May 29. Ninety-six students were awarded high school diplomas. Graduates of the junior college included Wanda Elizabeth Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw of 805 Pacific Terrace, and Jean Louise Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Underwood of 320 North Seventh street.

It was the college's fourth wartime honor convocation and the 130th graduating class of the school. President James M. Wood, for 33 years head of Stephens college, conferred the degrees.

Other students at Stephens, who are expected in Klamath Falls in a short time, are Joy Kent, Maxine Liskey, Margie Clark, all of Klamath Falls, and Phyllis Sutton of Tulelake. Miss Liskey won highest honors in her art class at college, and was one of 20 girls to receive recognition for their work. She was entitled to take a summer art course, but due to the problem of wartime travel, she decided against it.

Dinner Party

The blue room of the Willard hotel was the scene of a dinner party for several men attached to construction work at the Klamath naval air station. The dinner, given on Friday evening, May 25, at 6:45, was a complete surprise to the guests of honor, including Lt. W. C. Hill, one of the oldest officers on the station who is to report for overseas duty, Merritt McConeil, who is leaving for the naval hospital at Corvallis, and John D. Merryman. All three men are leaving the air station within the near future, and were formerly mechanical engineers and civilian technicians.

Senior Circle

The meeting of the Senior Circle of the Community Congregational church was held in the social hall on Garden, on Friday, May 25. Mrs. W. C. Little was the hostess.

Dessert was served at 1:30 p. m. to Mrs. Fritz Vance, Mrs. M. Dexter, Mrs. L. J. Brink, Mrs. Godfrey Matthews, Mrs. B. Morgan, Mrs. E. Matthews, Miss Mary Eckstein, Mrs. L. E. Henry, Mrs. John Marin, Mrs. C. A. Revell, Mrs. William Larson and three guests, Mrs. W. W. Corey of Salem, Mrs. Nellie Whitman of Toledo, Ohio and Mrs. Rollie Berry.

Following the business meeting, Rev. Godfrey Matthews gave a very interesting talk upon "Personal Religion." The next meeting will be held on Friday, June 15, and the hostesses will be announced later.

JUANITA WORKMAN MARRIES

In a ceremony which took place on Saturday, May 12, Juanita Workman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Workman of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Albert E. Riley, United States navy, son of Mr. O. Riley of New Jersey. Attending the young couple were Jean Workman, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, and Kenneth Kohn, United States navy, who stood as best man for the groom.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Evening Meet

The regular meeting of the Orions was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wiggins of 820 Eldorado on Tuesday, May 22, at 8 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Wiggins was assisted by her daughter Marcelyn, Mrs. I. J. Olson, Mrs. L. A. Murphy and Mrs. L. E. Juniper.

The business meeting was held after which games were played, and prizes were awarded to the winners. Refreshments were served to Mrs. John Weber, Mrs. Troy Cook, Mrs. M. H. Melcher, Mrs. Albert Gaster, Mrs. G. C. Baxter, Mrs. Kenneth Samson, Mrs. Wendell Smith, Mrs. Ray Garrison, Mrs. William Stolk, Mrs. C. E. Dunlap, Mrs. Jaunita McMuado, Mrs. Don Phelps, Mrs. Ray Ward, Mrs. Frank Gardiner, Mrs. E. J. Schmebeck, Mrs. Paul A. Lee, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara, Mrs. George E. Crakes, Mrs. Ray C. Brown, Mrs. Paul Tanner, Mrs. David L. Snyder and the hostesses.

Wedding Shower

The home of Mrs. C. Melvin Howie on 1940 Fremont was the scene of a wedding shower for Mrs. Robert Chilcote, the former Peggy Rakestraw. The affair was given at 8 o'clock on the evening of Monday, May 28. Two tables of bridge were in play during the evening with Mrs. Charles Bailey winning high score, Mrs. Roy D. Rakestraw, second, and Mrs. Stanley Staiger, low.

Arrangements of rhododendrons and azalias were placed about the rooms, and refreshments were served by candlelight. Favors were made in the form of bridal baskets, and the bride tulle had various decals on the cover pertaining to the phases of housekeeping, with a personalized verse inside. Guests included Mrs. Donald Vannice, Mrs. Morgan Johnson, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Roy D. Rakestraw, Mrs. Stanley Staiger, the guest of honor and the hostesses.

Potluck

The Townsend club auxiliary met on May 23 at the home of Eva Myers of 500 N. 9th for a potluck dinner and social afternoon. The birthday of Eva Webster was celebrated at this time. Those present were Bernice McCracken, Betty Allen, Alice Gray, Viola Herman, Mable McWhitely, Ingeborg Wilkerson, Ila Douglas, Mrs. Arnold, Charlotte Canoy and Lillian Downs, a visitor.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Charlotte Canoy of 831 Oak street on June 6.

Court Klamath

Court Klamath 1295, Catholic Daughters of America, met in the parish hall on Monday evening, May 28. Phyllis Mahoney, grand regent, opened the meeting and Father Beard led the prayer. The gavel was then turned over to Agnes La Londe, installing officer, who, assisted by the monitor, Ellen Ely, installed:

Azita Kennedy, grand regent; Helen Egan, vice regent; Rose O'Leary, prophetess; Florence Pickett, lecturer; Jennie Moty, historian; Maryanne Granas, monitor; Violet Pleser, financial secretary; Norma Earnest, treasurer; Louise Vaughn, organist; Clara Beard, sentinel; Phyllis Mahoney and Lenore Gallagher, trustees.

Gifts were presented by the court to Phyllis Mahoney, Violet Pleser, Agnes La Londe, Carrie McMahon, Mildred Smith and Ellen Ely. The new grand regent appointed Carrie McMahon to serve as chairman of the committee in charge of pies for the USO each Friday, Mildred Smith as parliamentarian, and Ellen Ely as publicity chairman.

Anne Dirksmeier and Mary Higgins spoke in behalf of the USO and thanked the group for their cooperation, and bingo was played, after which refreshments were served.

Women's Society

The regular monthly meeting of the women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, held in the church parlors on Thursday, May 24, opened with the Bible study class at 10:30 a. m. led by Mrs. Paul Edwards.

At noon there was a sack lunch, with a meeting of the executive board at 1 p. m. when business of interest was presented. A donation was made for the yearly migrant work, and June 7 was announced as clean-up day for the church. Each circle will be assigned a certain portion of the building as its responsibility in the clean-up.

Mrs. John Yadon was in charge of the prayer circle at 1:40 p. m. and her theme was "Inward Peace." Mrs. Earl Redman presided over the general meeting at 2 p. m. and Mrs. Walter Herndon led the devotional service.

Stress was laid upon the summer school at Forest Grove on August 19-24, and it is hoped that the church may be well represented. Mrs. Yadon reported upon missionary education work and Mrs. Edwards reviewed Miss Lila Dingle's experiences in a Japanese prison camp.

Mrs. Bruce Binkley then introduced Mrs. H. E. Benham of Lima, Peru, who gave an account of conditions and customs prevailing in South America.

Circle 4 served tea at the close of the meeting. An arrangement of spring flowers centered the tea table and the circle chairman, Mrs. W. A. Carlton, presided at the tea service.

Mineral Club

The May meeting of the Klamath Mineral club was held in the chamber of commerce rooms at 323 Main at 8 p. m. on Thursday, May 31.

The Klamath Mineral club is a non-technical organization devoted to the study of the geology and mineral resources of the Klamath basin. Many of the members of the club are interested in lapidary work, cutting

Easy KLEAN-QUIK "Nothing Better" KLEANER
Scientific Household Cleaner Buy From Independent Grocery

WHITE WOMAN GOES NATIVE AMONG SAVAGES!
See HOW A BOY BECOMES A MAN FORBIDDEN DANCE!
JUNGLE VIRGINS! Coming
The BLONDE CAPTIVE
PINE TREE "LONE TEXAS RANGER!"

National Convention AAUW Held Here

As part of a nationwide convention without travel, the Klamath Falls branch of the American Association of University Women met on Tuesday, May 29, for dinner at the Willard hotel. Mrs. Samuel Mushen, retiring president, was in charge of the meeting, at which the group heard, by transcription, addresses by the president of White, and other convention speakers.

After the recordings, local AAUW members took up the discussion on the theme of the convention, "The University Women's Responsibility in This Time of Crisis."

Mrs. Robert Thompson acted as moderator and led the discussion which followed. Members of the panel who participated were Mrs. Samuel Mushen, who spoke on "Local Post War Plans for Education"; Mrs. James Kerns, "Juvenile Problems"; Mrs. Robert Ellingson Jr., "Child Care and the Nursery School Situation"; Mrs. Harold Teale, "Public Health Control"; Mrs. O. K. Puckett, "International Cooperation" and Mrs. Lawrence Shaw, "Plans for City Beautification."

At the close of the discussion, Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr. presented a resolution stating the Klamath Falls branch of AAUW's plan of action for the coming year, which was accepted by the group.

New officers for the coming year who were installed by Dorothy Schupp are Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr., president; Mrs. O. K. Puckett, vice president; Mrs. Howard Listoe, treasurer; Mrs. Laurence Shaw, secretary.

Branch delegates are Mrs. Samuel Mushen and Mrs. Lloyd Goble, who were appointed by the usual convention procedure, will cast votes by mail for the election of national officers and other convention business.

A delightful musical program, presented by Mrs. Don Zumwalt, was enjoyed by the group. Joe Einwallner, seaman third class, played several selections on the violin, including "Serenade" by Toselli and "Meditation" from Thais by Massinet.

The meetings of the club are open to the public, and anyone interested is invited to attend. A special invitation is extended to the service personnel.

Play Day

The last of the yearly play day on Friday afternoon "play day" for the girls' athletic class at the elementary school was held on Friday, May 11, at Roosevelt school. One hundred and twenty girls participated, eighty in the series. The sixteen teams played the series of tournament games with the following results: championship, purple team; consolation, green team; consolation, red team; consolation, orange team.

The games were umpired by five high school girls including Vera Budorek, Patsy Tillam, Belle Doris Russell, and Mrs. Vivian Yotly of Forest Grove. Mrs. Connell Napier of Forest Grove, who were assisted by Mrs. Bea Kidd of Millam, Ickes of Fairview, Mrs. Ruth Ehrlich of Fremont.

Eulalona Chapter

The regular meeting of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, scheduled for June 4, has been postponed to Monday evening, June 11, at eight o'clock, and will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg of 219 Pine street.

Officers for the coming chapter year will be installed at this meeting by Mrs. William D. Foster, installing regent. Mrs. Thomas Hampton is in charge of arrangements, and Mrs. Don Zumwalt will present a musical program. Mrs. Bert C. Thomas is the retiring regent, and Mrs. William Owsley the incoming regent. This will be the last meeting before summer vacation.

Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg who came to Klamath Falls as bride and groom in 1905, will be at home to their friends on Tuesday evening, June 5, at their home at 219 Pine street, in celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary. The hours are from 7:30 until 10:30.

The Wattenburgs have been active in the civic, social, and business life of this community during their long years of residence here.

WAC Honored

LANGELL VALEY — Mrs. Karl Kyler and Mrs. Bill Novotny entertained at the Novotny home with a party in honor of PFC Gladys Aiflin, Women's Army corps, who was home on furlough from her station at San Francisco.

Games and music were enjoyed throughout the evening, with refreshments served later. Guests included PFC Gladys Aiflin, Rudy Aiflin, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Fitzhugh and Elna Mae, Jackie Kyler, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kyler and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Novotny.

HAVE YOU "COLOR-PROBLEM" HAIR?

ROUX Color Clinic SOLVE IT!

Is your once-lovely hair grayed, faded? Has incorrect coloring ruined your beauty? Perhaps your hair needs completely new coloration... just a rinse or touch-up to give it gleaming, lustrous look of youth. Our "expert" will determine the cause of your hair-color problem, and ROUX Hair Coloring will correct it naturally. We also follow ROUX's hair care system only as directed on hair.

Make your appointment today!

HAZEL BEAUTY SHOP
125 N. 7th
Phone 6677

Butter-plate Buttons

Carlye is past master of the whippet-slim, utterly simple classic.

Example: This Tegra* dress with its vast pockets, big balanced buttons, and sharp definition of gros-grain ribbon down the cardigan front and across the shoulders.

24.95
*Ret. U. S. Pat. Off.

Carlye ORIGINAL

In this age of radar... plastic magic... and penicillin... who is surprised at Biodyne R*?

It's what you knew would come when Science turned its thoughts... to beauty. Wonderful Biodyne R. They've found it. Precious skin respiratory biodyne that helps offset the unkind depressants of normal skin respiration... has the power to stimulate the tiny cells where beauty begins. And it's yours to use in SRF... Night Cream... Day Lotion. Yours to help make your skin feel radiantly fresher, younger... look enchantingly smoother, softer.

SRF NIGHT CREAM • DAY LOTION
In smart 6 oz. ceramic containers... $4.50 each, plus taxes

EVERBODY'S
808 Main St. Phone 3625

*Not a hormone... but a newly discovered natural cellular substance found in no other skin-care preparation.
A product of Spentil, Inc.