

Board Calls May Tangle New York Yanks

Cleveland, St. Louis Regain Key Position; Red Sox Act Like Contenders

By JACK HAND
 League race into a wide open scramble and could make the Yanks a third or fourth place club.

News that Third Baseman Mark Christman was to rejoin the champion Browns on a full time basis and the signing by Cleveland of Outfielder Jeff Heath served to boost the chances of both clubs.

Boston Surprise Ball Club
 Boston is the real surprise of the month, moving into a virtual three-way tie for third place only three and one-half games behind New York on the strength of Pitcher Dave Ferriss.

When the army air force dischargee joined the Red Sox, the club had just won its first game after losing its first eight starts. Manager Joe Cronin had broken his leg at the Yankee Stadium a few days earlier and the Hub fortunes were at a low ebb with the Sox floundering in the basement.

Marines Cop Playoff Tilt From Navy, 7-4

By Chapin, coming in to pitch for the Leathernecks with two out in the third, scattered three hits and fanned 11 as the Marines won their rubber game from the NAS sailors, 7-4, on the afternoon diamond yesterday.

Chapin relieved Southpaw Jimmie West who got into hot water by way of a hit batsman, two errors and three singles. The Marines got only five hits, including a double by Rinke and two singles by Fred Busch, making his first appearance in the Marine lineup at short.

The Navy started a left-hander, Meyers, on the mound, but he was replaced by Clark, a righthander, at the start of the sixth.

Play by play:
First Inning:
 Marines—Brennan called out on strikes, Smith walked, Castagna struck out, Czyszewski grounded out, short to first. No runs, no hits, one error, one left.

Stanford Will Resume Grid Game In '46

PALO ALTO, Calif., June 7 (AP)—The Stanford Indians will return to the football warpath in 1946 after a three-year lapse.

Dr. Donald B. Tresidder, Stanford president, announced last night that the university will resume its intercollegiate sports program starting with the winter quarter in January of next year.

No successor has been named to the Indians' last active grid coach, Marchmont Schwartz, nor to Jim Lawson who was named his successor but never fielded a team.

Representatives will be sent, however, to the Pacific Coast conference meeting in Spokane, next week to map the schedule.

Misweet Will Enter Derby As Darkhorse

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
 LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 7 (AP)—Hope springs eternal in the breast of a proud owner of a thoroughbred filly.

Arthur Rose of Mt. Clemens, Mich., is no exception.

Rose, secretary of the Michigan racing commission, is the proud owner of Misweet, least talked about nominee of the 17 possible starters in the 71st Kentucky derby Saturday. She is going to run come rain, mud or a fast track.

Hoop Jr. Sets Pace
 Even the blazing workout of Hoop Jr., one of the favorites, yesterday failed to frighten Rose or his trainer, Lee O'Donnell. Hoop Jr., one of a trio of eastern threats, carrying the derby weight of 126 pounds, thundered around the Churchill Downs track to hit the mile post in 1:38 3/5 and sped on for another eighth to finish in 1:51 3/5, fastest time since Johnstown turned in a pre-derby mile in 1939.

Only One Filly Has Won
 Seventy times the Kentucky derby has been decided and only once has a filly's nose come down in front—Regret—30 years ago. Forty-five other fillies have attempted to triumph through the long years. It has been nine years since a filly even started. Gold Seeker tried it in 1936 and finished ninth in a field of 14.

Misweet Has Fair Record
 Misweet, purchased for only $1850, and winner of nearly $9000 in her first year of racing, has started 19 times and never has been worse than fourth. She triumphed twice, finished third three times and holds the distinction of having soundly defeated Darby Dieppe, winner of the Blue Grass stake, last Saturday, as a juvenile last year.

Sixth Inning:
 Marines—Clark came in to pitch for NAS and Iverson replaced Kitchens in right field. Chapin out, short to first, Brennan went the same way and Smith grounded out to third.

Seventh Inning:
 Marines—Castagna out on a bunt, pitcher to first; Winkler bobbled Czyszewski's grounder and the throw to first was late; Brant walked, Busch popped to short, Branham walked, filling the sacks. Czyszewski scored and Brant and Branham moved up on a wild pitch; Rinke grounded out, short to first. One run, no hits, two errors, two left.

Eighth Inning:
 Marines—Chapin walked, Brennan watched third strike go by; Chapin stole second; Smith called out on strikes, Castagna singled to left, scoring Chapin and taking second on the throw; Czyszewski bounced out, third to first. One run, one hit, one left.

Ninth Inning:
 Marines—Brant popped to short; Busch out, third to first; Branham walked and took second on a wild pitch; Rinke lined out to Jackson.

SETS-COURSE RECORD

COLLEGE PARK, Ga., June 7 — Johnny Bulla, Atlanta pro and airlines pilot, toured the College Park golf course yesterday in 62 strokes—10 under par and a new course record.

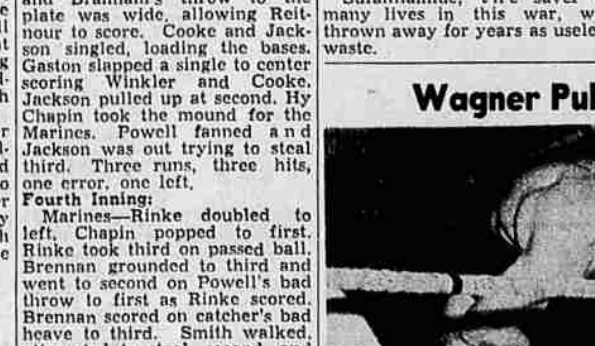

He shot par or better on every hole. The former course record was a 63.

FAMOUS WHITNEY COLORS COST $500

NEW YORK—The Eton blue jacket and brown cap worn by Col. C. V. Whitney's jeep, Burma Peg and other classic candidates this season have been familiar to racing enthusiasts of three generations. They were brought to this country in 1897 when Colonel Whitney's grandfather, William Collins Whitney, gave the Hon. George Labton $500 for the right to them when the English sportsman said he couldn't seem to win with those colors.

On the death of W. C. Whitney, however, Lambton, once more registered the silks in England. When Whisk Broom II and others were sent abroad by the elder Whitney's son, Harry Payne Whitney, it was necessary to change the English registration to include brown sleeves.

Wagner Pulverizes Paavo

Gorgeous George Wagner is shown above, attempting to pin Paavo Katonen in their tussle last week at the armory. On Promoter Mack Lillard's card for this Friday is a headline bout between Wagner and Georges Dusette while the semi-windup tiff sends "Baby-face" Klingman against mean Antone Leons. The curtain-raiser gets underway at 8:30 p. m. when Kenny Ackles, "the Hollywood Wonder Boy," mixes it up with Tex Hager.

Fourth Inning:
 Marines—Rinke doubled to left, Chapin popped to first. Rinke took third on passed ball. Brennan grounded to third and went to second on Powell's bad throw to first as Rinke scored. Brennan scored on catcher's bad throw to third. Smith walked, attempted to steal second and went on to third as Catcher Reitnour overthrew the base. Castagna safe on low throw from short to first, stole second. Czyszewski grounded out, Rinke fanned. Two runs, one hit, four errors, two left.

Fifth Inning:
 Marines—Busch walked, Branham flied out to left-center, advancing Busch to second; Rinke grounded out, Busch going to third. Then Busch took too long a lead and was picked off third by Catcher Reitnour.

Sailors—Cooke popped to short, Jackson fanned, Gaston

Suds Gain On Bevos; Stars Win

Portland Divides Double Bill With Los Angeles; Seattle Nips Seals, 8-4

By The Associated Press
 Seattle's Rainiers were half a notch closer to the first place Portland Beavers in the Pacific Coast Baseball league today, Oakland's hold on third was pared to half a game, and Sacramento had moved into the first division—but the big question was what had happened to the potentially dangerous San Diego Padres, beaten in 14 innings last night, by the lowly Hollywood Stars.

Padres Lose in 14th
 The Padres, who a short time ago zoomed briefly to second place, lost their second straight to the tail-enders 3-2 to remain more firmly entrenched in seventh position. Brooks Holder's 14th inning double to right field scored Jim Hill with the winning run for Hollywood. Credit for the victory went to Pitcher Newt Kimball who relieved Jim Sharp on the mound for the Stars in the twelfth.

Bevos Split With L. A.
 Portland and Los Angeles split a twin bill, the Beavers hammering out a lopsided 15-2 win in the opener and dropping the extra-frame nightcap 2-1. The Angels' defeat in the first game was their worst of the season. Manager Mary Owen's crew pounded three Los Angeles hurlers at will to ring up 19 hits and give Southpaw Roy Helser, leading Beaver tosser, another game in the win column. The scheduled seven-inning afterpiece went into the ninth inning before Neil Hicks poked a long homer over the rightfield wall for the Angels.

Seattle Nips Seals
 The Seals' 8-4 loss to Seattle dropped them out of the first division a half game behind the Solons. The Rainiers stole seven bases to set a record in the San Francisco stadium, scored four runs in the fifth and then drove Ken Brondell to the showers in the eighth with four more to put the game on ice.

Solons Top Oaks
 Sacramento, playing before a 7th War Loan drive audience, beat Oakland for the second consecutive night 11-1 to take over fourth place a half game beneath the Acorns. Giles Knowles held the Oaks to five hits while his mates were hammering out 16 against the Camillians. The Solons sewed up the contest in the first frame with a seven-run attack that drove Jack Lotz off the mound.

LONDON—Best to the best is the simple formula on which more breeding theories are patterned, but a foal by an English Derby winner out of an Oaks winner has yet to win the derby.

Field Is Complete

With the arrival of Col. C. V. Whitney's Jeep, winner of the first division of the Woods memorial at Jamaica last Saturday, in company with Andrew Wright's Jacob, the field was complete for Saturday's race—17 probable starters and at least 14 apparently certain.
