Northern California—Partly cloudy today and tonight with scattered showers in mountains. Cloudy Saturday with some light rain on north coast and some showers in mountains. Little change in temperature.
Washington and Oregon—Cloudy with occasional light rains, west portion, today and tonight, partly cloudy, east, with widely scattered showers today and tonight. Saturday showers. Little change in temperature.

WEATHER

CHICAGO, June 8 (AP)—Profit ebbing and hedging caused grain markets to dip slightly after an early show of strength today but cash handlers bought on the break and prices were steady to firm.

The trade was light and most price variations were limited to fractions. Reports of an impending freight car shortage led shorts in July wheat to cover during the first hour. Brokers acting for southern interests sold on the bulge. Millers bought the September contract, removing hedges after additional four sales.

At the finish wheat was 1/2 to 1/4c higher than yesterday's close, July $1.97 1/2. Corn was unchanged to up 1/4c, July $1.18 1/2 bid. Oats were 1/4 to 1/2c higher, July $2 1/4. Barley was 1/2 to 1/4c higher, July $1.12.
