Cattle Arrive At Malin Stockyards

MALIN—Cattle are arriving at the yards of the big Livestock Buying company plant here from the grass pastures of the San Joaquin valley, according to George Retteraph, new manager for the firm here, which is a subsidiary of Safeway. Three hundred came in last weekend.

There are 700 feeders at the plant now, Retteraph said he expects a heavier run this year than last.

A consignment of cattle went out this week to the Swanson Packing company at Sacramento.

60-Year-Old Woman Cements Basement

PORTLAND, June 13 (AP)—Sixty-year-old Julia B. Halak decided she wanted a concrete floor in her basement.

So she read a couple of library books and, in time off from her shipyard job, bought some sand, gravel and cement.

Now the 128-pound woman has, unaided, laid a 600-square foot concrete floor.
