Infant Death Rate Decreases Slightly

Infant deaths for Klamath county for this year beginning January, are just three fewer than those recorded during the same period last year. Thirteen have been recorded so far, with two occurring in June.

During the week ending June 9, 1945, three cases of measles, plain and German, four cases of mumps and 12 cases of gonorrhea were reported for the county.

THRILLS IN STORE AT RODEO, REPORT

More thrills are planned for Klamath Buckaroo Days rodeo to be held July 1 to 4, with Mac Barbour himself, an ex-Klamath buckaroo, to be present, rodeo officials report.

"Barbour has a flair for showmanship and his famous rodeo stock, also engaged for the show are no pikers. His horses, steers, Brahma bulls and fast-dodging dogs are known by cowboys throughout the west. His Brahmas that come from right here in Klamath county, grow wilder every year. They will tear up any fence they can't top—and they can jump 10 feet," cowboys were warned.

The Buckaroo Days committee reminds the public that the queen's ball will be held this Saturday night at the Klamath armory, when final decision will be made on which of the six contestants will be queen for the four-day show.

$100 Fine Paid For Drunk Driving Charge

Earl T. Thomas appeared in justice court Monday before Justice J. A. Mahoney charged with driving a motor vehicle while drunk.

He pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in the county jail. He paid the fine and the 30-day sentence was suspended.
