

SUMMER BOOK SERVICE SAID SUCCESSFUL

The summer bookmobile service of the Klamath county library to the Altamont, St. Francis Park and Shasta districts east of town is now in its third week with 263 cards issued on the first trip. This was more than were issued at any one time in past years and additional cards are being given on each trip.

The county library instituted this additional service in 1943 at the request of the Altamont and Shasta teachers, who felt that it would not be necessary for the schools to spend the first few weeks reteaching children to read if the children would continue to read light material throughout the long summer vacation. The teachers stated that the results were apparent in those children who made use of this library service.

Certificates will be issued to children who read eight books and a gold seal certificate will be issued to children who read 16 or more books during the vacation. Children are requested to keep a list of the books they read so that they may get a certificate. Books for children from the first through the twelfth grades, as well as adult books are available at the van.

The van will be at the following places at the time indicated every Tuesday: Blackie's store, Altamont Drive, 10 a. m.; Crest and Onyx, 11 a. m.; Altamont school, 12 noon; Idella's grocery, S. 6th, 1 p. m.; Buick's grocery, Homedale road, 2 p. m.; Shasta school, 3 p. m., and the Shasta Food market at 4 p. m.

Library service has also been well established in two other outlying communities in the past few weeks. On Thursday, June 14, the first trip was made to Weyerhaeuser and Keno and stops were made at Frei's store, 12 noon; Lien's store, 1 p. m.; Junction Service Station, 2 p. m.; Log Cabin, 2:30 p. m., and Keno, 4 p. m.

Thirty-four new applications were issued and used, in addition to the applications of last year which are still valid, on Friday, June 15 at Wocus, 10:30 a. m.; Shady Pine, 11 a. m.; Algoma school, 11:30 a. m.; Modoc Point, 12:30 p. m.; Ft. Klamath, 2 p. m., and Klamath Agency, 3 p. m. The same schedules will be followed this week and every two weeks thereafter.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 21 (AP)—"I haven't been out 15 minutes when I realized I'd made a mistake," Adelbert Budshun, 22, told Warden John E. Harris of the Utah prison, when he phoned from Ogden, Utah, after his escape Monday.

Budshun volunteered to return to prison by himself to save guards a trip. At 4 a. m. he appeared at the prison gates.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21 (AP)—"Two dollars," a pretty blonde said when some coolie hats were placed on the block by the post-office auctioneer who was disposing of a large accumulation of undeliverable goods.

"Three dollars," said a man behind her. The blonde bid again.

"Five dollars," said the man, and the auctioneer said "sold."

"You . . .," rasped the blonde as she arose, brought her tightly rolled auction catalogue down on the man's head and stalked out.

GASOLINE UP FOR SERVICE MEN'S USES

Additional gasoline rations may now be obtained by servicemen having furloughs of more than 30 days, E. W. Eggen, OPA mileage rationing representative, announced today.

"Furlough gasoline will still be issued at the rate of a gallon a day," Eggen explained, "but the 30-gallon limit is being removed for the benefit of released American prisoners of war who get leave or temporary duty assignments for 60 days in this country, and for those members of our armed forces who return from overseas and get more than 30 days' leave."

"Servicemen applying for furlough gasoline rations should follow these three easy rules:

1. Apply at any local war price and rationing board.
2. Bring along the mileage rationing record for the car to be used.
3. Be ready to show furlough papers.

Servicemen on terminal leave before discharge are eligible for furlough gasoline rations at the rate of a gallon a day until the date of discharge, but the maximum of 30 gallons still applies in these cases, Eggen explained. A discharged serviceman, who does not have an "A" card for his car, is, of course, eligible for this book, just as civilians are.

Further, if a veteran is looking for work and is referred by one of the appropriate government employment agencies to a specific job, he may get gasoline rations up to 400 miles a month for this purpose. A veteran who gets a job in another part of the country and who changes his residence will be issued sufficient rations to move his car and family. Like any other civilian, he may then get gasoline for occupational driving.

Another increase announced by OPA today, provides preferred gasoline rations for wholesale lumber buyers, lumber inspectors and lumber production engineers, for travel that the war production board certifies is necessary for the production and procurement of lumber for essential needs.

The central procuring agency for the army and navy and WPB requested this increase in rations because lumber is one of the most critical materials for war needs, Eggen said.

A third change raises the gasoline ration ceiling for use in passenger cars and motorcycles registered in Canada for non-occupational driving in the United States. This is done to match an increase recently granted by Canada to United States motorists visiting in that country.

Morse Proposes War Bond Exemptions

WASHINGTON, June 21 (AP)—Sen. Morse (R-Ore.) proposed legislation to exempt war savings bonds (up to $10,000 worth) from execution, levy, attachment, garnishee or other legal process.

And Delegate Farrington of Hawaii introduced legislation to increase the number of army and navy academy students from Hawaii and Alaska.

Under the bill the territories would be allowed 15 midshipmen and 12 cadets yearly. At present the number is five and four, respectively.

SPONSORS FAIL TO CALL REFERENDUM

SALEM, June 21 (AP)—Sponsors of the referendum against the bitterly-contested 1945 act creating the office of election registrar for Multnomah county failed by 217 to obtain the 442 signatures of registered voters, the state department said today.

The bill now is law. The referendum was sponsored by the Multnomah county democratic central committee, which charged that the overwhelming republican legislature passed the law for the sole purpose of stripping Al Brown, newly elected democratic county clerk, of his election powers. The registrar would be appointed by the county commissioners, who are republicans.

The authors of the bill said it is an election reform which should have been accomplished long ago.

RED CROSS NEEDS GARMENT WORKERS

With the constant arrival of casualties from the South Pacific theater of war, the American Red Cross has received an urgent appeal for an increase of hospital garments for the returning men. Needed particularly at this time are bathrobes, pajamas and shirts. Local Red Cross headquarters announced that several workers had such items at their homes for completion, and it is hoped that these women will finish them and bring them in as soon as possible.

A request has also been received for 500 ditty bags and 500 housewives or sewing kits, and it was reported that the quota of 500 wash cloths is short by 200. It was suggested that with the shortage of necessary material, workers might donate a cloth, or make one from an old towel or bedspread. The size of the wash cloth must be ten by ten when finished.

With the arrival of material at Red Cross headquarters, there is more than ever a need for additional volunteer workers. Any women who are able to donate some time to this cause are urged to help. It is hoped that a quota of apron bags will be ready for shipment soon, so all have been called upon to help get them on their way.

Expansion Of Coast Resorts Necessary

PORTLAND, June 21 (AP)—Oregon coast resorts must expand accommodations to compete for post-war tourist business, the Oregon Coast Highway association has warned beach hotel and cabin-court owners.

Rooms and cabins are jammed for the entire season by Oregon residents and out-of-state travelers invited here after the war have a right to expect to find quarters, the association said.
