The number of farms in Wasco county, as shown by the preliminary count of returns of the 1945 census of agriculture was 852, as compared with 1007 in 1940, and 1188 in 1935. This was announced today by R. L. Ackerman, supervisor for the 1945 farm census in the third Oregon census district with headquarters at Klamath Falls.

The total land in farms in Wasco county, according to preliminary 1945 census count was 885,310 acres, as compared with 875,848 acres in 1940, and 819,286 acres in 1935. Average size of farms shown in the preliminary 1945 census count for Wasco county was 1039 acres, as compared with 870 acres in 1940, and 690 acres in 1935.

In announcing the 1945 census totals of farms and land in farms in Wasco county, Supervisor Ackerman pointed out that the figures are preliminary and subject to correction. Final tabulations of Wasco county farm census returns will be made by the bureau of the census and announced from Washington when completed, he said.

Secret Airline Service Operated Out Of Sweden

their every move was noted by Nazi agents.

The crewmen changed uniforms for civilian clothing before leaving their planes, and carried passports and civilian flying licenses, but it was difficult to keep their identities from the Germans, to whom they became known as "strals" American civilians. Time and again their rooms were ransacked by Gestapo agents seeking information about their routes and schedules.

Passengers Varied

Among the passengers were hundreds of interned American airmen, Norwegian soldiers, diplomats, international nationalists, and high officials of many governments, including Norwegian, French, Dutch and Russian. On one occasion the personnel of the Norwegian government in exile was flown from London to Sweden.

Gen. Hoag disclosed that one of the most daring operations was the evacuation of some 2000 trained Norwegian soldiers across German-occupied Norway to Britain, just prior to the invasion of France. The Swedish government, after negotiations, had approved the release of the Norwegians, but just about the time the first flight was scheduled, it was discovered the Germans had learned of the plan and had started counter-measures.

Fall to Get Plans

The Germans alerted at least 250 Luftwaffe night fighters at fields in southern Norway, and had all suspected routes bristling with anti-aircraft and coastal defense guns. But they failed to shoot down a single plane during the operation, which extended over a period of several weeks.

Much credit for this remarkable record in avoiding enemy interception, Hoag said, went to keen counter-intelligence work. So much was known of the whereabouts of German batteries and fighter bases that ATC planes—big Liberators and C-47 Dakotas—successfully dodged all of them. Only one plane was lost between March, 1944 and January 1, 1945.

House Defeats OPA Limitation

WASHINGTON, June 22 (AP)—The house today defeated a republican-sponsored effort to hold OPA's new lease on life to six months instead of one year. The vote was 177 to 126.

The vote—leaving intact that section of a pending OPA renewal resolution calling for a full year's extension—came after Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) walked into the house well and appealed to the membership not to destroy OPA. Such action, he said, would bring "inflation in which many people won't have anything to eat and wear."

"This is a confusing and destructive amendment," Rayburn declared of the sixth month limitation proposal.

said fall of both the wrecked airframe and the flaming crossroad city of Liuchow were imminent.

Drop 3000 Tons

B-29s packed 3000 tons of explosives in today's precision daylight strike at the Kure naval arsenal and five aircraft factories.

The Kure arsenal, covering 11,000,000 square feet and manufacturing naval equipment ranging from fuses up to 18-inch guns, was the largest remaining unwrecked in Japan. B-29s previously knocked Japan's two best, at Hiro and Osaka.

Pacific fleet headquarters pointed out fighter planes and bombers from Okinawa, 325 miles south of Japan, will be able to support an invasion of either Japan or China.

Japanese remaining on the island were surrendering in droves in response to pleas from loudspeakers on American-Japanese interlopers; being eliminated by infantrymen and marines using flame-throwers and demolitions; blowing themselves up, or drowning themselves in the surf.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz reported "numerous" drownings Thursday and 1700 surrenders, bringing the campaign's total of prisoners to 4000—a record.

We'd better watch these 300 miles of Chinese coastline. Formosa or no Formosa, something might happen there. We need airfield space, and there's a lot of it in these 300 miles. Much of it is almost as close to Japan as Okinawa.

THERE is another significant hint in the news.

Two generals of the army—Marshall and Arnold—appear before the house of representatives to explain the 38 billion dollar army supply bill, whose purpose, they point out, is to speed victory over Japan "by an overwhelming application of force."

In sharp contrast to the past, there is LITTLE SECRECY. Marshall and Arnold left much of their closed-door testimony in the printed record, where it is available to anyone.

Thus they say to the Japs: "Here it is. Take a look at it if you think you can get any consolation out of it."

That spells CONFIDENCE.

Supreme Court Justice Jackson, who heads the American war criminals organization, announces today that the United States plans to prosecute the German war criminals (presumably those over whom we have jurisdiction) in ONE COLLECTIVE trial—which, he says, will start at the earliest possible moment, "just as soon as we have a reasonably complete case."

He HOPES the trials may start before the end of summer. The British foreign office says today that representatives of Britain, U. S., Russia and France will "open discussions" in London next week to draw up a list of major war criminals and settle plans for their trial.

from its present staggering proportions, in view of the billions of board feet required to build new bases for the full-scale Pacific offensives and for the boxing and shipping of munitions, vehicles and supplies being transferred from Europe.

Efforts Speeded

Complaints from congressmen and the lumber trade about the volume of U. S. lumber being sent to repair and rebuild devastated Europe—an amount put by WPB at less than 1 per cent of American supplies—have spurred efforts to see what Europe can do about meeting its own needs.

A WPB mission headed by J. Phillip Boyd, lumber division director, now is conferring in London and on the continent to see what can be supplied by French, German and Scandinavian mills.

This mission probably will result in some kind of internal management of lumber supplies, similar to that exercised over leather and some other materials by the combined (British-Canadian-American) raw materials board.

Confiscation Of Property Ordered

PRAGUE, June 22 (AP)—President Beneš today ordered the confiscation of all farms and corporations in Czechoslovakia belonging to Germans, Hungarians and "traitors and Nazi collaborators of any nationality."

The decree, intended as the first step in eliminating influences which led to betrayal of the Czechoslovak nation in 1938, was countersigned by all members of the government. It was issued by the minister of agriculture, Julius Dures.

It was estimated that 270,000 small farms owned by Germans, largely in the Sudeten area, would be embraced in the confiscation procedure and that, including the families of owners, 1,500,000 of the country's population would be involved.

The mail rate was $5 a half ounce at the beginning of the Pony Express service.
