The Paris announcement indicated that the four powers which will take part in the occupation had now reached a final agreement on occupational zones.

Moscow previously disclosed that the red army would take over the section east of a line roughly between Luebeck bay and the western Thuringian border. The British position in northwest Germany and the American in the southwest de-

The case was continued until that date last Monday by Judge Vandenberg because of lack of jurors. Both Defense Attorney George Roberts of Medford and District Attorney Clarence A. Judge Vandenberg ordered 21 veniremen drawn to fill the regular panel of 24 and an additional 15 prospective jurors to be drawn by special venire.

Humble said this morning that the district attorney's office is ready to prosecute the case.

HOUSE REVERSES OPA CLAUSE STAND

culture products can become operative unless approved in writing by the secretary of agriculture within 90 days of its issuance.

The vote was 154 to 146.

"This not only gives the secretary of agriculture veto powers over the office of economic stabilization," Rep. Monroney (D-Okl.) protested, "it gives him veto powers over executive orders of the president of the United States."

Moving to overcome meat shortages, the house voted overwhelmingly today to permit unlimited local slaughtering when done under sanitary conditions.

The vote was on an amendment to OPA extension legislation offered by Rep. Patman (D-Tex.) and supported by Rep. Anderson (D-N.M.), who becomes agriculture secretary July 1. The amendment would prohibit imposition of quotas or slaughtering plants which the agriculture secretary certified as operating cleanly.

Rice Paddy Set Up Near Palace

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23 (AP)—An imperial rice paddy has been started in Emperor Hirohito's palace grounds, radio Tokyo announced today.

His majesty, said the FCC-monitored broadcast, "was graciously pleased to make rice plantings within the compounds of the imperial palace."

Premier Kantaro Suzuki, some weeks ago, was graciously pleased also to spade up the spacious lawns of the official Tokyo residence—(with B-29s no doubt helping)—for vegetable gardens.

Britain To Back Collective Trial

LONDON, June 23 (AP)—A responsible British source said today that Britain would accept the United States plan to hold a collective trial of Germany's arch war criminals and their terror-atrocity organizations before a high military tribunal.

The attitude of France and Russia remained undetermined, but it was generally believed here that they too would agree to the plan outlined yesterday in a press conference by Supreme Court Justice Robert Jackson, chief United States prosecutor of war criminal cases.

near the east coast in the area recently evacuated by the Japanese.

Domel insists that we are preparing to land in China, timing the landing with a counter-offensive that it says the Chinese are now getting ready to spring.

THE Domel broadcast adds that in this grave emergency confronting the homeland Hirohito may bypass the cabinet and assume personal command. (It didn't seem to work so well when Hirohito did that from time to time in Germany.)

One wonders whether he will ride his famous white horse when he assumes the command—which recalls Admiral Halsey's crack that "I hope nothing happens to that white horse; I want to ride him up the streets of Tokyo myself."

IT looks today like the Polish ruckus might be in the process of settlement. Poland's rival factions (there are three—the Russian-sponsored Warsaw government, the London government-in-exile and apparently a looser organization of democratic leaders inside Poland) are said to have agreed to the personnel of the new government, which appears to contain elements from all of the factions, including the London Poles. There is tolerable talk that now is the time for Poles to come back to Poland and go to work.

It would help if the Polish sore spot could be healed.

He warned the allies against returning to the "complacency and selfishness of prewar days or to the individual nationalisms of that time."
