

Couple Marry At Merrill Church

MERRILL—In an impressive formal ceremony in St. Augustine's church on Sunday morning, June 17, Mrs. Ethel Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Burke of Merrill, walked down the aisle on the arm of her father to become the bride of PFC Patrick William Kossman, United States army, of Oakbridge, N. J.

The bride, gowned in a tip-toe length white brocaded satin made with a tight bodice, long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline, carried a white prayer book with two gardenias and white satin ribbons tipped with gypsophylla. Her finger-tip veil of illusion net was caught about her head with a halo of orange blossoms, and she wore a single strand of pearls.

Installation

Women of the Moose met in regular session on Tuesday, June 19, in the Moose hall, with Frances Waits, senior regent, presiding. Lodge was opened in regular form, and following the beginning ceremonies, the Mooseheart chairman presented her chapter night program. One new member, Ruth Oakley, was admitted into the circle. Fannie May Thompson, with 16 new members to her credit since January 1, was presented with the award for the highest score in the membership drive, and Mildred Wilkinson, credited with six members, received the second award.

The new officers were then installed, with Graduate Regent Mildred Wilkinson serving as installing regent. Sadie Rank, chaplain, Ovedia Sterland, pianist, and Ruby Bell, guide. The installing officers wore corsages which had been presented to them by the chapter.

The new officers are Ninon Nyback, senior regent; Frances Waits, graduate regent; Agnes Vasaak, junior regent; Lucille Heifer, chaplain; Fannie May Thompson, recorder; Laura Baldwin, treasurer; Edna Jensen, guide; Zella Blankenship, assistant guide; Rose Perkins, sentinels; Ora Sweet, Argus; Stella Persell, pianist. All were presented corsages before the altar as they took their chairs.

Frances Waits, senior regent, presented gifts to her co-workers who had helped her throughout the year, and Fannie May Thompson received a gift as the only officer who did not miss a meeting during the entire year. Mildred Wilkinson and Frances Waits also received gifts from the chapter, and the retiring officers were given corsages.

Following the closing ceremonies, lodge adjourned and refreshments were served to all present.

Hat Contest

An interesting meeting of the auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen was held in the KC hall on the evening of Thursday, June 14, with Mrs. Henry Redmon, president, in charge. Laura Brumble was installed into the lodge and the refreshments, served by Mrs. Fred Genereux, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Carl Henry and Mrs. Merrill Klous, included a beautifully decorated cake in honor of the lodge's eighth anniversary.

Amusing hats, entered in the contest by their creators, were worn at the tables. The three judges, Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Louis Craver and Irene Watkins, found it hard to decide upon the most outstanding, but the award was finally given to Mrs. Merrill Klous. Her millinery confection was composed of two Easter baskets, adorned with colorful ribbons and looked not only in the mode, but far in advance.

Sew

Several Catholic Daughters met on Wednesday, June 20, at the home of Mrs. Mike Brunner of 2214 Reclamation for Red Cross sewing, and in the course of the afternoon they completed three lap robes. Mrs. Dick Miller Sr., Mrs. Stanley Pleser, Mrs. Ralph LaLonde and Mrs. W. G. Ely were those who attended.

Circles Meet

Three of the four circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church met on Thursday, June 14. Circle 4 had postponed its meeting until Wednesday, June 20. Mrs. William Withrow of 224 Jefferson served dessert to circle one, Mrs. E. W. Moccabee was in charge of the business meeting and Mrs. Cowman led the devotions. Study of "The Indian in American Life" was conducted by Mrs. Calvin Hunt. This circle will serve tea at the next general meeting, and circles one and two are invited to hold a potluck picnic in July at the home of Mrs. Earl Redman of 813 Front.

The lawn at the home of Mrs. Fred Cofer of 1017 High was chosen for a potluck picnic for circle two with 16 members and four children present. Mrs. George Casper conducted the devotions, taking as her theme "Our Flag" and Mrs. Steven Moss gave a reading as a tribute to the flag. Mrs. Victor Phillips was in charge of the study hour, continuing the review of "The American Indian."

Mrs. F. C. Jennings of 339 Alameda served dessert to circle three, and she was assisted by Mrs. D. W. Wideman. Mrs. S. H. Snell, chairman, was in charge of the short business meeting. Mrs. Bruce Binkley led the devotions and Mrs. Paul Edwards continued with the study of "The American Indian," a book written by several different authors, each especially familiar with his particular subject. A guest of the afternoon was Mrs. Earl Redman, president of the general women's organization of the First Methodist church. No place was decided upon for the July meeting.

Circle four held its meeting on Wednesday, June 20, at the home of Elizabeth Norris in the Henley district, and enjoyed a luncheon served by the hostess at one o'clock. Sixteen members and one guest, Mrs. L. N. Barrett, were present. Mrs. W. A. Carlton and Mrs. L. J. Brink had charge of the devotions and Mrs. Carlton conducted the business meeting, while the study hour was led by Mrs. W. Westfall. A potluck picnic at the home of Mrs. C. A. Kelley on Homedale is planned for the July meeting.

Wed Saturday

TULELAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Earl McFall this week announced the marriage of their daughter, Donna, to John Hubbard, MM 3/c, United States navy. The wedding was an event of Saturday, June 16, at Reno, Nev., and the young couple returned to the McFall home in the middle of the week for a brief visit. The groom is a former resident of Centralia, Wash., and he and his wife plan to visit his parents there before reporting back for further orders. He has been serving on the aircraft carrier, USS Commencement Day.

For her wedding, the bride wore a beige ensemble with a white hat and brown accessories. She is a graduate of the Tulelake high school, and for two years, has been a student at Chico State Teachers college where a pre-nuptial shower was arranged in her honor before she left. She is a member of Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority.

The new Mrs. Hubbard will remain in Seattle to be near her husband until he receives overseas orders.
