

Holiday Plans Made For Fourth Of July

Plans are now in the making for the Fourth of July holidays, with parties and jaunts to summer homes at Lake o' the Woods competing with the annual four-day rodeo at the county fairgrounds on July 1, 2, 3 and 4. This traditionally western event promises to be a "humdinger" this year, with an added attractive feature in the form of two famous movie stars—Fred MacMurray and Anne Baxter. The two Hollywoodites will be here for the four days of festivities in connection with the filming of a western technicolor production, "Smoky," by Twentieth Century Fox.

However, the seemingly sure-fire advent of warm and sunny weather has encouraged a great many of the lake home-owners to take to the woods for the holidays. Al and Bud Macarney are planning to spend a few days at their new summer home at Lake o' the Woods, and will take David and Carol with them.

The lake cabin of Dr. and Mrs. George Merryman Sr. will be full to overflowing during the Fourth, for with them will be Dr. and Mrs. John Merryman and little Susan, Mrs. John Merryman's sister, Shirley Jones, who is her houseguest from Sprague, Wash. Mrs. Edward Pike and Sat. and Mrs. William K. Jenkins, Mrs. Jenkins and Pam arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins on Thursday morning and Sgt. Jenkins is expected in a few days. While mother and daddy are at the lake, Pam will stay with her grandparents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers and family will spend the holidays both at Pacific Terrace home and at their summer home at the lake. Spending this time together will be Mrs. Scott Warren and daughters, Jane and Nancy, Mrs. Jane Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ravizza and children, Susan, Michael and Sally, and Don Rogers.

Only one of the Rogers children will not be home to celebrate—Capt. James Rogers is now on Okinawa with the 11th marine, 1st division. He wrote his parents that while in Pearl Harbor, he saw Adra Goeller who is station there with the Waves, and later visited with Capt. Bob Anet, a former Sigma Nu fraternity brother at OSC, and Capt. "Fiz" Kirkpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Weaver and daughter, Constance Anne, are arriving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Warren on Okinawa street on Monday morning. Clark and Nan will return to San Francisco on Wednesday evening of the same week, but little Constance will remain with her grandparents for an indefinite time. Reason: Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Jr. are to spend their vacation house-hunting!

Helen Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, and Phyllis Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Foster, are taking special courses at summer school at Stanford university at Palo Alto, Calif. Before joining Phil at Stanford, Helen spent a brief time at the home of a friend on Balboa island.

Mrs. B. E. Nyden arrived in Klamath Falls from Portland on Tuesday evening to spend an indefinite time with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Macarney Jr. on Pacific Terrace.

Graduating cum laude with honors in English at the University of Oregon at Eugene was Rosemary Sloan Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sloan. Rosemary is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary.

Della McGrath of Oakland, Calif., is in Klamath Falls visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Linman of Rose street, and other relatives. A former employe of The Herald and News, she was accompanied from Oakland by her eight-year-old nephew, and they plan to remain for two weeks.

Invitations are being received for the coming marriage of Mary Awdry Radcliffe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe of 1420 Pacific Terrace, to Robert Eugene Stutz of Madison, Wis. The wedding is to take place at the Good Samaritan Episcopal church at Corvallis on Sunday evening at 8:15. Mr. and Mrs. Radcliffe and Helen plan to leave for Corvallis on Saturday.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH in Klamath Falls was the scene of a lovely wedding ceremony on Sunday, June 3, when Margie Marine Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Brown of Tulelake, became the bride of Cpl. Sylvester O. Francisco, United States marine corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Francisco of Tulsa, Okla. The candlelight ceremony was read at 3:30 in the afternoon, and a reception followed at the home of the bride's parental grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Brown of Klamath Falls.

Hayride Party

A group from the Teen-Age club enjoyed a no-host hayride and wiener roast Thursday evening, leaving the Sunset Riding stables about 7:30, and trekking into the hills east of the city.

Exchange Vows

The O. D. Reeder ranch home was a scene of a lovely ceremony on Saturday evening, June 23, at 7 o'clock when Marie Mahney became the bride of Sgt. Dayton Allen. Vows were exchanged before the fireplace of the Reeder home, and decorations included arrangements of roses and summer flowers. County Judge U. E. Reeder performed the ceremony for the young couple.

For her wedding, the bride chose a street-length dress of white jersey and carried a bouquet of red roses, with a circle of similar roses and a brief veil for her hair.

Dorothea Geer was maid of honor, and Leona Reeder was the bridesmaid. They also wore street length dresses and corsages of pink and white baby carnations were pinned to their shoulders. Ernie Geer stood as best man for the groom.

A reception was held for the guests immediately following the ceremony. The lace-covered table held a three-tiered wedding cake trimmed with silver and pink and white doves. Tall white tapers and bouquets of rosebuds centered the attractive table. Those present for a buffet dinner which followed included Judge and Mrs. U. E. Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Geer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Babe Reeder and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marshal McClay and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sasteadt, Mrs. Fred Gray, Ingeborg Wilkerson, Ed Tate and Wallace Wallen.

Sgt. Allen has been stationed at Santa Ana, Calif., and he and his wife are making their home at 1933 Arthur for the present time.

New Prexy

A combination installation and initiation meeting of the Venture club was held at the Pelican cafe on Tuesday evening, June 26. The incoming president of this club is Mary Trulove, and other officers who will serve with her during the ensuing term are Phyllis Smith, vice president; Betty Champagne, secretary, and Mary Bishop, treasurer.

New members initiated at this time were Agnes Moyle, Betty Lee Smith, Shirley Boch and Betty Steinman.

SOCIETY

By Joan Campbell

MARY AND MADELINE MAHONEY, attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Mahoney of Klamath Falls, are to be featured as a singing team with Ted Fio Rito's famous dance orchestra. Madeline signed a contract with the well-known orchestra leader when he appeared in this city for a one-night engagement in February, and Mary recently joined the troupe. All of the Mahoney family enjoyed a family reunion on June 10, and the two sisters left the following week for Evansville, Ind., where they will join the orchestra.

INSTALLED AS HONORED QUEEN of Job's Daughters in a ceremony which took place at the Masonic temple on Thursday, June 7, was Sharon Willits, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Crover. Patricia Benoit, past honored queen, conducted the ceremony, assisted by Barbara Mast, Joy Kent, Virginia Benoit, Madelon Adler, Barbara Kavern and Bette Rea Martin.

BPW Members To Enjoy Festival

Business and Professional Women club members are going in for something different Monday evening, July 2, when they are invited to attend an old-fashioned strawberry festival in the garden of Isabelle Brixner's home on Lakeshore drive.

Any time between 6 and 6:30 will be the meeting hour, and come dressed picnic style. The outdoor supper will be prepared by a special committee, so a small charge will be made, but please bring cups, forks and spoons. Assisting Mrs. Brixner will be Stella Bowne, Effie Garcelon, Hattie Evans, Hazel Morrison, Ethel Morrison, Gertrude Tolle, Dorothy Ackerman, Ruth Berry and Katherine Breit.

The evening's program is being arranged by Dorothy Ackerman, Katherine Breit and Ethel Morrison, and there will be games typical of one of these old-time festivals. Hazel Morrison, the new president, has requested a short meeting of the executive board during the evening.

BPW members assisted with activities and serving at the USO last Sunday, June 24, with the following divided into four shifts: Lee Robinson, general chairman, Isabelle Brixner, Marietta Conklin, Agnes Geddes, Dena Backes, Ruth Hale, Martha Keller, Betty Jones, Kay Kaylor, Loraine Quillan, Della Stark, Grace Kintgen, Myrtle Helms, Jewel Cantrell, Ellen Upp, Edna Russell, Mayme Johnson, Josephine Penrod, Martha McCollum, Katherine Breit, Muriel Garish and Willie Uhlig. Numerous pies and cakes were donated by other members of the club.

Mrs. Hudson Barrow and children, Marilyn and Richard of San Marlin, Calif., are here visiting her sister and father, Mrs. Howard Jackson and Charles F. DeLap. They are former residents of Klamath Falls, moving to California several years ago.

Lions And Lioness' Install New Officers

The Willard hotel was the scene of an installation and dinner-dance for the members of the Lions and Lioness clubs on Tuesday, June 26. Decorations for the affair included arrangements of salmon gladioli and white larkspur with tall white tapers, and 125 Lions and their wives and guests were on hand for the occasion.

June Wedding

A marriage of interest to residents of Malin was solemnized at Las Vegas, Nev., on Sunday evening, June 17, when Mari-nella Middleton of Houston, Tex., became the bride of Cpl. Harry Hundley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hundley of Malin. The ceremony was performed in the pastorate of the First Baptist church.

Cpl. Hundley is a graduate of the Malin high school, and attended Oregon State college and the University of Oregon. He was enlisted in the army air corps in August, 1943, and met his bride at Pine Bluff, Ark., when he was stationed at Grider field near that city.

Wed In France

Announcements are to be received concerning the marriage of Capt. Robert Veatch, United States army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Veatch of 1956 Earle street, and Lt. Martha Moore, United States army nurse corps, of Indianapolis, Ind. The ceremony was read at Metz, France on Saturday, June 9, and following the wedding, a reception was held for 200 guests.

The young couple was married first by the mayor of Metz, as French law requires that they be married by French authorities, and were then married by the post chaplain in the hospital chapel.

Capt. Veatch is attached to the 308th troop carrier squadron, and is now in the army of occupation in the European theater of operations.

Visiting at the home of his parents at Pacific Terrace is Dr. Calvin L. Hunt, son of Dr. and Mrs. Warren Hunt. He arrived here on Monday evening from Madison, Wis., where he has been surgical resident at the State of Wisconsin General hospital. Dr. Hunt plans to remain here for the week, after which he will report to Carlisle Barracks, Pa.

Denver Wedding

Word has been received here of the marriage of Jeromenina Munsch of Denver, Colo., to Malvern D. Alcorn of Klamath Falls, in a ceremony which took place at the Fitzsimmons post chapel at Denver on Saturday, June 9.

Mr. Alcorn was honorably discharged recently from the army air corps, in which he held the rank of staff sergeant. He and Miss Munsch became acquainted when he was stationed in Denver. He is the son of Mrs. A. T. Holman of Klamath Falls, and is a graduate of the Bly high school.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Belker of the Colorado city.

Cpl. Hogan of Fitzsimmons, an army chaplain, performed the ceremony. Marie Munsch of Denver was the maid of honor, and Paul Zayach of Dayton, Ohio, stood as best man for the groom. Mr. Belker gave his daughter in marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Alcorn will remain in Colorado through July, returning to Klamath Falls in August.

Service Wives

The Service Wives' club met in the new women's lounge of the USO on Eleventh and Walnut on Thursday, June 21, at 8 p. m. Plans for publicity and future programs were discussed. The members are interested in serving and decorating the new building.

Plans for the recent meeting on Thursday, June 28, were discussed, and it was decided to have a game night. This group is composed of both local women and service wives from many various states whose husbands are stationed at one of the local military installations at the present time.

All service wives are urged to remember that they are welcome to attend all USO activities, and that their husbands will find much to interest them at the new club. Children, too, will receive a "royal welcome." It was decided to have a kiddies' party within the near future.

The club meets on Mondays at 1:30 p. m. and on Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock.

Lucille Montgomery and daughter Terry, arrived on Tuesday of this week from southern California for a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lawrence K. Williams. Mrs. Williams plans to return to Mills college in Oakland, Calif., for special study, and Mrs. Montgomery will visit her family here for a few weeks before returning to her home.

The Willard hotel was the scene of an installation and dinner-dance for the members of the Lions and Lioness clubs on Tuesday, June 26. Decorations for the affair included arrangements of salmon gladioli and white larkspur with tall white tapers, and 125 Lions and their wives and guests were on hand for the occasion.

During the evening the retiring president, Paul Skeen, turned the gavel over to Dr. C. J. Cox, who acted as emcee for the program. Saxophone solos were played by "Indian Love Call" and "One Alone" accompanied by Mrs. Shepherd at the piano.

Thirty-five members received pins for 100 per cent attendance during the year from Past President Walter Wiesendanger, and it was announced that club attendance for an 11-month period reached an average of 89.4 per cent.

Lion club officers who were installed at this time included Ed Robinson, president; Paul Angstead, vice president; Everett Vanderpool, secretary-treasurer; Paul Lee, Lion tamer; Steve Rose, tail twister, and directors include John Sandmeyer, James Patterson, Elton Disher and Jack Bishop.

Mrs. A. P. Heup, retiring president of the Lioness club, made a report for her organization, and Mrs. Vern Moore, past president, installed the new officers, including Mrs. Fred Heilbronner, president; Mrs. Paul Angstead, vice president; Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Everett Vanderpool, liaison officer. Directors for the year are Mrs. Elton Disher and Mrs. Marvin Lucas.

Paul Skeen, retiring president, presented watches to Mrs. Myrie Adams and Vern Moore for the outstanding work they did in the 6th War Loan drive and the United Nations clothing drive.

Cocktails were served at 7 o'clock, with dinner and dancing following at 8 p. m.

Ladies of the First Methodist church who served at the USO center during June were Mrs. Maurice Leslie, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. E. W. Mocabee, Mrs. William Withrow, Mrs. K. G. Cummings, Mrs. Windham, Mrs. Earl Redman, Mrs. Westfall, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. I. W. White, Irene Christensen, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. John Blach, Mrs. William Beck, Effie Redkey, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. L. A. Brannan, Mrs. Barthman, Mrs. L. W. Johns, Mrs. W. A. Carleton. During the month homemade cakes were given by Mrs. Westfall, Mrs. C. G. Andrus, Mrs. L. J. Brink, Mrs. W. A. Carleton, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. Steven Moss, Mrs. D. A. Kenyon and Mrs. Barthman.

Military Wedding Held At Merrill

MERRILL—At a military wedding in the Merrill Presbyterian church Thursday night, June 28, Velma Jean Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bowman, became the bride of Cpl. William M. McClannahan, U. S. army, stationed at Camp Tulelake. The groom is formerly of Tacoma.

The single ring service was read at 7 o'clock by Dr. David J. Ferguson in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young couple. The vows were taken before an altar banked with pink and white carnations and tall white tapers in candle-labaras.

Preceding the ceremony, Esther Morton, Malin, sang "O Promise Me" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life." The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Lawrence Geraghty.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a tiptoe length gown of slipper satin with half train, made with a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil of silk net was caught about her head with a halo of seed pearls and she wore a single strand of pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and gardenias.

Mrs. Eugene Beasley, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. Her gown was of pink silk net over taffeta and her flowers were pink and white sweet peas.

Sgt. Walter Rathmacher was best man, and the ushers were Cpls. Barrow and Fleck, U. S. army.

Following the ceremony, the young couple received at a reception held in the annex of the church.

The refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake with pink and white trim which the bride and groom cut. The table was graced with a handmade lace cloth and tall tapers complemented the center motif. Pouring were Minnie Stukel and Mrs. Walter Rathmacher.

The bride, a graduate of the Merrill high school, attended St. Helen's hall, Portland and since completing her studies there has been bookkeeper for the Merrill branch, First National Bank of Portland.

The groom saw several months service overseas in the Pacific where he was wounded in action.

Mr. and Mrs. McClannahan will spend several days with the groom's relatives in Tacoma before returning to Merrill to make their home for the present.

For traveling, Mrs. McClannahan wore a green and white dressmaker suit with white accessories, and gardenias at her shoulder.
