

RECREATION PROGRAM OPEN TO CHILDREN

As a means of teaching sportsmanship and fair play the recreation program being conducted in this city is offered to children from the first grade through high school.

Besides the recreation programs which include swimming instruction, manual training and art work, and a supervised play program, plans are being made to offer a week of outing to those children who have not had the opportunity to attend other summer camps.

The outing will be held at the Salvation Army camp located on Lake o' the Woods. Because of the curtailment of facilities, participants will be limited to the first hundred boys and the first hundred girls that register. From the high school, August 12, the boys will leave for their week at the camp, while the week for the girls will begin August 19. A registration fee of 50 cents will be charged when the children register at the office of the city judge in the city hall. The balance of $9.50 will be paid one week before camp. The only requirement is that children bring adequate bedding and personal effects. Swimming, boating, fishing, hiking, nature study, marksmanship, horseback riding, will be some of the activities offered at the camp. E. E. Hambrick, city recreation officer, will be in charge and the camp will be under supervision at all times. Camp mothers have already been obtained.

According to Hambrick there has been a very good attendance at manual training program held at the high school where boys and girls are using the equipment and are learning how to handle tools, plans and blueprints. A display of the manufactured articles will be shown after the program ends August 10.

Softball, prison ball, table tennis, tumbling, and general group games are offered in Mills gymnasium in carrying out a play program. Although there are no definite classes, approximately 125 children make use of the playground daily.

The swimming program is open to all children provided they have had at least one year of school. One hour classes are held on alternate days from 9 to 12 and 1 through 4. Instructors are Joe Peak and Lillian Redkey. The 700 children in the program are taught the fundamentals of swimming and self preservation in water. When asked about adult use of the pool, Hambrick stated that it has been eliminated because of the difficulty in securing satisfactory help and responsible lifeguards although they still hope to open it to the public Saturdays and Sundays.

Longshoremen Lack Prevents Shipping

PORTLAND, Ore., June 30 (AP)—Hundreds of tons of export cargo are moving through east coast ports instead of Portland because of a longshoremen shortage here, the chief of the U. S. treasury department's procurement division said last night.

Tom Lafollette, Seattle, said the cargo should rightfully be routed through Portland. "And it would . . . if there were enough men here to handle it," he declared.

Col. Robert L. Allen Jr., commander at the port of embarkation here, confirmed Lafollette's statement.

"You have sufficient docks and you are getting plenty of ships, but you are not furnishing the men to load them," he told the Propeller club.

FREIGHT, PASSENGER TRAINS COLLIDE

JACKSON, Mich., June 30 (AP)—A New York Central freight train struck a passenger train in the depot at Eaton Rapids, 20 miles northwest of here, at 3:30 a. m. (EWT) today, killing the freight engineer and brakeman.

Twenty-six persons aboard the passenger train, which state police said was standing in the depot, were injured and taken to hospitals by a corps of ambulances which sped here from several communities. None was reported critically hurt.

Found dead in the wreckage were David Greer of Grand Rapids, the freight engineer, and his brakeman, R. O. Rhoades, also of Grand Rapids. Fireman L. J. Hotchkiss leaped to safety.

Among the injured was P. J. Lemiere, Jackson, conductor of the passenger train, who suffered a broken right clavicle.

Pending inquiry, railroad officials made no report on the cause of the wreck.

Railroad officials said the passenger train, en route from Jackson to Grand Rapids, left Jackson a few minutes late on its run. State police and rescue squads from the railroad company were aiding at the accident scene.

DELEGATES TOUR OVER NORTHWEST

PORTLAND, Ore., June 30 (AP)—About 250 delegates from San Francisco were en route over the Great Northern railroad to Montana today, impressed by Oregon's huge roses, rugged mountains, and the mammoth Bonneville dam.

Another party of more than 300 was scheduled to arrive today.

Sir Rama Swami Mudaliar, head of the Indian delegation, and one of the conferees taken on a sight seeing tour of Portland yesterday afternoon declared himself awed by the "bigness of America."

"You have such big ideas," he exclaimed. "Everything is planned on such a big scale, and you people are always looking ahead to bigger things!"

Other conferees indicated their nations are looking to the United States for help in reconstruction and achieving a firm status in the postwar world.

"We are counting on you Americans who liberated us from the Nazi yoke and gave us a new lease on life to help us to continue to live," declared Joseph Paul-Boncour, former French premier. ## E BOND GOAL STILL SHORT AS DRIVE ENDS

By MAX HALL
WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—The record-breaking 7th War Loan drive officially ends today with all goals reached except the E bond quota.

One week remains to count the last-minute rush of bond sales. The huge job must be completed by July 7. Montana was the only state already over the top, with 105 per cent of its E bond quota. Mississippi had 95 per cent and Nebraska 91.

Nationally, E bond sales yesterday had reached $3,126,000,000, or 78 per cent of the 4-billion dollar quota.

Total sales were $21,200,000,000, a new record and still going up. This was made up of $7,080,000,000 sales to individuals and $15,150,000,000 sales to corporations. The individual figure, which includes E bonds, passed the $7,000,000,000 quota yesterday.

Some other high-ranking states and their E bond progress: Wyoming 90 per cent of quota; North Dakota 89; Alabama and New Mexico 86; South Dakota 85; Kansas 84; Oklahoma and Virginia 81; Arizona, Arkansas, Oregon and Wisconsin 80; Florida, Indiana, Idaho and Utah 79; Missouri, Nevada and Texas 78; Maine and New Hampshire were tied for last place with only 62 per cent of their E bond quotas.

Meantime Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced the Franklin D. Roosevelt "quote" that will be printed on a special $200 bond in the 8th War Loan. It is: "Every single man, woman and child is a partner in the most tremendous undertaking of our American history." Mr. Roosevelt said it in a talk December 9, 1941.

The passage was selected in a contest among Washington newsmen. The winner was Daniel M. Kidney, correspondent for Scripps-Howard newspapers.

Union Men Reaffirm No-Strike Pledge

SEATTLE, June 30 (AP)—The no-strike pledge of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union was reaffirmed yesterday by the union's international executive board, which announced its intention to "cooperate with employers and industrialists who concede the right of American labor to exist."

Presiding at the three-day meeting of the ILWU at San Francisco is Harry Bridges, president. The meeting will be followed by an organization meeting here.

The no-strike resolution added:

"To those who seek to undermine labor and take away its gains, we reaffirm the action of our convention to fight them with all weapons at our command."

CAMERA UNIT HERE TO PICTURE RODEO

Paul E. McPherson arrived in Klamath Falls Thursday night and the rest of the 20th Century Fox unit which will shoot scenes from the Buckaroo Days rodeo for the technicolor production "Smoky" arrived by studio bus Friday afternoon.

The picture, adapted from Will James' book, and starring Fred MacMurray and Anne Baxter, will probably open at local theatres in about six to eight months, McPherson, special technicolor adviser for the group, said.

Robert Bassler is producing the picture under direction of Louis King. The camera unit here is under direction of James Tingling. Matt Rogers is business manager for the group, and Johnny Boyle is cameraman.

The Fox studio unit here consists of 15 men, the same group that shot scenes for Thunder last year. They are staying at the Willard.

From Klamath Falls the group will go to Utah where they will film scenes from the rodeo at Ogden, and in Zion national park and Bryce canyon. After which they will go to the Cheyenne rodeo and then to the Pendleton roundup where 428 Indians will also be photographed. The stars of the picture will be there also.

The studio company here will shoot scenes each day of the Klamath rodeo. They are at the fairgrounds today setting up equipment.

Beauty IS YOUR DUTY

By RITA WHISENANT

JUST saw some local strawberries in the market, which not only made my mouth water, but reminded me immediately of our new Richard Hudnut make-up . . . "Strawberry and Cream." It's as fresh as the strawberry an' cream season and beautifully matches the smart new strawberry accessories. It's also good with pastels and will brighten navy, beige, grey and white and black.

ON the make-up itself . . . the lipstick (which comes in a pink plastic case) is strawberry, of course, and the face powder is a harmonizing cream color. What's more the powder is hypo-allergenic . . . as non-allergic as modern science can make it. It's recognized by medical journals.

THE packages are cute . . . which reminds me of a gift problem it will solve. Drop in to Everbody's for "Strawberry and Cream." $2.00, plus tax.
