Shortage Persists

PERSONS in close touch with the housing situation have been somewhat mystified by the persistent shortage in the face of factors that would indicate a rising availability...

But at the chamber of commerce housing desk, there have been no new listings of vacant houses...

One explanation seems to be that there was such an excess demand for apartments and houses here that what places have been vacated have been immediately filled...

The situation should be improved by the completion in a few weeks of the military and civilian housing projects now under construction...

However, even with the completion of the housing units, there is no prospect of an early over-supply of rental property here...

Oregon Made It—Klamath Made It

IT need hardly be said that Klamath has reason to be mighty proud of what has been accomplished here in the Seventh War Loan...

Oregon as a state, like Klamath county, reached its quota in the campaign. It is interesting that this state's total quota was $110 million...

Col. Van Orden To Speak To Rotarians

Col. George Van Orden, who will soon leave his Klamath Falls post as commanding officer of the Marine Barracks...

A GEM of THOUGHT

A Sailor by the name of Van Richter To the Movie took a cute little fixture, As they came out of the show... was far greater than that in the nation as a whole. Oregon made it, and Klamath made it, and we can be pleased and proud.

News Behind The News

By PAUL MALLON
WASHINGTON, July 10 — Henry Morgenthau's side of his resignation story told how he had become irritated by constantly recurring rumors of his impending departure...

The other side of the story implies that many of Mr. Truman's highest placed associates were worried about Mr. Morgenthau possibly succeeding to the presidency...

Now Messrs. Truman and Byrnes are going to Berlin for the Big Three conference (but not together, as a precaution) Mr. Morgenthau was still clearly next in line...

This situation may not have worried Mr. Truman, but associates working in his interests no doubt were the authors of what Mr. Morgenthau thought to be "irritating rumors."

Considered Expendable

AROUND the top of this administration Mr. Morgenthau had been regarded as a man with good New York banking connections, but expendable...

As a matter of full truth, Mr. Morgenthau was slated to go anyway when his Bretton Woods plan cleared congress and the war loan drive wound up...

Indeed, this column was able to lead off, in newspapers last May 24: "A complete cabinet shakedown is coming. State and treasury will surely be involved in addition to agriculture, justice and labor."

I am therefore inclined to believe both sides of the story, Mr. Morgenthau's and the untold one that Mr. Truman's friends, knowing well the personalities involved, nettled Mr. Morgenthau into making the break...

The equally important resignation of Supreme Court Justice Roberts lacked such thorough explanation. He dodged inquiries. Yet his associates knew he was so completely out of tune with the Black crowd on the court...

Roberts Pleasant

JUSTICE ROBERTS was such a pleasant friendly man he was accustomed to call his associates "Brother." The Black men would naturally consider such friendliness a weakness. They are bitter. Unquestionably spills on legal interpretations have cut harshly into the personal lives of the justices...

Now the Black faction has been in the majority only about half the time, mostly, I believe, in union labor cases in which they have rewritten the anti-trust law and greatly expanded the immunity of unions.

In other cases the Stone-Roberts-Frankfurter group, presenting what might be called the "legal front" of the court, frequently has been joined by Justices Reed and Jackson to make a majority of five against the Black group.

If Mr. Truman chooses as Roberts' successor anyone who will join the Black group, the court may be gone for the next 10 to 20 years. If he appoints another Reed or Jackson, the present deplorable predicament of the highest tribunal will be still further complicated.

Friday noon, it was announced by Lee Hendricks, program chairman. Col. Van Orden, who is an honorary member of Rotary, will outline the accomplishments made at the Barracks during his tenure as commanding officer.

SNELL TO RETURN

SALEM, July 10 (P)—Governor Earl Snell will return Friday from Mackinac Island, Mich., where he is attending the National Governors' conference...

MARINE'S NARROW ESCAPE DESCRIBED
(Written by Staff Sergeant Vic Kalman, marine corps combat correspondent, and distributed by The Associated Press.)

OKINAWA, Ryukyu Islands, (Delayed) (P)—Marine Capt. William H. Lyons, 28, Grants Pass, Ore., a veteran of three major campaigns in the Pacific, had his strangest and narrowest escape during the battle for this island...

Lyons, preparing to demolish a cave, sat on what he thought was a log just inside the entrance. It turned out to be a Japanese soldier's leg. The Japanese sat up, pulled the fuse on a grenade and held it against Lyons' stomach.

The marine ran from the cave. Outside, he found, to his horror, that the grenade was caught in his shirt. He flicked it aside and hit the dirt just as the grenade went off. He was shaken up, but uninjured.

A few seconds later Lyons heard another sharp report in the cave. The Japanese had blown himself up.

BOND SALES REACH $320,000 FOR TULELAKE

TULELAKE—Tulelake's 7th War Loan campaign went over the top with total sales reaching $320,000. It was announced today by R. M. Prior and A. A. Rodenberger, co-chairman of the war finance committee.

The quota for this part of Siskiyou county was $305,000, or $100,000 more than in the 6th War Loan drive. Approximately $250,000 of the total sold were E bonds.

Three Georges—George Reiben, George Williams, George Yost—headed committees including 80 businessmen and farmers, each of whom was responsible for the sale of $3000 in bonds.

Prior gave credit to James Bragg, co-owner of the Roosevelt tavern, and John Cortez, Siskiyou deputy sheriff, who engineered the ball game and auction between the tavern keepers and Tulelake firemen, that boosted sales by about $10,000.

Early in the drive, sales were stimulated by the personal appearance of U. S. army combat fliers and mechanized war equipment brought here on Memorial Day. No report has been made for the Tulelake area of Modoc county.

Portland Man Takes Oath As Director

SALEM, July 10 (P)—Jerry Saylor, Portland insurance man who managed Governor Earl Snell's election campaign in 1942, was sworn in yesterday as executive director of the public employees retirement board.

He will administer the 1945 law which provides for retirement pensions for public employees. His office is in the state insurance department's Portland office.
