

Lord Byron Downs Byrd, 4 And 3, To Annex PGA Crown On Dayton Course

By FRITZ HOWWELL
DAYTON, O., July 16 (AP)—Byron Nelson of Toledo, the three-day-old PGA championship crown perched jauntily on his sunburned brow, will decide this week whether to retire from golf for a while.

The transplanted Texan, who yesterday defeated Sam Byrd of Redford, Mich., 4 and 3, to take the title over Moraine Country club's hilly, wind-swept course, said he would enter the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., Wednesday for a checkup.

"My back has been bothering me," Nelson explained. "I want to find out just what the trouble is, and if the doctors say I need a rest I'll just put away my clubs until they tell me I can play again."

Nelson's back was injured about two weeks ago in a driving contest preceding the Victory Open in Chicago. He went on to win that event, and in the PGA concluded here yesterday he played 204 holes in seven days.

Each night during the tourney Nelson underwent heat, massage and osteopath treatment to prepare for the next day's round, and despite the injury he scored 48 birdies and two eagles, went over par only 115 times and finished 37 under par for 204 holes. That performance earned him the title, $5000 in war bonds, a huge silver cup and assorted trinkets.

Byrd, the former Yankee baseballer who gave up the diamond for the links in 1936, had 39 birdies and one eagle in his 197 holes of tourney play, but skidded over on 27 holes to finish 14 under even figures.

Byrd toured the first 18 in 67 strokes, five under par, while Nelson was using up 69, but Nelson, appearing in the finals for the fifth time, in the last six PGA classics, didn't appear perturbed.

"Sam was pretty tough out there this morning, wasn't he?" Nelson asked at lunch. "But I figure I should be even now instead of two down."

Lead Erased
Byrd hiked his lead to three on the 21st as Nelson muffed a four-foot putt, but then Byrd's game began to fall apart. He lost to Nelson's birdie on the 22nd, and skidded over par on both the 25th and 26th to hit the final turn all even, his once-commanding lead erased.

With Byrd's putter cooled off, Nelson romped to win the 29th, 30th, 31st and 32nd in a row, and halved the next in par three—despite a tee shot which soared over the green into the gallery—to close out the match.

Shapely Frances Taglieri has been voted Queen of Tuna Fleet at Atlantic City and you must admit she has nice lines. Oh, for the life of a tuna fisherman!

Byrd's first appearance in St. Louis since his trade to the Boston Braves, Mort Cooper gained his ninth victory at the expense of his former teammates, holding the Cardinals scoreless in two innings of relief pitching in the nightcap.

Tommy Holmes exploded his 15th homer in the opener to tie for the league lead, but was held in check in the aftermath for only the eighth time this season in 80 games.

Bucs Whip Busted
Pittsburgh blasted 30 hits in the double-header against Brooklyn to win both games easily, 9-1 and 15-3. After Truett Sewell annexed his 10th triumph in the opener with a seven-hit performance, the Buccos hacked out 19 hits in the finale against Hal Gregg and Clyde King.

The American League began taking on the appearance of last summer's close struggle as the New York Yankees handed first place to Detroit its fourth straight defeat, 5-4, to narrow the Tigers' margin to one and half game over second-place Washington.

The Yankees won in the sixth inning with a three-run rally to overcome a 4-2 deficit. A pass by Relief Pitcher Walter Wilson with the bases full, forced in the winning run. The victory enabled the Yankees to retain their third-place tie with Boston, two and a half games behind first.

The Red Sox won a curtailed 5 1/2-inning contest from Cleveland, 6-4.

Cincinnati won two from the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-1 and 3-1. Bucky Walters gained his eighth triumph by outpitching Charley Schanz, who tied a modern major league record by hitting four Red batters. Vern Kennedy, former Phil, held his ex-mates to six hits in the nightcap.

Rain washed out the Athletics-White Sox doubleheader as well as the Browns-Senators twin-bill.

SANTA CRUZ, Calif., July 16 (AP)—Ann Curtis of San Francisco, holder of nearly all American women's swimming records, is still Pacific Association AAU champion today, though she failed Saturday in an attempt to better her 270-yard free style record of 2:29.3 set at Oakland last year.

Swimming the distance in 2:31.3, she defeated her Crystal plunge teammate Myrlin Sanner. Miss Sanner came in ahead of Helen Graham of this city, a College of the Pacific student.

Eleven-year-old Helen Wilson of San Francisco defeated Beverly Graham, 10, Helen's sister, by two feet in a 50-yard free style race. The time was 34.6 seconds.

DETROIT—Bring Me Home, 9 to 2, won $10,000 Governors Handicap, Bold Question second, Night Crawler third.

Chicago Leads National League By 4 Full Games; Yankees Nudge Tigers, 5-4

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Pitching, which was supposed to be the Chicago Cubs' weakest department, may land Manager Charlie Grimm's gang their first pennant in seven years.

Including yesterday's double triumph over the New York Giants, 5-3 and 7-2, the Cubs' hurling corps has pitched 10 complete games in their last 15, and 14 were victories. The Cubs lead the National league by four full games.

In the doubleheader against the Giants, Hy Vandenberg held his former mates to three hits in the opener and Hank Wisse annexed his 12th victory in the nightcap.

One-Legged Vet Pitches For Senators

Bert Shepard, one-legged war veteran, is congratulated by admires from the Walter Reed Army General hospital during the game on the night of July 10 in Washington between the Senators and the Brooklyn Dodgers. The inter-league game was for the war relief fund. Shepard pitched the first four innings and received credit for the 4 to 3 win. (AP Wirephoto.)

Zivic Angered Over Rumor Of Retirement

By SKIPPER PATRICK
NEW ORLEANS, July 16 (AP)—Colorful Fritzie Zivic, the iron man of boxing from Pittsburgh, had two important announcements today.

First: "I'll knockout Bill McDowell quick tonight."
Second: "I'm not retiring from boxing, nor have I ever said that I was going to retire."

Apparently somewhat disgruntled over reports that he was going to retire from the game for "keeps," Zivic said he wanted to make it clear that he had a "bunch of good fights" left in him and that he would prove it, starting tonight, in a scheduled 10-rounder with McDowell.

Zivic Eyes Championship
"Boxing people and some sports writers have been retiring for me for years," Zivic said, "but get it straight pal, Fritzie has never threatened such a thing. Why, I've even got postwar plans that might make me a world champion again."

Zivic explained that he has had 17 fights this year, losing only three—his last three, on "split decisions."

"They were tough fights to lose," Zivic insisted. "Bobby Green got a decision in Madison Square Garden when I should have gotten it. I whipped Ruben Shank in Pittsburgh and Shank got a split decision, and I lost by a split vote to Ossie Harris in Pittsburgh last week."

Zivic swears that 15 years in the ring hasn't softened him. He says he's as physically fit today as the night five years ago when he won the world middleweight title from Henry Armstrong.

The fighting army corporal, now stationed at San Antonio, Tex., said the fight tonight would be his last for a while because his "furlough is up."

First League All-Star Game Scheduled For Tonight In Portland's Vaughn Park

By The Associated Press
The Portland Beavers today were still 34 games ahead of the Seattle Rainiers who had pressed them for leadership of the Pacific Coast league.

The Beavers and Rainiers took both ends of their doubleheader yesterday. Portland turning back San Francisco, 8-4 and 5-4, and Seattle downing the Hollywood Stars, 5-3 and 4-0. Before that Seattle had crept to within 24 games of the leaders.

The Pacific northwest clubs join tonight to match their visitors in the first league all-star game played in Portland's Vaughn Park.

North vs. South
Likewise it will be north vs. south at Los Angeles where the Angels and San Diego Padres play the Sacramento and Oakland clubs. The games are for the benefit of the National Association of Professional Baseball Players.

Oakland copped a rare series from Sacramento Sunday, four games to three, by dividing with Sacramento, 1-0 and 0-5. Displaying its pitching power, Los Angeles rolled over the humble Padres, 3-1 and 4-0, to advance into sixth place.

Although he was knocked off the mound by a Seals rally in the eighth inning, Don Pulford claimed his 15th victory in the first game at Portland. Roy Helser finished the hurling chores. Closely pressed in the nightcap, Portland went out to win in the seventh and filled the bags with three singles. Ted Gulle dro in the final run.

Buds Take Two
Seattle's twin win was assured in the first frame of the second game when they punched over three runs and then held the Stars in check. It was Chet Johnson's sixth straight win. Newt Kimball had been assured the matinee win by a five-run fourth.

At Oakland, attack work in the final innings resulted in the double whitewashing the Acorns and Solons handed each other. Vic Picetti's sharp single scored Jake Caulfield with the first game's lone run, while a four-run seventh, featured by Jack Calvey's 13th double of the year, clinched the deal for Sacramento.

Los Angeles' batters gave Don Osborn his ninth win in the first game against the Padres, but it was a tight pitching duel in the second between Volle Eaves of San Diego and George Conellas who held the visitors in hand for his sixth victory.

TENNIS
MENASHA, Wis.—Bill Taibert, Wilmington, Del., won western tennis tournament, defeating Elwood Cooke, Boston, 6-2, 6-3, 7-5. Doris Hart, Miami, Fla., captured women's title, defeating Mary Arnold, Los Angeles, 6-3, 8-6.

PHILADELPHIA—Shirley Fry Akrone, O., won mid-states women's grass court title, by defeating Mrs. H. Pederson Ribbany, New York, 7-5, 6-2.

Sports Briefs

NEW YORK, July 16 (AP)—Scope: The 1945 Army-Navy football game already has been played and wound up in a scoreless tie. That information comes via a copy of the "Daily Pacifican" relayed from Manila by Dick Case, the trotting-horse man. . . . The game was played in mud and rain (not uncommon at Army-Navy tussles) in Manila's Rizal stadium before 20,000 GI fans who jammed the end zones and even perched on the stadium roof. . . . Navy, with Indian Bill Geyer, formerly of Colgate and the Chicago Bears, making some nice off tackle gains and shifty Bill Gatewood threatening to break loose, reached the 25-yard line several times only to be stopped by Army's linemen, led by Major Tom Mesereau, who was playing guard at West Point a couple of years ago.

SHOOT FORMATION
The "Pacifican" also tells how six doughboys detailed to check infiltration attempts along a Philippine trail devised by 2-1-1-2 defense that worked. . . . They heard shooting to the rear and two figures raced down the trail. . . . Sgt. Wallace Swanson of Hinckley, Minn., decided to take out the interference himself, with two assistants, while the other three took the second runner. . . . That's just what they did, with no worries about roughing penalties, and the second trio collared an extremely scared Jap. . . . Just then Swanson and his buddies heard an outraged "What the hell are you guys doing?" So they released their victim—a member of the party they were supposed to protect.

HEADLINE HEADLINER
When the major league managers consented to name the 1945 all-star teams, even though the game had been called off. Scribe Tom Stenhouse of the Elkhardt, Ind., Daily Truth, wrote a headline: "ODT—Only Dream Teams". . . . "But," Steve confesses ruefully, "the desk cancelled that, too."

Leathernecks Trip Medford Craters, 11-0

The marine ball team made it eight straight victories in a row yesterday afternoon at Recreation park by whitewashing the Medford Craters, 11-0, behind the three-hit hurling of Herman Sutton and Hy Chapin.

Only one Medford runner was able to reach second base while the Leathernecks pounded two Medford pitchers for eight hits, two of which were circuit clouts by West and Chapin.

The marines made no errors while Medford was guilty of two bobbles. Fourteen Leathernecks were left stranded on the bases and three Medford players died on base.

Busch, marine second-sacker, accounted for four hits in five trips to the plate to pace the Leatherneck attack. Jack Braham, leading marine slugger, had a poor day at bat with one hit out of six trips, but made some sensational stops at first base.

Sutton started on the mound for the marines but was forced to quit at the end of the fifth frame with a sore arm. He gave up three hits, struck out eight, and walked one in five innings.

Chapin relieved him and hand-cuffed the Craters in the remaining four innings, striking out six batsmen and pitching to only 12 batters.

In their last eight games the Leathernecks have scored a starting total of 105 runs against 31 by the opposition.

Short score:

EUGENE, Ore., July 16 (AP)—Lt. Comdr. Gerald A. (Tex) Oliver resumed duties as University of Oregon head football coach today after serving in the navy three years.

Oliver, placed on inactive duty a week ago, returned to the campus yesterday. While in service he was grid coach for the St. Marys pre-flight team, Moraga, Calif., and recreation director in the Atlantic and Pacific areas.

He said he would start shaping plans at once for Oregon's nine-game 1945 Pacific Coast conference grid schedule.

Lillard Eyes Bout Between Two Toughies

Promoter Mack Lillard is seeking to rematch Antone Leone and Buck Lipscomb in the main event on the rattling card Friday night at the armory.

Leone has been hesitant about meeting Lipscomb again after winning here last week on a fluke. If Leone refuses to sign for the bout, Lillard will probably offer a tiff between Leone and Ernie Piluso as the headline tussle.

Piluso issued a challenge to Leone last week. Jack Kiser will also appear on the card against a top opponent.

NEW YORK—Wildlife, $9.10, scored upset victory in $57,000 Dwyer Stakes before 38,964 at Aqueduct. Gallot second, Estem third. Pavot, 4 to 5, last by 30 lengths. Mist o' Gold, $5.40, captured $10,000 added Great American Stakes for two-year-olds. Degage second, Desert Ration third.

CHICAGO—Pot o' Luck, $3.20, won $84,450 Arlington Classic before 25,000 at Washington park. Air Sailor second. Fighting Step third. War Date, $9, won $20,000 Modesty Stake for fillies and mares. Night Shadow second, Duranza third.

CAMDEN, N. J.—Sea Snack, $13.80, won $10,000 Rancocas Stakes, Red Shoes second, Twenty Thirty third.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 16 (AP)—The resignation of Jerry Lillie as Grant high school football and track mentor to coach at Central Washington College of Education, Ellensburg, was announced today.

Lillie, a 1931 University of Oregon graduate, will succeed Phil Sorbo at Ellensburg. Sorbo is to take over as chief grid coach at Washington State college.

Grant's football squad won 48, lost 10 and tied 7 games under Lillie, winning the 1943 state crown and finishing second in 1944. He said he would be "loaned" to Ellensburg high school this coming year to coach basketball and football, starting his college job next spring with track.
