Reception Event Of Friday Evening

Climaxing several weeks of informal events and parties at the Marine Barracks was the reception held on Friday evening in honor of Col. Merlin Schneider, new commanding officer at the Barracks, and Col. and Mrs. George O. Van Orden, who are leaving this coming week.

The reception was held in the beautiful bachelor officers quarters from 5 until 7 o'clock with Klamath Falls people and officers and their guests greeting the two colonels.

The Van Ordens have been here since last November when Col. Van Orden took over command of the barracks at the post from Col. Bernard Dubel. Col. Schneider has come here from Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif., where he spent most of a 30-day leave after returning to the United States from action with the marine corps in the Marshalls, Guam, and Okinawa.

Col. Van Orden will leave soon for overseas duty and Mrs. Van Orden will return with their two children, Florette and George Jr., to Pennsylvania where they will remain until the colonel returns from overseas.

An arrangement of sweet peas in colors of red, white and blue in a low ruby-glass bowl made an attractive centerpiece for the lace-covered dining room table.

Iced tea and cookies were served at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Wattenburg was assisted by Mrs. M. S. Blden and Orin Wattenburg.

Present for this delightful mid-summer meeting were Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, president; Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. J. F. Goeller, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. George Chastain, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. Calvin Hunt, Mrs. Rufus Moore, Mrs. Z. J. Powell, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. King of San Francisco, cousin of Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby, Mrs. A. B. Lund, Mrs. F. R. Olds, Mrs. J. F. Penrod, Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mrs. Lyle O. Mills and Mrs. Maude Hosley.

Slumber Party

Barbara Reeder, granddaughter of Judge and Mrs. U. E. Reeder, was hostess to a group of girls at a lawn slumber party, Tuesday, July 17.

Refreshments were served throughout the evening. Those invited to the affair were Ruth Fletcher, Jeannine Selby, Marjann Matthews, Doris Liggett, Beverly Melhase, Nancy Elliott and Cleo Lampropoulos.

Visitors Honored

The attractive home of Mrs. Mae Seemes on Pacific Terrace was the scene of a dinner given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pettenger of Los Angeles on Thursday evening.

Imogene V. Rowan Is Recent Bride

TULELAKE—Before an altar banked with white gladiol and deep blue delphinium complimented by lighted white tapers in tall candelabra, Imogene V. Rowan, eldest daughter of Mrs. Mabel Rowan, became the bride on Saturday evening, July 14, of Pvt. Eugene V. Smith, Company C, U. S. army, Camp Tulelake. The ring service was read in the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Hugh L. Bronson in the presence of relatives and friends of the young couple.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. William Bond and Mrs. William Humphries played a piano duet, "I Love You Truly." They played also the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore a short formal of powder blue made with draped shoulders and short peplum and a halo hat in the same shade as her dress. Her flowers, arranged in a spray, were pink and blue sweet peas.

Phyllis Rowan was bridesmaid for her sister. Her frock was white and she carried a spray of pink and white sweet peas and wore a tiara of the same flowers.

Cpl. Wynston Stokes, Camp Tulelake, was best man. The ushers were Pvt. Olchawa and Pvt. John Chicarelli, both of the same military camp.

Mrs. Rowan wore for the ceremony a black afternoon gown with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple received in the annex of the church. The lace-covered bride's table was centered with a three-tiered white bride's cake topped with a soldier and bride. Pastel shaded sweet peas in cut glass bowls and tall tapers in cut glass holders flanked the center arrangement.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Nona Stonecypffer, Mrs. Wanda Dyerst and Mardell Long, three sisters, and Mrs. Mary McCuan.

Mrs. Ival Wolfe arranged the table appointments and the altar flowers were arranged by Mrs. E. Webb Staunton.

Following a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home on "A" street in Tulelake.

The bride is employed in a secretarial capacity at the Tulelake headquarters of the fish and wildlife service. The groom was a resident of Campbell, Mo. before his army service.

Out of town guests, here for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pedersen and twin daughters, Margaret and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Goulden, Mrs. Howard King and Maxine Allman, all of Alturas; Mrs. Irene Markham, Willa Lynch, Cpl. and Mrs. Elmer Jacobson and PFC. Jimmie Jones, USMC, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Louise Hell, aunt of the bride, who is visiting here from Winnemucca, Nev.

Recent Wedding

Eunice L. Steinman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin E. Steinman of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Joseph S. Humphries, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Humphries of Medford, in a ceremony read on Saturday, June 30, at 9 o'clock. Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., of the First Presbyterian church officiated.

Attendants of the couple were Cpl. and Mrs. Albert Minelli. After the ceremony, the young couple left for an extended honeymoon trip to the coast. They plan to make their home in Klamath Falls.

The bride was formerly employed at the First National bank in Klamath Falls.

The groom received an honorable discharge from the army air corps on June 6 of this year, having served in the European theater.
