

SPRINGFIELD PLANT STILL STRIKE-BOUND

SPRINGFIELD, Ore., July 23 (AP)—The strike-bound Springfield Plywood plant remained closed here today following a walkout of AFL sympathizers during the night shift Thursday. There was no official indication as to when the plant, producing 5,000,000 board feet of war material monthly, would resume operation. Ninety-nine CIO workers reported to work this morning, and when the company decided against attempting to operate with an inadequate crew, the men reported to the U. S. employment office for unemployment compensation.

There was a strong rumor here today that the government would order the U. S. navy to take control of the plant either Tuesday or Wednesday—assuring that all workers, regardless of union affiliation, would return to work.

Should the navy or army take control, the plant would still be operated by the same management, the company would still receive the profits—but the CIO union men would not be required to pay their regular CIO dues as long as operation was under government control.

Nurse Vacations At Camp Tulelake

Caucasian Cadet Nurse Jeanette King thinks nothing of spending her vacation in a Japanese relocation camp.

Miss King, who is in training at the Mother Cabrini Memorial hospital in Chicago, visited recently with Mae Michiye Kawai at the Tulelake relocation center. Miss Kawai has visited the King home in Chicago, so she in turn invited her to the Kawai home at the colony. Both girls reported a wonderful time.

REPORTS TO SEATTLE
MALIN—Ensign Carl Coulson, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coulson, has reported for a temporary assignment in Seattle after spending a leave here with his parents. He has completed his training at Harvard university, where he studied for three months, and anticipates sea duty in the near future. He is a graduate of the Tulelake high school.

Flashes of Life

SUBTLE REMINDER
SALEM, Ore., July 23 (AP)—State Forester Nels Rogers had been directing crews vainly trying to block the worst war-time forest fire in this state. He returned to his home and found his neighbor's house ablaze. Rogers offered to help fight the flames but a fireman refused his aid with this cutting remark: "We've got this one under control."

FLOODED DRY
NORTH KANSAS CITY, July 23 (AP)—It was awfully dry during the flood here but now that it's over there's plenty of water for the citizenry.

One of the settling basins overflowed and flooded the city's water station, drowning out the motors that drive the pumps. For almost an entire day there was no water in the mains and the mercury was near the 100 mark but relief came yesterday when a tractor furnished a makeshift power plant for the pumps.

STRAPHANGER
CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—Dr. David P. Boder, a psychiatrist, reported to police the loss of a memorial watch he had had 20 years. He noticed it was missing after alighting from a crowded streetcar. Six hours later John Kelly called the doctor at home and said he had found the timepiece, inscribed with Boder's name, hanging to his coat button. A fraternity key on the chain had looped the button, pulling the watch with it.

AGENT NAMED
PORTLAND, July 22 (AP)—Leslie C. Thompson has been named Oregon agent for the U. S. employment service office at Fort Lewis by State Manpower Director L. C. Stoll.

U of O Fall Term Opening Date Told

EUGENE, July 23 (AP)—The fall term at the University of Oregon will open September 24 after registration September 21-22. Freshmen enrollment is expected to exceed last year's. More than 450 already have applied for admission. First summer school sessions ended July 21. Students will enroll for the second session Tuesday.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS
MERRILL—Members of the Lost River garden club will meet Tuesday, July 24, at the home of Mrs. J. R. Blatch, instead of with Mrs. A. J. King. Roll call will be a song, naming a flower. J. R. McCann-bridge, assistant county agent, will speak on pest control.

Court Refuses OPA Request

PORTLAND, Ore., July 23 (AP)—An OPA request to halt shipment of privately-owned rationed food and shoes to Russia has been refused by a federal court here. Judge James A. Fee told OPA Enforcement Attorney W. A. Stockman "this involves national policy" and he would not act on an injunction request unless directed by the U. S. attorney general or advised by OPA Administrator Chester Bowles.
