China Refuses Newsman's Entry

NEW DELL, July 24 (AP)—For the second time in recent weeks China has refused permission for an American correspondent to re-enter China.

Harold Isaacs, correspondent for the magazine Newsweek, who was on his way to China from home leave, was informed yesterday by the army that the Chinese government had refused him reentry.

Previously Darrell Berrigan, Far Eastern correspondent of the New York Post, was denied permission by the Chinese government to return.

Portland Police Hunt Slot Machines

PORTLAND, July 24 (AP)—A special police squad ordered to collect the city's slot machines yesterday turned into headquarters a lone Chinese lottery game and a punchboard after weekend raids.

"They disappeared as if by magic," noted one officer when asked about the slot machines which last week were reported in peace-time abundance in most clubs.

Merrill Passes Grade Ordinance

MERRILL—In a move to avoid variance in elevation in placing of curbs and sidewalks, the city has authorized a grade ordinance by which future installations will be guided.

Property owners who plan to improve property with this type of installation may get permits from Mrs. Eva Bowman, city recorder.

Merrill

PFC and Mrs. Clinton R. Jester were guests this week of Jester's sister, Mrs. A. J. King and family. Overseas for a year, where he served in the 80th medical hospital in New Guinea and later near Manila, he has been returned to the United States for medical treatment. Following a 30-day sick leave he will return to the Harmon General hospital, Longview, Tex. He visited also with his sisters, Mrs. Eugene H. Larsen and Mrs. George Rowden, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Jester is remaining at their home in Grants Pass during her husband's absence.

Mrs. Frank Merrill, Corvallis, has been a recent visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jinnette.

The Missionary-Aid of the Merrill Presbyterian church met for the July session at the home of Mrs. John W. Taylor with Mrs. Pete McNeill and Mrs. Stanley Anderson as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Effie Eagle was in charge of the devotional program and Mrs. Lester Moore had the missionary topic.

Members decided to serve the luncheon for the Merrill Service club on August 14 and discussed sewing projects completed for overseas use.

Present for the meeting and refreshments were Mrs. Warren Conner, Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. Effie Eagle, Mrs. Miles Moore, Mrs. Lester Moore, Mrs. Aubrey Fleming, Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Mrs. Calvin Haskins, Mrs. Luther Haskins, Mrs. Velton Haskins and Mrs. W. F. Jinnette.

Mrs. Bertha Woodward, Mrs. Peggy Brickell and Bonnie Dean were initiated in the Women of the Moose, Merrill chapter No. 18, on July 17 by officers who served the chapter in 1944. Names of the Moose sisters which were to have been drawn at this meeting will be drawn at the first August meeting.

Gladys Allen won the defense fund prize. Mrs. Margaret Fields, senior regent, presided.

On July 13, the Friendship group met for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Rose Van Meter, Malin. Mrs. Leta Stolt presided in the absence of Mrs. Dovie Reeder. Places were marked at the table for Mrs. Stolt, Mrs. Bessie Aubrey, Mrs. Anna Hartlerode, Mrs. Dorris Winebarger, Mrs. Mary Lou Nine and the hostess, Mrs. Van Meter.

You are lucky if you only walk a mile for a cigarette. You are cautious and wise if you do not take a single step before being sure it is out. Keep Oregon Green.

WHEAT

CHICAGO, July 24 (AP)—Grain futures with the exception of oats carried a firm undertone in today's trade.

Reports of government purchase of cash wheat, combined with an announcement by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson that the national planting goal for 1946 wheat would be 68,875,000 acres were contributing factors in the advance of wheat. The government goal for wheat acreage is 67,000 acres more than this year, and was interpeted by traders as meaning a large part of this year's crop would go to feeding war stricken countries.

The trade in rye was not as heavy as in recent sessions. Little corn was offered. Oats dragged most of the session.

At he close wheat was 1⅛ to 1¼c higher than yesterday's close, September $1.63¾-⅞. Corn was unchanged to ⅛c higher, September $1.18⅝. Oats were ⅛ to ⅛c lower, September 64⅛-¼. Rye was 2 to 2¼c higher, September $1.41⅛-¼. Barley was ⅛ to 1¼c higher, September $1.11⅛.

Market Quotations

NEW YORK, July 24 (AP)— Stocks were a bit steadier in today's market although the line of least resistance still was downward.

Reconversion apprehension persisted as the main selling argument. Numerous customers held aloof to await developments in the far east and at the "Big Three" conference.
